Future Of Empirical Theology Volume 7:

God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume Two Jeff B. Pool, 2010-01-01 This book constitutes the second volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering vol 2 Evil and Divine Suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God This second volume of studies proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of this symbol those implicit attestations that provide the conditions of possibility for divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation as identified and examined in the first volume of this project an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love The second volume then investigates the first two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally attest 1 divine grief suffering because of betrayal by the beloved human or human sin and 2 divine self sacrifice suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation Each divine wound thus constitutes a response to a creaturely occasion The suffering in each divine wound also occurs in two stages a passive stage and an active stage In divine grief God suffers because of human sin betrayal of the divine lover by the beloved human divine sorrow as the passive stage of divine grief and divine anguish as the active stage of divine grief In divine self sacrifice God suffers in response to the misery or bondage of the beloved human's infidelity divine travail focused on the divine incarnation in Jesus of Nazareth as the active stage of divine self sacrifice and divine agony focused on divine suffering in the crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth as the passive stage of divine self sacrifice

Reason & the Contours of Faith

Richard Rice, 2013-05-17 Can reason and religion get together Should believers think Can thinking people believe Does religion have to make sense Does careful thinking help or hinder religious experience People have wrestled with such questions for hundreds of years and they are just as perplexing today as ever Reason the Contours of Faith explores the wide ranging issues these questions raise from biblical interpretation and proofs for God's existence to the nature of religious conversion Its central purpose is to find an alternative to both fideism the idea that reason has nothing to do with faith and rationalism the conviction that reason has everything to do with it Part One Reason and the Contents of Faith argues that reason contributes in important but limited ways to our understanding of religion Part Two Reason and the Experience of Faith shows that reason can support religious commitment but never produces it

Theology in Japan J. Nelson Jennings, 2005 Japanese Christian leader Takakura Tokutaro 1885 1934 is the focus of this exhaustive historical and theological study Takakura's life spanned a critical period in developing Japan a new member of the modern family of nations At the age of 21 through the preaching of the immensely influential church leader Uemura Masahisa Takakura converted to the Christian faith He later spent over two years in the West reading extensively in British and German theology Takakura thus faced the challenge of absorbing numerous lines of influence and re articulating the Christian faith within his own generation's distinctly Japanese linguistic and religious cultural context His personal religious experience was a microcosm of the universalization of Christian theology during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Despite having played important leadership roles within the Protestant Church in Japan during the 1920s and early 1930s Takakura's name is scarcely known outside limited Japanese theological circles This study lends recognition to his influential role in the Christian Church It also utilizes Takakura's example to provide further insight into the universalizing trend in Christian thought that continues even today

Render Unto God James Newton Poling, 2012-03-01 What marks principles and values from our study of Jesus can guide our reflections about the church and its witness in a world of economic injustice What kinds of principles ought to be part of an ecclesiology in a world where family violence is epidemic So asks author James Poling in his exploration of the role of faith and religious practice as a resource for those who are economically vulnerable to domestic violence In this groundbreaking work Poling focuses his research on women and children in working class and poor communities of three cultures analyzing the forces that define and sustain economic vulnerability and detailing how such vulnerability affects the daily lives of people within these communities He looks at how the church can function as a source of healing and empowerment for persons who are trapped by domestic violence and economic vulnerability and develops models for prevention of violence and of practical ministry for pastoral care of the victims and perpetrators

Feeling Felt in Pastoral Care Counselling and Supervision Wim Smeets, Sirkku Tukiainen, 2024-08 This book contains several scientific and professional contributions of the 13th Conference of the European Council on Pastoral Care and Counselling a network of organizations and individuals in the practice teaching or supervising of pastoral care and counselling in Europe

Continuing the Reformation B. A. Gerrish, 1993 Modern Christian religious thought B A Gerrish argues has constantly revised the inherited faith In these twelve essays written or published in the 1980s one of the most distinguished historical theologians of our time examines the changes that occurred as the Catholic tradition gave way to the Reformation and an interest in the phenomenon of believing replaced adherence to unchanging dogma Gerrish devotes three essays to each of four topics Martin Luther and the Reformation religious belief and the Age of Reason Friedrich Schleiermacher and the renewal of Protestant theology and Schleiermacher's disciple Ernst Troeltsch for whom the theological task was to give a rigorous account of the faith prevailing in a particular religious community at a particular time Gerrish shows how faith itself has become a primary object of inquiry not only in the newly emerging philosophy of religion but also in a new style of church theology which no longer assumes that faith rests on immutable dogmas For Gerrish the new theology of Protestant liberalism takes for its primary object of inquiry the changing forms of the religious life This important book will interest scholars of systematic Christian theology modern intellectual and cultural history and the history and philosophy of religion

Early Ecotheology and Joseph Sittler Panu Pihkala, 2017 When did Christians begin to address environmental questions What can be learned from these pioneering thinkers This study reveals that between 1910 and 1954 many theologians called for responsibility towards nature The focal point is the work of Joseph Sittler 1904 1987 an American Lutheran and ecumenical theologian The role of these early ecotheologians is discussed in relation to environmental history and education The findings show that ecotheology was not as strongly separated from other environmentalism as it was after the 1960s Series Studies in Religion and the Environment Studien zur Religion und Umwelt Vol 12 Subject Religious Studies Environmental Studies Ecotheology Joseph Sittler Andrews University Seminary Studies Andrews University. Seventh-Day Adventist Theological Seminary, 1974 The Minimalist Vision of Transcendence Jerome Arthur Stone, 1992-01-01 Kierkegaard Bibliography Peter Šajda, Jon Bartley Stewart, 2016 Subject Guide to Forthcoming Books, 1969 Presents by subject the same titles that are listed by author and title in Forthcoming books Science, Theology, and the Transcendental Horizon Roy Dennis Morrison, 1994 Shekhinah/Spirit Michael Lodahl, 2012-07-01 Shekhinah Spirit is a daring rediscovery of the role of the Spirit of God that runs through both Judaism and Christianity It explores the rich and diverse history of Jewish interpretations of the divine presence and shows how many profound Jewish insights impact or relate to Christian understanding of the Holy Spirit The author argues for the viability of a Spirit Christology that can be understood from within the covenant relationship and points to the exciting implications such directions will have for the doctrine of the Trinity among Christians At the same time it links Judaism and Christianity in dialogue to a common ground in the saving activity of the God of Israel Shekhinah Spirit is a provocative attempt to deepen the grounds of discussion in the Jewish Christian dialogue It moves beyond the sticking point of Christological disputes to consider broader aspects of the questions of God's plan It explores three important areas in depth the question of exclusivism in election evil and eschatology The author works with a series of major problem areas in order to help bridge misunderstandings and roadblocks by using a process of relational theology This book is full of rich insights into the spirituality of both God's presence and God's spirit in the Judeo Christian tradition Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion, Volume 7, 2021-11-22 The purpose of this book is to provide an outlet for original research articles examining the role and value of religious and spiritual constructs across the social sciences The aim of the series is to include an international and interfaith voice to this research dialogue An effort is made to be interdisciplinary and academically eclectic The articles in each volume represent a wide array of perspectives and research projects Most of the articles report the findings of quantitative or qualitative investigations but some deal with methodology theory or applications of social science studies in the field of religion and some are applied demonstrating the relevance of the social sciences to religious

A History of the Quests for the Historical Jesus, Volume 2 Colin Brown, Craig A. Evans, 2022-11-08 A comprehensive two volume reassessment of the quests for the historical Jesus that details their origins and underlying presuppositions as well as their ongoing influence on today's biblical and theological scholarship Jesus life and teaching is important to every question we ask about what we believe and why we believe it And yet there has never been common agreement about his identity intentions or teachings even among first century historians and scholars Throughout history different religious and philosophical traditions have attempted to claim Jesus and paint him in the cultural narratives of their heritage creating a labyrinth of conflicting ideas From the evolution of orthodoxy and quests before Albert Schweitzer's famous Old Quest to today's ongoing questions about criteria methods and sources A History of the Quests for the Historical Jesus not only chronicles the developments but lays the groundwork for the way forward The late Colin Brown brings his scholarly prowess in both theology and biblical studies to bear on the subject assessing not only the historical and exegetical nuts and bolts of the debate about Jesus of Nazareth but also its philosophical sociological and theological underpinnings Instead of seeking a bedrock of facts Brown stresses the role of hermeneutics in formulating questions and seeking answers Colin Brown was almost finished with the manuscript at the time of his passing in 2019 Brought to its final form by Craig A. Evans this book promises to become the definitive history and assessment of the quests for the historical Jesus Volume One sold separately covers the period from the beginnings of Christianity to the end of World War II Volume Two covers the period from the post War era through contemporary debates
