Future Of Religion:

The Future of Religion Rodney Stark, William Sims Bainbridge, 1985 Religion is alive and well in the modern world and the social scientific study of religion is undergoing a renaissance For much of this century respected social theorists predicted the death of religion as inevitable consequence of science education and modern economics But they were wrong Stark and Bainbridge set out to explain the survival of religion Using information derived from numerous surveys censuses historical case studies and ethnographic field expeditions they chart the full sweep of contemporary religion from the traditional denominations to the most fervent cults This wealth of information is located within a coherent theoretical framework that examines religion as a social response to human needs both the general needs shared by all and the desires specific to those who are denied the economic rewards or prestige enjoyed by the privileged By explaining the forms taken by religions today Stark and Bainbridge allow us to understand its persistence in a secular age and its prospects for the future

The Future of Religion and the Religion of the Future Theodore John Rivers, 2011-11-25 In The Future of Religion and the Religion of the Future Theodore John Rivers explores the changing relationship between technology and religion Rivers draws upon his expertise in the fields of medieval and religious history to discuss how the promotion of Christianity and monasticism in the Middle Ages began a process that has lent religious undertones to the way in which we interact with modern technology Rivers ultimately suggests that the growing presence of technology makes it a likely candidate for the next religious form competing with all the major religions in place today The Future of Religion Michael R.

Ott, 2007-06-30 In the midst of the increasing antagonism between religion and secularity the sacred and the profane faith and reason currently described in terms of the clash of civilizations is religion any longer relevant or meaningful in the globalizing development of modern subjectivity inter subjectivity family society state and history If so how and to what end In the socio historical context of the highly secular neo liberal neo conservative globalization movement the question of the social meaning and relevancy of religion has entered directly into the contemporary discourse on the future of humanity This book gives expression to the research of international scholars as they wrestled with these issues during the Future of Religion courses held at the Inter university Center in Dubrovnik Croatia from 2001 2005 Contributors include Aleksandra Ba a Reimon Bachika Ale rni Anja Finger Helmut Fritzsche Denis Janz Hans Herbert K gler Werner Krieglstein Mislav Kuko Gottfried K enzlen Aurelia Margareti Michael R Ott Dunja Poto nik A James Reimer Kjartan Selnes Rudolf J Siebert Hans K Weitensteiner Brian Wilson Katarzyna Zielinska After God Don Cupitt, 1997-04-18 Considers the fate of religion the evolution of religious belief from the dawn of the gods to their twilight and tomorrow Challenges us to see religion less as an ideology and more as a tool kit a set of techniques perhaps an art form enhancing our lives the way that literature and art do

The Religion of the Future Roberto Mangabeira Unger, 2016-10-25 How can we live in such a way that we die only once How can we organise a society that gives us a better chance to be fully alive How can we reinvent religion so that it liberates us instead of consoling us These questions stand at the centre of Roberto Mangabeira Unger's The Religion of the Future Both a book about religion and a religious work in its own right it proposes the content of a religion that can survive faith in a transcendent God and in life after death According to this religion the religion of the future human beings can be more human by becoming more godlike not just later in another life or another time but right now on Earth and in their own lives Unger begins by facing the irreparable flaws in the human condition our mortality groundlessness and insatiability He goes on to discuss the conflicting approaches to existence that have dominated the last 2 500 years of the history of religion Turning next to the religious revolution that we now require he explores the political ideal of this revolution an idea of deep freedom And he develops its moral vision focused on a refusal to squander life The Religion of the Future advances Unger's philosophical program a philosophy for which history is open the new can happen and belittlement need not be our fate

The Future of God Stephen R. Schwalbe, 2025-05-30 This book reviews the three Abrahamic faiths Judaism Islam and Christianity to determine how humankind will accommodate God in the future While there are many publications about the future of God or the future of religion they tend to reflect a specific academic field such as theology or sociology This book reviews the future of God reflected in four primary academic fields including theology dealing directly with God and religion sociology addressing how societies evolved with God and religion biology dealing with the scientific evidence of the existence of God and physics addressing God's intelligent design of the universe Then the book analyzes each field's future projections for God in order to determine the most likely future In the end the book discusses a possible future religion based on the academic review of the future of God

The Future of Religion Richard Rorty, Gianni Vattimo, 2005-02-02 Though coming from different and distinct intellectual traditions Richard Rorty and Gianni Vattimo are united in their criticism of the metaphysical tradition The challenges they put forward extend beyond philosophy and entail a reconsideration of the foundations of belief in God and the religious life They urge that the rejection of metaphysical truth does not necessitate the death of religion instead it opens new ways of imagining what it is to be religious ways that emphasize charity solidarity and irony This unique collaboration which includes a dialogue between the two philosophers is notable not only for its fusion of pragmatism Rorty and hermeneutics Vattimo but also for its recognition of the limits of both traditional religious belief and modern secularism In Anticlericalism and Atheism Rorty discusses Vattimo's work Belief and argues that the end of metaphysics paves the way for an anti essentialist religion Rorty's conception of religion determined by private motives is designed to produce the gospel's promise that henceforth God will not consider humanity as a servant but as a friend In The Age of Interpretation Vattimo who is both a devout Catholic and a frequent critic of the church explores the surprising congruence between Christianity and hermeneutics in light of the dissolution of metaphysical truth As in hermeneutics interpretation is central to Christianity which introduced the world to the principle of interiority dissolving the experience of objective reality into listening to and interpreting messages The lively dialogue that concludes this volume moderated and edited by Santiago Zabala analyzes the future of religion together with the political social and historical aspects that characterize our contemporary postmodern postmetaphysical and post Christian world The World's Great Religions and the Religion of the Future Alfred Wilhelm Martin,1921 Religion and the Scientific Future Langdon Gilkey,1981

The Non-religion of the Future: A Sociological Study Jean-Marie Guyau,2015-01-09 Example in this ebook I Sociality the basis of religion Its definition I We shall meet in the course of this work many different definitions that have at one time or another been given to religion Some were assigned from the point of view of physics others from that of metaphysics others from that of morals almost none from that of sociology And yet upon closer scrutiny the notion of a social bond between man and the powers superior to him but resembling him is precisely the point in which all religious conceptions are at one Man becomes truly religious in our judgment only when above the human society in which he lives he superimposes in his scheme of the world another society more powerful and more cultured a universal and so to speak a cosmic society The sphere of sociality which is one of the characteristics of humanity must be enlarged till it reaches to the stars Sociality is the firm foundation of the religious sentiment and a religious being might be defined as a being disposed to be sociable not only with all living creatures with whom experience makes him acquainted but also with the creatures of thought with whom he peoples the world That religion consists essentially in the establishment of a bond at first mythical and subsequently mystic in the first instance between man and the forces of the universe then between man and the universe itself and ultimately between man and the elements of the universe is distinctly the outcome of every study of religion but what we wish especially here to consider is the precise way in which this bond has been conceived Well it may appear more clearly at the close of this inquiry the religious bond has been conceived ex analogia societatis human the relations amicable and inimical of men to each other were employed first for the explanation of physical phenomena and natural forces then for the metaphysical explanation of the world of its creation conservation and government in short sociological laws were universalized and the state of war or peace which existed among men families tribes and nations was conceived as existing also among the volitions which were fancied to exist beneath or beyond the forces of nature A mythic or mystic sociology conceived as containing the secret of all things lies at the basis of all religions Religion is not simply the expression of an anthropomorphism animals and fantastic beings of various sorts have played no inconsiderable r le in different cults it is an imaginative extension a universalization of all the good or evil relations which exist among conscious beings of war and peace friendship and enmity obedience and rebellion protection and authority submission fear respect devotion love religion is a universal sociomorphism Social relations with animals with the dead intellectual and social relations with good and evil genii with the forces of nature are nothing more nor less than various forms of this universal sociology in which religion has sought to find the reason of things of physical phenomena such as thunder storm sickness death as well as of metaphysical relations the origin and destiny of things and of moral relations virtue vice law and sanction To be continue in this ebook The World's Best
