Home Informatics Information Technology And The Transformation Of Everyday Life:

Home Informatics Ian Miles, 1988 Defines home informatics as the application of information technology to consumer goods and services Home Informatics and Telematics Andy Sloane, Felix van Rijn, 2013-03-09 This volume is composed of the best papers submitted to the HOIT2000 conference held in Wolverhampton U K in June 2000 The conference entitled IT at home Virtual influences on everyday life and the papers reflect the wide variety of these influences that are coming to bear on our everyday experience be it through the increasing use of computers or the rapid development of new telecommunications systems The conference has been organised by IFIP Working Group 9.3 Home Oriented Informatics and Telematics HOIJ in association with IFIP Working Group 13.2 Methodology for user centred system design This gives a broad range of topics that are within the sphere of interest of the participants and the authors of the papers The disciplines involved in the study of this subject area are varied composing computing telecommunications psychology sociology business studies and others The conference is the second in a series of HOIT conferences the first being held in Copenhagen in 1994 The subject is now more mature with the various disciplines being increasingly interested in the home as a research domain The various technical developments over the time since the first conference have also had a profound effect on the way in which people communicate both in the home and at work The rise in the use of the Internet has changed the way in which many people view communication and access to information sources The Place of Home Alison Ravetz, Professor Alison Ravetz, R. Turkington, 2013-05-24 A comprehensive and in depth history of the 20th century English home how it has been created and how it works for people It focuses on the various influences bearing on the development of domestic space since 1914 and covers both design and housing policy Current debates from participation to co operative housing are examined and several themes not previously brought together are linked e.g urban development house design technology at home women and home social meaning of home The Rise of the Network Society Manuel Castells, 2011-08-24 This first book in Castells groundbreaking trilogy with a substantial new preface highlights the economic and social dynamics of the information age and shows how the network society has now fully risen on a global scale Groundbreaking volume on the impact of the age of information on all aspects of society Includes coverage of the influence of the internet and the net economy Describes the accelerating pace of innovation and social transformation Based on research in the USA Asia Latin America and Europe The Information Superhighway and Private Households Walter Brenner, Lutz Kolbe, 2012-12-06 Wolfgang Glatthaar International Business Machines IBM Gennany The rapid developments in information technology IT will continue through the coming years New application areas will be added Whereas the use of information technology in the past decade has been concentrated primarily on business and public administration in future the suppliers of information technology will develop an increasing number of applications for the private household see fig 1 Traditional perspective New perspective IT solutions for the IT solutions for the company private household Fig 1 New perspective on information technology This development has already generated considerable market dynamics Latest forecasts for the USA suggest that by 1996 at the latest the private household will present greater sales potential for home computers than business and public administration VI Preface Up to now the use of information technology in the private household has not been regarded as highly significant by either business or science even though PCs have become widespread in the private sphere In the ESPRIT framework there have been individual projects dealing with home networks and in a number of Asian and European countries as well as America experiments with interactive television are taking place Internet and commercial online services are experiencing rapid growth This application area for information technology in the private household which is generating increasing business attention must also be the subject of appropriate research activities

Rebuilding Communities in an Age of Individualism Paul Hopper, 2017-07-05 As modern societies become increasingly individualistic this fascinating book examines how we can maintain and revive local communities and community life It demonstrates how the major developments and processes of our time notably globalization post industrialism and de traditionalization contribute to this individualism to the detriment of community life The author examines how community is a necessary and important component of human life and discusses possible ways in which to arrest its decline In this regard strategies geared to fostering trust and social capital are outlined as the basis for reinvigorating community life The volume provides a coherent and distinct analysis of community as well as offering concrete policy prescriptions to counter the excessive individualism of our times In both the nature and scope of its analysis it offers a unique contribution to an extremely important issue in the contemporary period one that increasingly preoccupies politicians academics and ordinary citizens

Feminism Confronts Technology Judy Wajcman, 2013-05-29 Feminism Confronts Technology provides a lively and engaging exploration of the impact of technology on women's lives from word processors to food processors and genetic engineering to the design of cities Comprehensive and critical this book surveys the sociological and feminist literature on technology highlighting the male bias in the way technology is defined as well as developed Wajcman sets the scene with an overview of feminist theories of science and technology encompassing the technologies of production and reproduction as well as domestic technology The author challenges the common assumption that technology is gender neutral looking at whether technology can liberate women or whether the new technologies are reinforcing sexual divisions in society

The Information Society Reader with Raimo Blom, Erkki Karvonen, Harri Melin, Kaarle Nordenstreng, Ensio Puoskari, Frank Webster, Professor Frank Webster, 2020-04-02 There has been much debate over the idea of the information society Some thinkers have argued that information is becoming the key ordering principle in society whereas others suggest that the rise of information has been overstated Whatever the case it cannot be denied that informatization has produced vast changes in advanced societies The Information Society Reader pulls together the main contributions to this debate from some of the key figures in the field Major topics addressed include post industrialism surveillance transformations the network society democracy digital divisions virtual relations With a comprehensive introduction from Frank Webster selections from Manuel Castells Anthony Giddens Michel Foucault and Christopher Lasch amongst others and section introductions contextualising the readings this book will be an invaluable resource for students and academics studying contemporary society and all things cyber

A Social History of the Media Asa Briggs, Peter Burke, 2018-07-26 Written by two leading social and cultural historians the first two editions of A Social History of the Media became classic textbooks providing a masterful overview of communication media and of the social and cultural contexts within which they emerged and evolved over time This third edition has been thoroughly revised to bring the text up to date with the very latest developments in the field Increased space is given to the exciting media developments of the early 21st Century including in particular the rise of social and participatory media and the globalization of media Additionally new and important research is incorporated into the classic material exploring the continuing importance of oral and manuscript communication the rise of print and the relationship between physical transportation and social communication Avoiding technological determinism and rejecting assumptions of straightforward evolutionary progress this book brings out the rich and varied histories of communication media In an age of fast paced media developments a thorough understanding of media history is more important than ever and this text will continue to be the first choice for students and scholars across the world

Public and Private in Thought and Practice Jeff Weintraub, Krishan Kumar, 1997-03-15 These essays by widely respected scholars in fields ranging from social and political theory to historical sociology and cultural studies illuminate the significance of the public private distinction for an increasingly wide range of debates Commenting on controversies surrounding such issues as abortion rights identity politics and the requirements of democratization many of these essays clarify crucial processes that have shaped the culture and institutions of modern societies In contexts ranging from friendship the family and personal life to nationalism democratic citizenship the role of women in social and political life and the contrasts between western and post Communist societies this book brings out the ways the various uses of the public private distinction are simultaneously distinct and interconnected Public and Private in Thought and Practice will be of interest to students and scholars in disciplines including politics law philosophy history sociology and women s studies Contributors include Jeff Weintraub Allan Silver Craig Calhoun Daniela Gobetti Jean L Cohen Jean Bethke Elshtain Alan Wolfe Krishan Kumar David Brain Karen Hansen Marc Garcelon and Oleg Kharkhordin

Information Society Studies Alistair S. Duff, 2013-12-02 We are often told that we are living in an information society or that we are information workers But what exactly do these claims mean and how might they be verified In this important methodological study Alistair S Duff cuts through the rhetoric to get to the bottom of the information society thesis Wide ranging in coverage this study will be of interest to scholars in information science communication and media studies and social theory It is a key text for the newly unified specialism of information society studies and an indispensable guide to the future of this discipline Technology and Values Craig Hanks, 2009-05-04 This anthology features essays and book excerpts on technology and values written by preeminent figures in the field from the early 20th century to the present It offers an in depth range of readings on important applied issues in technology as well Useful in addressing questions on philosophy sociology and theory of technology Includes wide ranging coverage on metaphysics ethics and politics as well as issues relating to gender biotechnology everyday artifacts and architecture A good supplemental text for courses on moral or political problems in which contemporary technology is a unit of focus An accessible and thought provoking book for beginning and advanced undergraduates yet also a helpful resource for graduate students and academics Sex/Machine Patrick D. Hopkins, 1998 As powerful interacting social and physical forces gender and technology shape our experiences cultures and identities sometimes in such comfortable and subtle ways that it takes effort to appreciate them sometimes in such conspicuous and explosive ways that everyone recognizes their importance Delving into these issues is an opportunity to discover how technology promises or threatens to rewrite our ideas about sex sexuality and gender identity

International Media Research John R. Corner, Philip Schlesinger, Professor Philip R Schlesinger, Roger Silverstone, 2004-01-14 International Media Research offers a rigorous and critical review of key approaches and concerns that have recently defined the field of media research In this clearly argued collection of essays the contributors analyze and reflect upon dominant themes and debates that have made media research an increasingly important element of cultural theory The volume begins with a critical evaluation of the work of the leading media scholar Elihu Katz and continues with an exploration of the relationship between media studies and adjacent disciplines cultural studies and gender and sexuality Contributors drawn from Britain America Canada and Belgium consider the relationships between media research and media policy in different national and international contexts Focusing on the European Union East Central Europe North America and Latin America chapters assess the impact of social economic and political circumstances on policy debates and the shaping of the research agenda The final chapter adopts a transatlantic perspective in tracing and analysing the history of the media's role in reporting war Computers and Networks in the Age of Globalization Leif Bloch Rasmussen, Colin Beardon, Silvio Munari, 2013-04-17 In modernity an individual identity was constituted from civil society while in a globalized network society human identity if it develops at all must grow from communal resistance A communal resistance to an abstract conceptualised world where there is no possibility for perception and experience of power and therefore no possibility for human choice and action is of utmost importance for the constituting of human choosers and actors This book therefore sets focus on those human choosers and actors wishing to read and enjoy the papers as they are actually perceiving and experiencing their lives in a diversity of social and cultural contexts In so doing the book tries to imagine in what kind of networks humans may choose and act based on the knowledge and empirical evidence presented in the papers The topics covered in the book include People and Their Changing Values Citizens in a Network Society The Individual and Knowledge Based Organisations Human Responsibility and Technology Exclusion and Regeneration This valuable new book contains the edited proceedings of the Fifth World Conference on Human Choice and Computers HCC 5 which was sponsored by the International Federation for Information Processing IFIP and held in Geneva Switzerland in August 1998 Since the first HCC conference in 1974 IFIP s Technical Committee 9 has endeavoured to set the agenda for human choices and human actions vis vis computers
