

Plain Jane's Cafe

What's wrong, Jin?
You look worried!

Plain Jane's Cafe

Well, my sister is coming to visit me this weekend.

Plain Jane's Cafe

No! No it isn't! I have spent most of my time studying and working. I don't know what to do in this city!

Oh! That's great!

Plain Jane's Cafe

I have done lots of stuff in the city! You don't need to be so anxious.

Really? You can help? Wow, thank you, Malai!

No problem, Jin! I'd be happy to give you some ideas.

OK, let's go!

Plain Jane's Cafe

So, what does your sister like? Clubs? Bars? Concerts?

Jin, museums and architecture. Maybe I should do this on my own after all.

Human Rights A Dialogue Between The First And Third Worlds By Evans Robert A:

Human Rights and the World's Major Religions William H. Brackney, 2013-10-01 Based on the celebrated five volume set published in 2005 this updated one volume edition offers readers a concise yet complete understanding of the interplay between the major religions and human rights In a world where religious beliefs have become inseparable from the events of the day ranging from the ongoing strife in the Middle East to cases of sexual abuse by clergy and controversy over circumcision laws in Europe this is an invaluable work It offers readers a comprehensive examination of the way the world's five major faiths Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism and Buddhism view and have viewed human rights from ancient times to the present An overview of each tradition is provided followed by chapters that show how human rights have been shaped and understood in the tradition from the earliest textual evidence to the contemporary era Considering the differences among religious traditions globally the book shows how each faith advanced the cause of human rights in unique ways Contributors track the development of ideas opinions and issues documenting both the advancement and violation of human rights in the name of religion Demonstrating that human rights discourse cannot be divorced from religious history and experience the book covers such issues as the right to life the rights of women punishment for crimes war and peace slavery and violence

The Church as Polis Arne Rasmusson, 2025-02-15 Political theology is one of the most influential theological movements of the latter part of the twentieth century and yet as Arne Rasmusson argues here the field suffers from deep inherent tensions in its attempt to mediate the Christian tradition and the modern emancipatory tradition Rasmusson contributes to political theology through an innovative discussion of the relationship between church and society and an exposition of the thought and work of political theology's influential representative Jürgen Moltmann Rasmusson further refines his argument by filtering Moltmann's theology through an exploration of Stanley Hauerwas's theological positions

Faith in Human Rights Robert Traer, 1991-01-01 In this first comprehensive study of the problem of a universal definition of human rights Robert Traer argues that contemporary theological discourse contains an affirmation of faith that unites members of world religious traditions with secular humanists in a common struggle to establish human rights as the basis for human dignity Scholars of religion law and comparative religious ethics as well as human rights advocates will find it an invaluable guide

Pastoral Theology from a Global Perspective Henry S. Wilson, Judo Poerwowidagdo, Takatso Mofokeng, Robert A. Evans, Alice Frazer Evans, 2005-01-17 Multi cultural and global in design Pastoral Theology from a Global Perspective brings concrete and applicable resources to Christian leaders around the world who are struggling with problems of pastoral care This practical easy to use approach to pastoral theology is designed to hone pastoral skills in five central areas the role of women in church and society empowering marginalized peoples economic justice and ecology reconciliation and peacemaking caring for human needs Fifteen case studies accompanied by teaching notes and commentaries illustrate the diversity and commonalities of pastoral care in different parts of the world an ordained Indian woman assigned as an associate pastor is threatened by male church members who say she is not permitted to preach from the pulpit or serve the Eucharist missionaries to Haiti face critical decisions about supplying chemical fertilizer to a destitute hillside village a Hispanic community considers illegally occupying a government nature reserve to save their community sheep herd a Ugandan pastor deals with violence and healing in a community struggling to recover from civil war In the Fray David P. Gushee,2014-05-12 In the Fray collects David Gushee s most significant essays over twenty years as a Christian intellectual Most of the essays were written in situations of ethical conflict on the highly contested ground of Christian public ethics Topics addressed include torture climate change marriage and divorce the treatment of gays and lesbians in the church war genocide nuclear weapons race global poverty faith and politics Israel Palestine and even whether Christian ethics is a real academic discipline Quite visible in the collection is Gushee s deep research interest in the Nazi era in Germany and how the churches fared in resisting Nazi intimidations and seductions and finally the Holocaust All essays reflect the desire for a church that has learned the lessons of that period a church with resistance to racism militarism nationalism and other social ideological toxins and with the discernment and courage to resist these in favor of a courageous allegiance to the lordship of Christ at the time of testing Considerable attention is directed to contesting some of the public ethics found in the author s own US evangelical Christian community Concluding reflections on Gushee s ethical vision are offered in an illuminating essay by senior Christian ethicist Glen Harold Stassen Reconstructing Christianity in China Philip L. Wickeri,2015-03-04 Negotiating Peace Shimreingam L. Shimray,2020-09-29 In Negotiating Peace Shimreingam L Shimray argues that peace cannot be derived from outside forces but that it must instead be created from within the local context by the local people adopting their own cultural and historical system and using their own intellectual and material resources The author uses a deeply contextual reading of his own setting resulting in a work whose value rests in revealing how the tribal people of North East India have used their own resources to work for a culture of peace amidst tension and difficulty Negotiating Peace grows from an ongoing commitment on the part of Fortress Press to bring creative theological reflection from the Global South to the conversations taking place around the world It will be of interest not only to scholars of Christianity in North East India but to scholars students and those interested in peace studies Teaching from the Heart Mary Elizabeth Moore,1998-01-01 Here is a serious and passionate plea for theology and education to stand in relationship Moore argues for an organic approach to religious moral and theological education Western Culture in Gospel Context David J. Kettle,2011-04-18 Approaching us in sovereign freedom God comes alive to us we come alive to God and all creation comes alive as a sign pointing to God In the gospel of Jesus Christ God gives and discloses himself in this immediate way as our ultimate context and host within the provisional medium of creation This life giving gospel is met by blindness however among those who live today in a collapsing Western culture This is because their imaginative world is shaped by habitual assumptions and practices that lie largely unacknowledged deep within that culture and that preclude openness to the gospel Moreover Western Christians themselves widely share these assumptions betraying the gospel into cultural captivity God calls for the conversion of Western culture to the living gospel Crucially this must include as Lesslie Newbigin recognized a repentance from modern Western assumptions about knowledge Part One explores seeking knowing and serving God as providing a true paradigm for understanding all human enquiry knowledge and action Part Two examines ten resulting hot spots where conversion from prevailing cultural assumptions is vital for authentic mission to Western culture
