Human Development In South Asia 2000 The Gender Question:

Human Development in South Asia 2000, 2000 Human Development in South Asia 2000, 2000 This third report on human development in South Asia presents a comprehensive profile of education in the region analyses current educational policies and programmes and presents a five year plan to achieve universal primary education in the area

Human Development in South Asia 2004 Mahbub ul Haq Human Development Centre, 2005 Mahbub ul Haq s Human Development Centre s 2004 Report on the challenge of health underlies the imperative of focusing on a human centred economic growth policy in South Asia that is based on improved health and education Human Security in South Asia

P. R. Chari, Sonika Gupta, 2003 The word security has a military connotation and refers to the activities involved in protecting or defending a country in which the State has a central role This book argues that the State provides as well as threatens security and that by broadening the concept of security to include both military and non military threats such as those related to ecological social economic and political causes a system of checks and balances can be introduced to regulate the State

Human Development in South Asia 2008 The Mahbub ul Haq Human Development Centre, 2009-10-01 The Report presents an analysis of the diffusion and adoption of technology particularly ICT in the region and its impact on overall economic growth employment poverty reduction as well the provision of health and education services in the region The report draws from several interesting case studies particularly from India and Bangladesh that illustrate how ICT is being used innovatively to improve the efficiency and transparency in the delivery of public services The Report however reiterates that technology by itself does not result in wonders It has to be accompanied with an educated and skilled population as well as basic infrastructure South Asia 2060 Adil Najam, Moeed Yusuf, 2013-07-15 South Asia 2060 is a dialogue between 47 thought leaders ranging from policymakers to academics to civil society activists and visionaries from across South Asia and the world on the likely longer range trajectories of South Asia s future as a region The collection explores how South Asia s regional future will impact the rest of the world while also shedding light on its present condition Human Development in South Asia 2006 Mahbub ul Haq Human Development Centre, 2007 Mahbub ul Haq Human Development Centre s 2006 Report on poverty in South Asia underlines the imperative of focusing on alleviating poverty in order to sustain the current economic growth in the region

IDRC Bruce Muirhead, Ronald N. Harpelle, 2010-09-07 Adam Sneyd Department of Political Science University of Guelph Women Teaching in South Asia Jackie Kirk, 2008-11-11 This collection adds fresh perspectives to the current policy and programming initiatives concerning woman teachers in South Asia It discusses the issues related to the lives and experiences of woman teachers in Afghanistan Pakistan Sri Lanka India Nepal and Bangladesh providing a common framework for the analysis of the policies and programmes with and for them in relation to their lived experiences as women in diverse families communities and societies of the region It promotes critical discussion of the potential and agency of woman teachers to create change in schools and in society dwelling on the structural limitations that exist for women working within patriarchal institutions in male dominated societies Women Teaching in South Asia argues for a broader gender equality and empowerment perspective when working with woman teachers and for developing policy and programmes The chapters demonstrate the need for explicit attention to gender in the power dynamics between women and men in the roles they play and in the tasks they perform in schools This compilation is a valuable contribution with recommendations for future policy programme and research project development to bridge the gender divide and make sustainable progress towards Millennium Development Goals MDGs and Education for All EFA It will be a rich resource for ministries of education NGOs and other agencies supporting educational development as well as for researchers and academicians working in the fields of Education and Gender Studies The International Handbook of Educational Research in the Asia-Pacific Region J.P. Keeves,Ryo Watanabe,2013-11-11 The aim of the Handbook is to present readily accessible but scholarly sources of information about educational research in the Asia Pacific region The scale and scope of the Handbook is such that the articles included in it provide substantive contributions to knowledge and understanding of education in the Asia region In so doing the articles present the problems and issues facing education in the region and the findings of research conducted within the region that contribute to the resolution of these problems and issues Moreover since new problems and issues are constantly arising the articles in the Handbook also indicate the likely directions of future developments The different articles within the Handbook seek to conceptualize the problems in each specific content area under review provide an integration of the research conducted within that area the theoretical basis of the research the practical implications of the research and the contribution of the research towards the resolution of the problems identified Thus the articles do not involve the reporting of newly conducted research but rather require a synthesis of the research undertaken in a particular area with reference to the research methods employed and the theoretical frameworks on which the research is based In general the articles do not advocate a single point of view but rather present alternative points of view and comment on the debate and disagreements associated with the conduct and findings of the research Furthermore it should be noted that the Handbook is not concerned with research methodology and only considers the methods employed in inquiry in so far as the particular methods of research contribute to the effective investigation of problems and issues that have arisen in the conduct and provision of education at different levels within the region Managing Gender Diversity in Asia Mustafa F. Ezbilgin,Jawad Syed,2010-01-01 Managing Gender Diversity in Asia is as timely as it is important Mustafa F zbilgin and Jawad Syed raise the set of issues that all of us managers and scholars need to ponder and address if we are to have a 21st century defined by equity Nancy J Adler McGill University Canada This timely Companion examines the unique codes and processes of managing gender diversity equality and inclusion in Asia Managing Gender Diversity in Asia covers the whole geography of Asia through chapters authored by eminent scholars in the field and thus provides an authoritative tool for a critical and evidence based understanding of gender diversity management in Asia The distinctive nature of Asian institutional structures approaches and processes are examined in order to account for variations in representation and inclusion at work for women and men This comprehensive Companion will make ideal reading for researchers postgraduate students and practitioners who wish to understand the methodological and thematic idiosyncrasies of researching gender diversity management in organisational settings International Trade and Global Civil Society Dev Nathan,D Narasimha Reddy,Govind Kelkar,2012-04-27 This study challenges the dominant tendency of civil society to negate international trade as such The authors argue that it is necessary to frame differentiated trade rules based on levels of economic development and also to shift from subsidies to shore up uncompetitive livelihoods to productivity enhancing investments Most importantly the book ends with a case for trade unions women s organizations and other civil society organizations to imagine and create themselves as being global in order to take up the challenge of strengthening global countervailing power to capital Thinking Gender Shalini Suryanarayan,Shanthi G,K.G. Gayathridevi,2020-01-01 Gender usually refers to the socially constructed characteristics of women and men and the set of norms roles and relationships of and between groups of women and men The conceptions of gender vary across cultures and are constantly evolving Feminism gender bias gender discrimination gender identity and gender justice etc are some of the oft debated conceptions in the discourse on gender A multi disciplinary work this book brings together scholarly contributions from academics and researchers at various stages of their careers This book is a festschrift in honour of Professor R Indira Organised along five main themes viz Gender and Cultural Space Gender and Political Space Gender and Domestic Space Gender Education and Work and Gender and Development there are a total of nineteen papers included in this volume Each paper encompasses useful information on the topic concerned mostly supported by the findings of empirical research by the author s This work is sure to broaden the understandings on gender among students and researchers across various academic disciplines besides policy planners and activists Women in Executive Power Gretchen Bauer,Manon Tremblay,2011-03-10 A comprehensive regional study of women in the political executive power Trafficking in Women and Children in India P. Governance Defence Global Trends And Their Implications For India And Other Interrelated Concerns That Require To Be Focused Upon To Give A Fairly Comprehensive Picture Of India Approaching 2020 Key Thinkers on Development

David Simon, 2019-04-02 Since its publication in 2006 as Fifty Key Thinkers on Development this invaluable reference has established itself as the leading biographical handbook in its field providing a concise and accessible introduction to the lives and key contributions of development thinkers from across the ideological and disciplinary spectrum This substantially expanded and fully updated second edition in the relaunched series without the numerical constraint includes an additional 24 essays filling in many gaps in the original selection greatly improving the gender balance and diversifying coverage to reflect the evolving landscape of development in theory policy and practice It presents a unique guide to the lives ideas and practices of leading contributors to the contested terrain of development studies and development policy and practice Its thoughtful essays reflect the diversity of development in theory policy and practice across time space disciplines and communities of practice Accordingly it challenges Western centrism Orientalism and the like while also demonstrating the enduring appeal of development in different guises David Simon has assembled a highly authoritative team of contributors from different backgrounds regional settings and disciplines to reflect on the lives and contributions of leading authorities on development from around the world These include Modernisers like Kindleberger Perroux and Rostow Dependencistas such as Frank Furtado Cardoso and Amin Progressives and critical modernists like Hirschman Prebisch Helleiner Sen Streeten and Wang Political leaders enunciating radical alternative visions of development such as Mao Nkrumah and Nyerere Progenitors of religiously or spiritually inspired development such as Gandhi Ariyaratne and Vivekananda Development environment thinkers like Agarwal Blaikie Brookfield Ostrom and Sachs International institution builders like Singer Hammarskjöld Kaul and Ul Haq Anti and post development thinkers and activists like Escobar Ghosh Quijano and Roy Key Thinkers on Development is therefore the essential handbook on the world's most influential development thinkers and an invaluable guide for students of development and sustainability policy makers and practitioners seeking an accessible overview of this diverse field and its leading voices In Defense of Faith David Brog, 2011-02 Religious faith is under assault In books movies and on television secular critics are attacking religion and the religious with ever increasing intensity These new atheists typically repeat a two part mantra They claim that only an idiot could believe in God and that idiots who do so have been responsible for most of the hate and violence that have plagued humanity Abandon religion they urge and the world will finally know peace Surprisingly few books have emerged to defend faith from this onslaught Yet when it comes to this second argument the behavior of religious people in the world abstract claims can be tested by reference to objective facts In Defense of Faith examines the historical record and demonstrates that far from encouraging hate and aggression the Judeo Christian tradition has been the West's most effective curb on these dangerous defects of human nature In Defense of Faith asserts that the belief in the sanctity and equality of all humans at the core of both Judaism and Christianity what Brog calls the Judeo Christian idea has been our most effective tool in the struggle for humanity The Judeo Christian idea Brog argues has provided the intellectual foundation for human rights Even more importantly he maintains the Judeo Christian idea has repeatedly inspired the faithful to devote their lives to and often risk their lives in the fulfillment of these high ideals In Defense of Faith also convincingly demonstrates that when we abandon religion as the critics urge peace does not break out Instead we quickly revert to the most base instincts of our selfish genes Written by a Jewish author who works closely with the Christian faith community In Defense of Faith will appeal to secular and religious readers alike This book will challenge the secular to reconsider the role of religion in Western civilization It will inspire the religious to embrace a proud legacy of faith in action for the sake of humanity

The Third World and International Order Antony Anghie, Bhupinder Chimni, Karin Mickelson, Obiora C. Okafor, 2021-07-26 This collection of essays explores different dimensions of the relationship between the third world and international law The topics covered include third world approaches to international law non state actors and developing countries feminism and the third world foreign investment resistance and international law and territorial disputes and native peoples It is a further contribution to the work done by scholars intent on elaborating what might be termed Third World Approaches to International Law TWAIL This initiative seeks to continue and further develop the important work that has been done over many decades particularly by scholars and jurists from the third world to construct an international law which is sensitive to the needs of third world peoples This body of scholarship has attempted to extend and expand the concerns and materials of international law The essays in this volume are animated by these same motives at a time when unprecedented issues confront third world peoples particularly since the contemporary international system appears to be disempowering third world peoples intensifying inequality between the North and the South and indeed importantly within the North and the South TWAIL scholars attempt to look afresh at the history of colonial international law engage previous trends in third world scholarship in international law take cognizance of the dramatic changes which have characterized the body of international law in the last few decades from the perspective of third world peoples record their resistance to unjust and oppressive international laws and advance new approaches that address their needs and concerns These are the broad themes and concerns which animate this collection of essays

Empowerment of Women in North East India Bhola Nath Ghosh, 2015-01-01 In recent past a number of studies have come up with the deliberations on different issues related to gender bias status and empowerment of women in various fields But there has not been any attempt to provide a single measure of empowerment relate level of empowerment with the indicators The current volume besides providing a regional analysis of deprivation of women on various counts and an idea of empowerment on available criteria provided a measure of empowerment by an index constructed on the basis of a number of attributes indicating the status and empowerment of women in the family and society as well in north east It also includes case studies on poverty gender based development and gender empowerment measures The book also provides analysis impact of factors
