Translated From the German With an Introd. by Marianne Cowan Wilhelm Freiherr von Humboldt, Marianne Cowan (Ed), 1963 Humanist Without Portfolio. (An Anthology of the Writings of Wilhelm Von Humboldt.) Translated from the German with an Introduction by Marianne Cowan Wilhelm Freiherr von Humboldt, Marianne COWAN, 1963 Another Liberalism Nancy L. Rosenblum, 1987 Another Liberalism contributes an original perspective to debates about the nature and foundations of liberal thought In it Nancy Rosenblum describes the dynamic of romanticism and liberalism as one of mutual opposition and reconciliation She argues that romanticism sees liberalism as cold contractual and aloof And conventional liberal legalism disdains romanticism s longing for all that is personal unique and expressive We learn however that romanticism chastened by its excesses and frustrated by its failures can come home to liberalism We also learn that liberalism can accommodate individuality and expressivity reclaiming what it had repressed Rosenblum creates a typology of romantic reconstructions of liberal thought heroic individualism communitarianism and a new face of pluralism The author draws on nineteenth and twentieth century philosophy and literature on Thoreau Humboldt Constant Stendhal and Mill among others and on contemporary political theorists for whom romanticism is a source not only of aversion to liberalism but also of resources for reform Historicism Sheila Greeve Davaney, No other movement or insight has challenged Christian theology so steeply in the modern period as historicism The two hundred year old notion that concepts ideas and theories all are influenced or occasioned by historical circumstances is today a commonplace in all fields Davaney s authoritative text traces with clarity and skill the history of historicism and its various meanings for the German Enlightenment through its Continental and distinctly American developments to its contemporary postmodern incarnations BOOK JACKET Introduction to Digital Humanism Hannes Werthner, Carlo Ghezzi, Jeff Kramer, Julian Nida-Rümelin, Bashar Nuseibeh, Erich Prem, Allison Stanger, 2023-12-20 This open access textbook introduces and defines digital humanism from a diverse range of disciplines Following the 2019 Vienna Manifesto the book calls for a digital humanism that describes analyzes and most importantly influences the complex interplay of technology and humankind for a better society and life fully respecting universal human rights The book is organized in three parts Part I Background provides the multidisciplinary background needed to understand digital humanism in its philosophical cultural technological historical social and economic dimensions The goal is to present the necessary knowledge upon which an effective interdisciplinary discourse on digital humanism can be founded Part II Digital Humanism a System s View focuses on an in depth presentation and discussion of the main digital humanism concerns arising in current digital systems The goal of this part is to make readers aware and sensitive to these issues including e g the control and autonomy of AI systems

Although listening is central to human interaction its importance is often ignored In the rush to speak and be heard it is easy to neglect listening and disregard its significance as a way of being with others and the world Drawing upon insights from phenomenology linguistics philosophy of communication and ethics Listening Thinking Being is both an invitation and an intervention meant to turn much of what readers know or think they know about language communication and listening inside out It is not about how to be a good listener or the numerous pitfalls that stem from the failure to listen Rather the purpose of the book is first to make readers aware of the value and importance of listening as a fundamental human ability inextricably connected with language and thought second to alert readers to the complexity of listening from personal cultural and philosophical perspectives and third to offer readers a way to think of listening as a mode of communicative action by which humans create and abide in the world Lisbeth Lipari brings together historical literary intercultural scientific musical and philosophical perspectives as well as a range of her own personal experiences to produce this highly readable analysis of how the human experience of being as an ethical relation with others is enacted by means of listening
