Wilson Ph.D., 2015-11-05 Evangelicals are often surprised or maybe even shocked whenever they encounter the early Church Fathers description of salvation in terms of deification divinization or apotheosis It was Athanasius the black dwarf the champion of Nicene orthodoxy who coined the phrase in his On the Incarnation God became man that man might become god Hundreds of years before Athanasius Irenaeus disciple of Polycarp disciple of the Apostle John wrote of Christ's salvific provision for humanity using similar deification type concepts Why did these Church Fathers use such seemingly foreign biblical concepts Could it be that influential theologian Adolf Harnack is right and these church Fathers implementation of deification reveal that the gospel changed from what Jesus originally intended after being exposed to Hellenistic culture Not at all at least that is what this work argues It does so first by comparing an overall understanding of deification in both Athanasius and Irenaeus respective writings This section encompasses the first three chapters which exhibit how the Fathers use of deification is immersed in their respective descriptions of salvation history the Trinity and Christology Further this work assesses Harnack's proposal by comparing the Fathers respective descriptions of deification with that of many Greek and Roman philosophers Finally this work seeks to propose that both Irenaeus and Athanasius contextualize the gospel by comparing the Fathers respective descriptions of deification with their respective understandings of scriptural authority and the rule of faith

The Humanity of Christ Paul Dafydd Jones, 2008-09-01 Drawing on the best English and German language scholarship to date this book offers a novel interpretation of Barth's mature Christology Examining the entirety of the Dogmatics it provides a nuanced analysis of Barth's treatment of the Chalcedonian Definition the enhypostasis anhypostasis pairing and various Protestant scholastic Christological distinctions an examination of the co-inherence of Barth's doctrines of God and Christ which contributes to current debates about Barth's doctrine of election and a lengthy account of the Christology of Church Dogmatics IV that foregrounds Barth's understanding of Christ's human involvement in the drama of reconciliation Throughout the text the author shows convincingly that Barth's emphasis on Christ's divinity goes hand in hand with a dogmatically rich and often startling account of Christ's humanity The text does not confine itself to the Church Dogmatics It also situates Barth in the context of the wider Christian tradition and modern western philosophy of religion Thus Barth is set in conversation with a wide range of thinkers including Anselm of Canterbury Martin Luther John Calvin Friedrich Schleiermacher G W F Hegel Gottfried Thomasius and Harry Frankfurt In addition the text makes a number of constructive gestures showing a particular interest in feminist and liberationist trajectories of thought The final chapter considers the standing of Barth's Christology today and its pertinence for theological ethics and political theology

Humanity in a Black Mirror Jacob Blevins,Zahi Zalloua,2023-01-03 The presentation of technology as a response to human want or need is a defining aspect of Black Mirror a series that centers the transhumanist conviction that ontological deficiency is a solvable problem The articles in this collection continue Black Mirror s examination of the transhuman need for plentitude addressing the convergence of fantasy the posthuman and the dramatization of fear The contributors contend that Black Mirror reveals both the cracks of the posthuman self and the formation of anxiety within fantasy s empty yet necessary economy of desire The strength of the series lies in its ability to disrupt the visibility of technology no longer portraying it as a naturalized unseen background affecting our very being at the ontological level without many of us realizing it This volume of essays argues that this negative lesson is Black Mirror s most successful approach It examines how Black Mirror demonstrates the Janus like structure of fantasy as well as how it teaches unteaches and reteaches us about desire in a technological world

The Hope of Glory Ian A. McFarland,2024-10-01 The Hope of Glory affirms a Christian hope for life in glory to be conceived as the renewal of this world as opposed to leaving this world behind it is the same creation that God made in the beginning that God glorifies and redeems at the end When speaking of the redemption of all things theology finds itself confronted by various pitfalls On the one hand this worldly eschatologies that define Christian hope in terms of transforming the conditions of human existence in the present pay insufficient attention to the possibility of a wholly new creation On the other hand eschatologies that focus solely on the world to come fail to attend how Christian hope is a promise for the present as much as it is for the future To avoid these pitfalls says Ian McFarland we need to seek the balance struck by Paul in the phrase the hope of glory Col 1 27 Hope is always grounded in present reality we hope for that which is not yet but if that hope has no connection to our current experience it is not hope at all just wishful thinking Yet glory is different it refers to the displacement of the suffering and mortality of present experience with incorruption and immortality a displacement that transcends every possibility of present existence because it is the utterly gracious gift of eschatological consummation Drawing on his previous work on creation From Nothing and incarnation The Word Made Flesh McFarland demonstrates how in the resurrection we see the promise of a final redemption grounded in this worldly hope yet realized in the glory of a new heaven and new earth The Ministry of the Word, Vol. 23, No. 04 Various Authors, 2019-04-01 This issue of The Ministry of the Word contains the first seven messages given during the fall 2018 term of the full time training in Anaheim California The general subject of this series of messages is The Central Vision The central vision of the completing ministry of the apostle Paul is composed of three major items God as our contents Christ as the mystery of God and the church as the mystery of Christ The completing ministry of Paul revealed in his fourteen Epistles is an expansion of what he saw concerning what the Lord spoke to him at his conversion The heavenly vision of Paul s completing ministry must be seen by us and this vision must be renewed in us day by day The Collected Works of Witness Lee, 1954, volume 2 Witness Lee, The Collected Works of Witness Lee 1954 volume 2 contains messages given by Brother Witness Lee in January through September 1954 Historical information concerning Brother Lee s travels and the content of his ministry in 1954 can be found in the general preface that appears at the beginning of volume 1 in this set The contents of this volume are divided into eight sections as follows 1 Twelve articles and reports written in an unknown location These articles and reports were published in the hardbound edition of The Ministry of the Word in 1954 and are included in this volume under the title The Ministry of the Word Miscellaneous Messages 1954 2 Twelve messages given in Hong Kong on July 17 through 28 These messages are included in this volume under the title The Center of God s Salvation and the Living Out of God 3 Twelve messages given in Hong Kong on July 19 through 31 These messages are included in this volume under the title Working with God in the Body of Christ 4 Five messages given in Hong Kong on July 29 through August 9 These messages are included in this volume under the title The Proper Knowledge and Learning of the Lord s Serving Ones 5 Three messages given in Hong Kong on August 2 through 5 These messages are included in this volume under the title The Calling Consecration and Growth of the Young People 6 Three messages given in Hong Kong on August 2 through 4 These messages are included in this volume under the title The Vanity of Human Life and the Way of Salvation 7 Four messages given in Hong Kong in July and August These messages are included in this volume under the title Records of a Few Talks in Hong Kong 8 Eighteen messages given in Taipei Taiwan in August and September These messages were previously published in a book entitled Spiritual Reality They are included in this volume under the same title Humanity In-Between and Beyond Monika Michałowska, 2023-04-30 This volume discusses the definitional problems and conceptual strategies involved in defining the human By crossing the boundaries of disciplines and themes it offers a transdisciplinary platform for exploring the new ideas of the human and adjusting to the
