dangers to public safety and thus is an appropriate target for Canada's war on drugs Boyd and Carter carefully show how the media draw on the same spokespeople to tell the same story again and again and how a limited number of messages has led to an expanding anti drug campaign that uses not only police but BC Hydro and local municipalities to crack down on drug production Going beyond the newspapers Killer Weed examines how legal political and civil initiatives that have emerged from the media narrative have troubling consequences for a shrinking Canadian civil society On the Path to Genocide
