Killing Time:

Killing Time Scott C. Martin, 2012-01-12 Scott C Martin examines leisure as a contested cultural space in which nineteenth century Americans articulated and developed ideas about ethnicity class gender and community This new perspective demonstrates how leisure and sociability mediated the transition from an agricultural to an industrial society Martin argues persuasively that southwestern Pennsylvanians used leisure activities to create identities and define values in a society being transformed by market expansion The transportation revolution brought new commercial entertainments and recreational opportunities but also fragmented and privatized customary patterns of communal leisure By using leisure as a window on the rapid changes sweeping through the region Martin shows how southwestern Pennsylvanians used voluntary associations private parties and public gatherings to construct social identities better suited to their altered circumstances The prosperous middle class devised amusements to distinguish them from workers who in turn resisted reformers attempts to constrain their use of free time Ethnic and racial minorities used holiday observances and traditional celebrations to define their place in American society while women tested the boundaries of the domestic sphere through participation in church fairs commercial recreation and other leisure activities This study illuminates the cultural history of the region and offers broader insights into perceptions of free time leisure and community in antebellum America Killing Time K. J Wright, Killing Time with Strangers W. S. Penn,2021-11-09 Young Pal needs help with his dreaming Palimony Blue Larue a mixblood growing up in a small California town suffers from a painful shyness and wants more than anything to be liked That s why Mary Blue his Nez Perce mother has dreamed the weyekin the spirit guide to help her bring into the world the one lasting love her son needs to overcome the diffidence that runs so deep in his blood The magical and not totally competent weyekin pops in and out of Pal s life at the most unexpected times and in the most unlikely guises but seems to have difficulty setting him on the right path Is there any hope for Palimony Blue Don t ask his father La Vent Larue La Vent is past hope past help a city zoning planner and a pawn in the mayor s development plans who ends up crazy and in jail after he shoots the mayor in the well never mind Better to ask Pal s mother who summons the weyekin when she isn t working on a cradle board for Pal and his inevitable bride And while you re at it ask the women in Pal s life Sally the preacher s daughter Brandy the waitressing flautist Tara the spoiled socialite And be sure to ask Amanda if you can catch her If you can dream her Using comic vision to address serious concerns of living Penn has written a freewheeling novel that will surpass most readers expectations of ethnic fiction Instead of the usual polemics it s marked by a sense of humor and a playfulness of language that springs directly from Native American oral tradition What more can be said about a book that has to be read to the end in order to get to the beginning That Killing Time with Strangers is unlike any novel you have read before Or perhaps that it is agonizingly familiar giving us glimpses of a young man finding his precarious way in life But when the power of dreaming is unleashed time becomes negotiable and life s joys and sorrows go up for grabs And as sure as yellow butterflies will morph into Post It notes you will know you have experienced a new and utterly captivating way of looking at the world
