Knackers Abc:

The Knacker's ABC. L'equarrissage Pour Tous Boris Vian,1968 In this play the horrors of world catastrophe are presented with what Cocteau called an exquisite insolence The Knacker s ABC a paramilitary vaudeville takes place on June 6 1944 during the landing of Anglo American forces at Arromanches In the midst of complete chaos the sole concern of the horse knacker and his family is the problem of their daughter s marriage to a German soldier who has been billeted in their house These grimness cruelty and idiocy of our contemporary world is thoroughly exposed by Cien s deft use of the absurd In addition to the text this volume includes an introductory note by Jean Cocteau and a Preface by Boris Vian in which he discusses his intentions in the play and the difficulties of the first production the concept of fighting war by means of war as some choose to do seems to be quite intolerable and there remains alas only a limited choice of alternative methods The play is above all burlesque it seemed to me that the best approach to war was to laugh at its expense a craftier bout more effective way of fighting it Publisher
