Postmodernism and Public Policy John B. Cobb Jr.,2012-02-01 One of America s preeminent systematic theologians John B Cobb Jr examines a range of social issues in his latest groundbreaking work Postmodernism and Public Policy Cobb uses a naturalistic postmodern perspective to make constructive proposals about a wide range of topics in the public eye Postmodernism and Public Policy shows how a postmodern Christianity can contribute positively to thinking about religious and cultural pluralism and how this can give direction to the educational enterprise It proposes ways of understanding sex gender and race that take diversity seriously without lapsing into a debilitating relativism that inhibits political action Arguing for a shift from individualism to thinking of persons in community it proposes that the world be organized from the bottom up in communities of communities and spells out what this implies for the political and economic orders and the relationship between them Cobb shows that formulations on all these topics can be coherently interconnected and he develops the implications of such thinking for some specific ethical and political issues that now trouble the United States such as abortion physician assisted suicide and homosexuality

Myths of the Self Olav Bryant Smith,2004-01-01 Myths of the Self is a departure from the standard fare of postmodern thought In a unique and brilliant turn Smith argues that the best way of dealing with the topic of the self is a synthesis of a narrative theory of identity using Ricoeur as a source along with the constructive postmodern metaphysics of Alfred North Whitehead The resulting synthesis is a new and potentially invigorating spin on the genesis of postmodern thought

The Ethics of Creativity Brian G. Henning,2011-12-09 Foreword by Daniel A Dombrowski A central concern of nearly every environmental ethic is its desire to extend the scope of direct moral concern beyond human beings to plants nonhuman animals and the systems of which they are a part Although nearly all environmental philosophies have long since rejected modernity s conception of individuals as isolated and independent substances few have replaced this worldview with an alternative that is adequate to the organic processive world in which we find ourselves In this context Brian G Henning argues that the often overlooked work of Alfred North Whitehead has the potential to make a significant contribution to environmental ethics Additionally inspired by classical American philosophers such as William James John Dewey and Charles Sanders Pierce and environmental philosophers such as Aldo Leopold Peter Singer Albert Schweitzer and Arne Naess Henning develops an ethical theory of which the seminal insight is called The Ethics of Creativity By systematically examining and developing a conception of individuality that is equally at home with the microscopic world of subatomic events and the macroscopic world of ecosystems The Ethics of Creativity correctly emphasizes the well being of wholes while not losing sight of the importance of the unique centers of value that constitute these wholes In this way The Ethics of Creativity has the potential to be a unique voice in contemporary moral philosophy Restaging the Sixties James Martin Harding,Cindy Rosenthal,2006 A dynamic exploration of eight radical theater collectives from the 1960s and 70s and their influence on contemporary performance

Higher Education in the Making George Allan, 2012-02-01 George Allan argues that the so called culture wars in higher education are the result of the dogmatic and unyielding certainty that both canonists and anti canonists bring to any discussion of how best to organize an undergraduate curriculum He then proposes a middle way Drawing from William James John Dewey and Alfred North Whitehead he contrasts the absolutist claims of both canonists and anti canonists with a fallibilist approach and argues for a more pragmatic canon that is normative and always in need of renovation A wide variety of voices are heard in Allan's conversation about the nature and meaning of an education canon including philosophers Aristotle Descartes Arthur Lovejoy Hannah Arendt Spengler Emerson Lyotard and Rorty Contemporary voices include Eva Brann Charles Anderson Francis Oakley Martha Nussbaum Gerald Graff Henry Louis Gates Jr and Bill Readings

the possibility of a genuinely symbiotic relationship between humanity and nature which he believed had been suppressed by modern technology Jonas spoke against the human domination of nature on the basis of Jewish sources especially the Bible and Lurianic Kabbalah and he was among the first to define the ethical challenges that modern technology poses to humanity
