Ensor by Himself Gisèle Ollinger-Zinque, James Ensor, 1976      The Social Context of James Ensor's Art Practice Susan M. Canning, 2022-10-20 Vive la Sociale This rousing revolutionary statement written on a bright red banner across the top of James Ensor's Christ's Entry into Brussels in 1889 served as a visual manifesto and call to action by the Belgian artist 1860-1949 one that announced with an insistent public voice the centrality of his art practice to the cultural discourse of modern Belgium This provocative declaration serves as the title for this new study of Ensor's art focusing on its social discourse and the artist's interaction with and at times satirical encounter with his contemporary milieu Rather than the alienated and traumatized Expressionist given preference in modern art history Ensor is presented here as an artist of agency and purpose whose art practice engaged the issues and concerns of middle class Belgian life society and politics and was informed by the values and class race and gendered perspectives of his time Ensor's radical vision and oppositional strategy of resistance self-fashioning and performance remains relevant This book with its timely nuanced reading of the art and career of this often misunderstood artist's artist invites a re-evaluation not only of Ensor's social context and expressive critique but also his unique contribution to modernist art practice      Staging the Artist Claire Moran, 2017-07-05 Restoring the role of theatrical performance as both subject and trope in the aesthetics of self-representation Staging the Artist questions how nineteenth-century French and Belgian artists self-consciously fashioned their identities through their art and writings This emphasis on performance allows for a new understanding of the processes of self-fashioning which underlie self-representation in word and image Claire Moran offers new interpretations of works by major nineteenth-century figures such as Paul Gauguin and Edgar Degas and addresses the neglected topic of the function of theatre in the development of modern visual art Incarnating Baudelaire's metaphor of the artist as an actor ever conscious of his role the artists discussed Courbet Ensor and Van Gogh among others employed theatre as both a thematic source and formal inspiration in their painting writings and social behaviour Moran argues that what renders this visual literary and social performance modern is its self-consciousness which in turn serves as a model with which to challenge pictorial convention This book suggests that tracing modern performance and artistic identity to the nineteenth century provides a greater understanding not only of the significance of theatre in the development of modern art but also highlights the self-conscious staging inherent to modern artistic identity      Verbal, Visual Crossings, 1880-1980 Theo d'. Haen, 1990      Central Reporter, 1887      Modernism the Lure of Heresy Peter Gay, 2008 This is a brilliant provocative long essay on the rise and fall and survival of modernism by the English languages greatest living cultural historian      The Dublin and London magazine, 1825      All Roads Lead to Calvary Jerome Klapka Jerome, 1919 All roads lead to Calvary It was curious how the words had dwelt with her till gradually they had become a part of her creed they had grown to be a promise a hope held out to all The road to Calvary It was the road to life When Joan Allway's mother dies she is determined to prove herself capable of earning her own living Armed with her Girton B A she sets off to London to do so seeking her own personal Calvary as she immerses herself in journalism politics and the women s suffrage cause and ultimately the field hospitals and trenches of the Front Living in Flanders ,1994 Verbal/Visual Crossings 1880-1890 Theo D'haen,2023-12-18 Identity in Dialogue Didier Pollefeyt,Jan Bouwens,2014 Situated in increasingly pluralizing cultural contexts Catholic schools face the challenge of recontextualizing their identity in a culturally plausible and theologically legitimate way To this end across Victoria Australia the Enhancing Catholic School Identity Project ECSIP has developed a suite of empirical instruments that provide an in depth analysis of a school s current as well as desired identity in a statistically reliable way The results are discussed in this book After describing and interpreting the results the empirical insights lead to well informed recommendations aimed at the identity development of Catholic schools with a normative preference for the Recontextualizing Dialogue School model as the way to enhance Catholic identity in a context of diversity In this manner ECSIP supports on going processes of self assessment that form the basis for continuing dynamics of self improvement of the identity of Catholic educational institutions Series Christian Religious Education and School Identity Vol 1 Subject Religious Studies Christianity Catholicism Education Australian Studies Lorna Doone: a Romance of Exmoor Richard Doddridge Blackmore,1875 Sophistry and Twentieth-Century Art Haim Gordon,Rivca Gordon,2021-12-06 This book deals with a rejection of the widespread fakes that have emerged in twentieth century art which we call by their Platonic name sophistry The book also presents brief descriptions of some of the ideas of Martin Heidegger and Nicolas Berdyaev as to what constitutes a beautiful work of art and how an authentic relation to the beauty in a work of art enhances human existence Sunset ,1926 Beauty and Monstrosity in Art and Culture Chara Kokkiou,Angeliki Malakasioti,2024-04-23 This edited volume takes a new look at an old question what is the relationship between beauty and monstrosity How has the notion of beauty transformed through the years and how does it coincide with monstrous ontologies Contributors offer an interdisciplinary approach to how these two concepts are interlinked and emphasize the ways the beautiful and the monstrous pervade human experience The two notions are explored through the axis of human transformation focusing on body identity and gender while questioning both how humans transform their body and space as well as how humans themselves are gradually transformed in different contexts The pandemic gender crisis moral crisis sociocultural instability and environmental issues have redefined beauty and the relationship we have with it Exploring these concepts through the lens of human transformation can yield valuable insights into what it means to be human in a world of constant change The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history archaeology philosophy architecture and cultural studies The Spectator ,1869 The Church Missionary Juvenile Instructor ,1880 A Brief History of the Masses Stefan Jonsson,2008 Stefan Jonsson uses three monumental works of art to build a provocative history of popular revolt Jacques Louis David s The Tennis Court Oath 1791 James Ensor s Christ s Entry into Brussels in 1889 1888 and Alfredo Jaar s They Loved It So Much the Revolution 1989 Addressing respectively the French Revolution of 1789 Belgium's proletarian messianism in the 1880s and the worldwide rebellions and revolutions of 1968 these canonical images not only depict an alternative view of history but offer a new understanding of the relationship between art and politics and the revolutionary nature of true democracy Drawing on examples from literature politics philosophy and other works of art Jonsson carefully constructs his portrait revealing surprising parallels between the political representation of the people in government and their aesthetic representation in painting Both essentially frame the people Jonsson argues defining them as elites or masses responsible citizens or angry mobs Yet in the aesthetic fantasies of David Ensor and Jaar Jonsson finds a different understanding of democracy one in which human collectives break the frame and enter the picture Connecting the achievements and failures of past revolutions to current political issues Jonsson then situates our present moment in a long historical drama of popular unrest making his book both a cultural history and a contemporary discussion about the fate of democracy in our globalized world
