Environmental Management in Hydro Electric Projects Kamta Prasad, R. S. Goel, 2000 Contributed articles presented at the National Seminar on Environmental Management in Hydro Electric Projects Environmental Flows in Water Resources Policies, Plans, and Projects Rafik Hirji, Richard Davis, 2009 This book advances the understanding and integration in operational terms of environmental flows water allocation into integrated water resources management IWRM Based on an in depth analysis of 17 global water policy plan and project case studies it addresses the highly contested complexities of environmentally responsible water resources development broadens the global perspectives on equitable sharing and sustainable use of water resources and expands the definitions of benefits sharing in high risk water resources development The book fills a major gap in knowledge on IWRM and forms an important contribution to the ongoing discourse on climate change adaptation in the water sector

Water Supply And Environmental Management Mohan Munasinghe, 2019-08-22 In the light of the need for decisionmakers in developing countries to adopt a systematic and rational approach to water supply planning this book provides a comprehensive and balanced treatment of water policy analysis and planning in the context of environmentally sustainable development Environmental Management in Mega Construction Projects Jianming Yang, 2017-02-13 This book discusses environmental management and construction management approaches to the environmental problems that can emerge in construction projects It sets a brand new standard for environmental management in mega construction projects in China and helps all construction project stakeholders establish a more compliant and efficient environmental management system The authors systematically explore management systems and team management offering managerial methods and tips based on international and Chinese practices Outlining all the environmental challenges that can arise during construction it is a valuable resource for company owners construction contractors and construction management consultants and companies It also offers useful insights for engineers project managers and project executives

Berg Water Project Lawrence J.M. Haas, Leonardo Mazzei, Donal T. O'Leary, Nigel Rossouw, 2010-07-08 The past decade has witnessed a major global shift in thinking about water including the role that water infrastructure plays in sustainable development This rethinking aims to balance better the social economic and environmental performance aspects in the development and management of large dams Infrastructure strategies must complement strategies for water environment and energy security and for emerging concerns to reduce vulnerability in water resource systems to climate change on the horizon Communication is central to multi stakeholder dialogue and partnerships at all levels needed to achieve sustainability and governance reform in water resource management and infrastructure provision At the same time communication drives the advocacy to mobilize political will and public support for beneficial change and continuous improvement in practices This case study emphasizes that is not only important to mobilize all opportunities to reconcile water demand and supply in river basins that are coming under increasing levels of water stress

but also to integrate effectively governance and anti corruption reforms and sustainability improvements into all stages of the planning and project cycle adding value for stakeholders
