Leadership and Economic Development Challenges in Post-Colonial Africa Chukwuemeka Ezenwa Osuigwe, 2023-12-30

This book explores the economic and development challenges seen within post colonial Africa Particular attention is given to governance and political leadership challenges within Africa and how they have resulted in poor education facilities a lack of infrastructure development corruption and economic insecurity The ways in which Africa s natural resources and agricultural land have not been utilised to drive development and economic growth are examined in relation to internal political conflicts Broader issues such as labour exploitation financial leakage and the exclusion of women from decision making are also discussed This book highlights poor political leadership within Africa and presents a framework for inclusive economic growth within post colonial Africa It will be of interest to students researchers policymakers and leaders working with development of African economics

The Diaspora's Role in Africa Stella-Monica N. Mpande, 2021-11-07 Africans living in the diaspora have a unique position as potential agents of change in helping to address Africa s political and socioeconomic challenges In addition to sending financial remittances their multiple hybrid identities in and out of geographical and psychocultural spaces allow them to play a role as cultural and political ambassadors to foster social change and sustainable development back in their African homelands However this hybrid position is not without challenges and this book reflects some of the conundrums faced by members of the diaspora as they negotiate their relationships with their home countries The author uses her lived experiences and empirical research to ask are members of the diaspora conduits of Western cultural hegemony at the cost of their traditional preservation and meaningful development in Africa How does the Western media s portrayal of Africa as the Dark Continent in the 21st century influence their decision making process to invest back home How could African nations governments manage their relationships with citizens abroad to motivate them to invest in their home countries How do some citizen residents in Africa and African Diaspora communities perceive each other in the context of Africa s development How could the African Diaspora collaborate with citizen residents across growth sectors to impact Africa s development The book hopes to inspire agents of change within the diaspora and features diverse African entrepreneurs success stories and their experiences of tackling these challenges The book will be of interest to aspiring entrepreneurs researchers across African studies and the expanding and vibrant field of diaspora research

Institutional Economics Perspectives on African Agricultural Development Johann Kirsten, 2009-01-01 Millions of Africans spend their entire lives poor hungry and malnourished and most depend on agriculture for their livelihoods either directly or indirectly Despite its potential to drive economic growth and poverty reduction however African agricultural development has remained disappointing whether because of underinvestment or poor returns to investments This book Institutional Economics Perspectives on African Agricultural Development is inspired by the conviction that effective African agricultural development requires building better institutions It provides an accessible synthesis of new institutional economics theory and research into understanding and improving African agriculture particularly smallholder agriculture Interspersing theory with case studies from a wide range of countries the book addresses such policy issues as how markets for different commodities and services function in different political cultural and economic contexts It not only makes an important contribution to the existing literature but also provides development practitioners policymakers and graduate students working or intending to work in these fields with essential knowledge and tools for addressing these challenges
