This new translation seeks to retain both the literal sense and the poetic music of the original and capture the poem's spontaneity and wit. The introduction examines several ways of reading the novel and text is richly annotated. Abandoned Women and Poetic Tradition Lawrence Lipking, 1988-09-15. At the heart of poetic tradition is a figure of abandonment: a woman forsaken and out of control. She appears in writings ancient and modern in the East and the West in high art and popular culture produced by women and by men. What accounts for her perennial fascination? What is her function in poems and for writers? Lawrence Lipking suggests many possibilities. In this figure he finds a partial record of women's experience: an instrument for the expression of religious love and yearning; a voice for psychological fears; and finally a model for the poet. Abandoned women inspire new ways of reading poems and poetic tradition. Pushkin's Lyric Intelligence Andrew Kahn, 2012-05-31. Pushkin's lyric intelligence is his capacity to transform philosophical and aesthetic ideas into poetry that questions the creative process. This first major study of his lyrics reveals the links between Pushkin's conceptual vocabulary and his intellectual life and between his writing and the influences of French and English authors and movements. Pushkin on Literature Aleksandr Sergeevich Pushkin, 1986. Pushkin on Literature approaches Pushkin's literary accomplishment from a unique perspective: it focuses on Pushkin the critic and on his fascination with the literary world that surrounded him. This is the only English language edition of the complete set of Pushkin's critical writing both on his own work and on the wide range of European literature: Byron, Shakespeare, Voltaire, Milton, which he read and studied and which so profoundly influenced his own writing. These extracts from Pushkin's letters, articles, and working notes provide a complete chronological record of the artist's literary evolution and provide a fascinating glimpse into the poet's intellectual passions. Literature as Communication and Cognition in Bakhtin and Lotman

Allan Reid, 2016-08-19. This title, first published in 1990, argues for the existence of a significant connection between the theories of literature and culture of Mikhail Mikhailovich Bakhtin (1895-1975) and Iurii Mikhailovich Lotman (1922-1993). There is general agreement in the academic or scholarly community that there is such a connection; however, it is generally held to refer to Bakhtin's influence on Lotman, which he expressed late in his life. The major aim of this study, meanwhile, is to demonstrate that the critical theories of Lotman and Bakhtin are highly compatible, independent of and prior to any direct influence. This title will be of interest to students of literature and literary theory. Eugene Onegin Aleksandr Pushkin, 2021-01-08.
