The personality cult of Stalin in Soviet posters, 1929-1953 Anita Pisch,2016-12-16 From 1929 until 1953 Iosif Stalin s image became a central symbol in Soviet propaganda Touched up images of an omniscient Stalin appeared everywhere emblazoned across buildings and lining the streets carried in parades and woven into carpets and saturating the media of socialist realist painting statuary monumental architecture friezes banners and posters From the beginning of the Soviet regime posters were seen as a vitally important medium for communicating with the population of the vast territories of the USSR Stalin s image became a symbol of Bolshevik values and the personification of a revolutionary new type of society The persona created for Stalin in propaganda posters reflects how the state saw itself or at the very least how it wished to appear in the eyes of the people The Stalin who was celebrated in posters bore but scant resemblance to the man Iosif

Vissarionovich Dzhugashvili whose humble origins criminal past penchant for violent solutions and unprepossessing appearance made him an unlikely recipient of uncritical charismatic adulation The Bolsheviks needed a wise nurturing and authoritative figure to embody their revolutionary vision and to legitimate their hold on power This leader would come to embody the sacred and archetypal qualities of the wise Teacher the Father of the nation the great Warrior and military strategist and the Saviour of first the Russian land and then the whole world This book is the first dedicated study on the marketing of Stalin in Soviet propaganda posters Drawing on the archives of libraries and museums throughout Russia hundreds of previously unpublished posters are examined with more than 130 reproduced in full colour The personality cult of Stalin in Soviet posters 1929 1953 is a unique and valuable contribution to the discourse in Stalinist studies across a number of disciplines

Metaphysical Symbols in Brand Communication Oya AYAN,2023-09-05 This thesis brings together three topics that we want to search brand communication gastronomy metaphysics After completing my master s degree in marketing communications what I always had in mind was the new trends in advertising communication with the globalization of the 21st century In the design of the advertisement not only the use of elements in communication technologies but also the philosophical background in its fabric attracted my attention In this context I began to sense that there might be mythological approaches in the chemistry of advertising messages that gained importance in social media In the postmodern environment of the 21st century food nutrition culinary arts and to put it briefly gastronomy became the dominant language of communication Moreover it caused kitchen wars by becoming politicized In line with my interest in gastronomy I wanted to focus on food advertisements I started to ask myself to what extent the fast food trend that marked the 21st century was changing the Global Society Interestingly I started to observe that there were metaphysical images that were reflected from ancient wisdom to the present day in McDonald s brand communication This problem which has not been studied much yet was an important exercise for me in terms of analyzing the Global Society as a doctoral thesis I can say that doing the analysis in the light of semiology as a method has broadened my horizon by directing me to an interdisciplinary perspective I would like to acknowledge Communication Sciences and the Internet Institute which allowed me to make such a significant study Prof Dr Mete amdereli who supported me with great excitement in all phases of my thesis Prof Dr Emine Yava gel who made great contributions to deepen my research subjects in the monitoring of the thesis In addition I would like to thank Prof Dr Mim Kemal ke from whose suggestions I benefited in the historical context I am also indebted to my colleagues and friends especially my family who buoyed me up and supported me during the research and writing process of my thesis which lasted more than 2 years I hope this study will be useful and inspire new studies in this field

Iconography of Power

Victoria E. Bonnell, 1998-02-05 Masters at visual propaganda the Bolsheviks produced thousands of vivid and compelling posters after they seized power in October 1917 Intended for a semi literate population that was accustomed to the rich visual legacy of the Russian autocracy and the Orthodox Church political posters came to occupy a central place in the regime s effort to imprint itself on the hearts and minds of the people and to remold them into the new Soviet women and men In this first sociological study of Soviet political posters Victoria Bonnell analyzes the shifts that took place in the images messages styles and functions of political art from 1917 to 1953 Everyone who lived in Russia after the October revolution had some familiarity with stock images of the male worker the great communist leaders the collective farm woman the capitalist and others These were the new icons standardized images that depicted Bolshevik heroes and their adversaries in accordance with a fixed pattern Like other invented traditions of the modern age iconographic images in propaganda art were relentlessly repeated bringing together Bolshevik ideology and traditional mythologies of pre Revolutionary Russia Symbols and emblems featured in Soviet posters of the Civil War and the 1920s gave visual meaning to the Bolshevik worldview dominated by the concept of class Beginning in the 1930s visual propaganda became more prescriptive providing models for the appearance demeanor and conduct of the new social types both positive and negative Political art also conveyed important messages about the sacred center of the regime which evolved during the 1930s from the celebration of the heroic proletariat to the deification of Stalin Treating propaganda images as part of a particular visual language Bonnell shows how people read them relying on their habits of seeing and interpreting folk religious commercial and political art both before and after 1917 as well as the fine art traditions of Russia and the West Drawing on monumental sculpture and holiday displays as well as posters the study traces the way Soviet propaganda art shaped the mentality of the Russian people the legacy is present even today and was itself shaped by popular attitudes and assumptions Iconography of Power includes posters dating from the final decades of the old regime to the death of Stalin located by the author in Russian American and English libraries and archives One hundred exceptionally striking posters are reproduced in the book many of them never before published Bonnell places these posters in a historical context and provides a provocative account of the evolution of the visual discourse on power in Soviet Russia

Russian Orientalism in a global context Maria Taroutina, Allison Leigh, 2023-06-27 This volume features new research on Russia s historic relationship with Asia and the ways it was mediated and represented in the fine decorative and performing arts and architecture from the mid eighteenth century to the first two decades of Soviet rule It interrogates how Russia s perception of its position on the periphery of the west and its simultaneous self consciousness as a colonial power shaped its artistic cultural and national identity as a heterogenous multi ethnic empire It also explores the extent to which cultural practitioners participated in the discursive matrices that advanced Russia s colonial machinery on the one hand and critiqued and challenged it on the other especially in territories that were themselves on the fault lines between the east and the west

Images at Work David Morgan, 2018 Images can be studied in many ways as symbols displays of artistic genius adjuncts to texts or naturally occurring phenomena like reflections and dreams Each of these approaches is justified by the nature of the image in question as well as the way viewers engage with it But images are often something more when they perform in ways that exhibit a capacity to act independent of human will Images come alive they move us to action calm us reveal the power of the divine change the world around us In these instances we need an alternative model for exploring what is at work one that recognizes the presence of images as objects that act on us Building on his previous innovative work in visual and religious studies David Morgan creates a new framework for understanding how the human mind can be enchanted by images in Images at Work In carefully crafted arguments Morgan proposes that images are special kinds of objects fashioned and recognized by human beings for their capacity to engage us From there he demonstrates that enchantment as described is not a violation of cosmic order but a very natural way that the mind animates the world around it His groundbreaking study outlines the deeply embodied process by which humans create culture by endowing places things and images with power and agency These various agents human and non human material geographic and spiritual become nodes in the web of relationships thus giving meaning to images and to human life Marrying network theory with cutting edge work in visual studies and connecting the visual and bodily technologies employed by the ancient Greeks and Romans to secular icons like Che Guevara Abraham Lincoln and Mao Images at Work will be transformative for those curious about why images seem to have a power of us in ways we can't always describe
