Byzantine Art and Renaissance Europe Angeliki Lymberopoulou, Rembrandt Duits, 2016-12-05 Byzantine Art and Renaissance Europe discusses the cultural and artistic interaction between the Byzantine east and western Europe from the sack of Constantinople by the Fourth Crusade in 1204 to the flourishing of post Byzantine artistic workshops on Venetian Crete during the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries and the formation of icon collections in Renaissance Italy The contributors examine the routes by which artistic interaction may have taken place and explore the reception of Byzantine art in western Europe analysing why artists and patrons were interested in ideas from the other side of the cultural and religious divide In the first chapter Lyn Rodley outlines the development of Byzantine art in the Palaiologan era and its relations with western culture Hans Bloemsma then re assesses the influence of Byzantine art on early Italian painting from the point of view of changing demands regarding religious images in Italy In the first of two chapters on Venetian Crete Angeliki Lymberopoulou evaluates the impact of the Venetian presence on the production of fresco decorations in regional Byzantine churches on the island The next chapter by Diana Newall continues the exploration of Cretan art manufactured under the Venetians shifting the focus to the bi cultural society of the Cretan capital Candia and the rise of the post Byzantine icon Kim Woods then addresses the reception of Byzantine icons in western Europe in the late Middle Ages and their role as devotional objects in the Roman Catholic Church Finally Rembrandt Duits examines the status of Byzantine icons as collectors items in early Renaissance Italy The inventories of the Medici family and other collectors reveal an appreciation for icons among Italian patrons which suggests that received notions of Renaissance tastes may be in need of revision The book thus offers new perspectives and insights and re positions late and post Byzantine art in a broader European cultural context Mary in Our Life Nicholas Joseph Santoro, 2011-08-12 Mary In Our Life An Atlas of the Names and Titles of Mary The Mother of Jesus and Their Place in Marian Devotion presents the 1 969 names titles and appellations used to identify the Blessed Virgin Mary over the centuries in terms of their history and related events Within these titles and their history can be seen the official and private attitudes and prejudices of the times government pressures conflicts and interdictions internal problems within the Catholic Church and startling examples of dedication devotion and piety Taken together Marian titles are a real life story of the Catholic faith Icons and Saints of the Eastern Orthodox Church Alfredo Tradigo, 2006 An icon from the Greek word eikon image is a wooden panel painting of a holy person or scene from Orthodox Christianity the religion of the Byzantine Empire that is practiced today mainly in Greece and Russia It was believed that these works acted as intermediaries between worshipers and the holy personages they depicted Their pictorial language is stylized and primarily symbolic rather than

Daitokuji Gregory P. A. Levine,2005 The Zen Buddhist monastery Daitokuji in Kyoto has long been revered as a cloistered meditation centre a repository of art treasures and a wellspring of the Zen aesthetic Gregory Levine s Daitokuji unsettles these conventional notions with groundbreaking inquiry into the significant and surprising visual and social identities of sculpture painting and calligraphy associated with this fourteenth century monastery and its enduring monastic and lay communities The book begins with a study of Zen portraiture at Daitokuji that reveals the precariousness of portrait likeness the face that gazes out from an abbot s painting or statue may not be who we expect it to be or submit quietly to interpretation By tracing the life of Daitokuji s famed statue of the chanoyu patriarch Sen no Riky u 1522 91 which was all but destroyed by the ruler Toyotomi Hideyoshi 1537 98 but survived in Rash omon like narratives and reconstituted sculptural forms Levine throws light upon the contested status of images and their mytho poetic potential Levine then draws from the seventeenth century journal of K ogetsu S ogan Bokuseki no utsushi to explore practices of calligraphy connoisseurship at Daitokuji and the pivotal role played by the monastery s abbots within Kyoto art circles The book s final section explores Daitokuji s annual airings of temple treasures not merely as a practice geared toward preservation but also as a space in which different communities vie for authority over the artistic past An epilogue follows the peripatetic journey of the monastery's scrolls of the 500 Luohan from China to Japan to exhibition and partial sale in the West and back to Daitokuji Illuminating canonical and heretofore ignored works and mining a trove of documents diaries and modern writings Levine argues for the plurality of Daitokuji's visual arts and the breadth of social and ritual circumstances of art making and viewing within the monastery This diversity encourages reconsideration of stereotyped notions of Zen art and offers specialists and general readers alike opportunity to explore the fertile and sometimes volatile nexus of the visual arts and religious sites in Japan
