Enter The Fat Dragon:

Enter The Fat Dragon Sean Gallagher, 2020-06-06 Storyline Based on the fifth Dragon Quest game Fighting Stars Kyle Barrowman, 2024-09-05 Fighting Stars provides a rich and diverse account of the emergence and legacies of Hong Kong martial arts cinema stars Tracing the meanings and influence of stars such as Bruce Lee Jackie Chan Michelle Yeoh Jet Li Zhang Ziyi and Donnie Yen against the shifting backdrops of the Hong Kong film industry the contributors to this important volume highlight martial arts stars cultural reach both on a local and global scale Each of the chapters written by a host of renowned international scholars focuses on an individual film star considering issues such as martial arts practices and philosophies gender and age national identities and conflicts cinematic genres and aesthetic choices in order to understand their local and transnational cultural influence Jackie Chan Clyde Gentry, 1997-04-01 Jackie Chan Inside the Dragon is the first biography of this international star Drawn from one on one interviews with Chan himself and the actors actresses directors and other stuntmen who ve worked with him fans will finish this book knowing all the details behind Chan s life and films The Invention of Martial Arts Paul Bowman, 2020-12-31 Through popular movies starring Bruce Lee and songs like the disco hit Kung Fu Fighting martial arts have found a central place in the Western cultural imagination But what would martial arts be without the explosion of media texts and images that brought it to a wide audience in the late 1960s and early 1970s In this examination of the media history of what we now call martial arts author Paul Bowman makes the bold case that the phenomenon of martial arts is chiefly an invention of media representations Rather than passively taking up a preexisting history of martial arts practices some of which of course predated the martial arts boom in popular culture media images and narratives actively constructed martial arts Grounded in a historical survey of the British media history of martial arts such as Bartitsu jujutsu judo karate tai chi and MMA across a range of media this book thoroughly recasts our understanding of the history of martial arts By interweaving theories of key thinkers on historiography such as Foucault and Hobsbawm and Said s ideas on Orientalism with analyses of both mainstream and marginal media texts Bowman arrives at the surprising insight that media representations created martial arts rather than the other way around In this way he not only deepens our understanding of martial arts but also demonstrates the productive power of media discourses man's ambitious exhaustive and utterly obsessive attempt to make sense of over a century of exploitation and cult cinema of a sort that most critics won't care to write about. One opinion: 8 000 reviews or thereabouts. Spooky Encounters Daniel O'Brien, 2003. Flying ghosts hopping vampires seductive spirits tree demons evil sorcerers living skeletons possessed limbs and giant predatory tongues. Spectacle and Diversity Lee Artz, 2021-12-30. This book shows how transnational media operate in the contemporary world and what their impact is on film television and the larger global culture. Where a company is based geographically no longer determines its outreach or output. As media consolidate and partner across national and cultural boundaries global culture evolves. The new transnational media industry is universal in its operation function and social impact. It reflects a shared transnational culture of consumerism authoritarianism cultural diversity and spectacle. From Wolf Warriors and Sanju to Valerian City of 1000 Planets and Pokémon new media combinations challenge old assumptions about cultural imperialism and reflect cross boundary collaboration as well as boundary breaking cultural interpretation. Intended for students of global studies and international communication at all levels the book will appeal to a wide range of readers interested in the way transnational media work and how that shapes our culture. City on Fire Lisa Odham Stokes, Michael Hoover, 1999. Hong Kong's film industry gained global attention in the 1980s at the time of negotiations over Great Britain's return of the colony to China. Uncertainty about the post handover era accelerated Hong Kong's race for economic growth and found expression in cinema's depictions of a city on fire. In this accessible introduction to the extraordinary cinematic output of the colony Michael Hoover and Lisa Stokes review the directors and films that have established Hong Kong cinema internationally. John Woo's martial arts flicks Tsui Hark's wire worked fantasies Ann Hui's exile melodramas Stanley Kwan's limpid romances and Wong Kar wai's stylish art films.
