journalist Jane Marie expands on her popular podcast The Dream to expose the scourge of multilevel marketing schemes and how they have profited off the evisceration of the American working class We ve all heard of Amway Mary Kay Tupperware and LuLaRoe but few know the nefarious way they and countless other multilevel marketing MLM companies prey on desperate Americans struggling to make ends meet When factories close stalwart industries shutter and blue collar opportunities evaporate MLMs are there ready to pounce on the crumbling American Dream MLMs thrive in rural areas and on military bases targeting women with promises of being their own boss and millions of dollars in easy income even at the risk of their entire life savings But the vast majority 99 7% of those who join an MLM make no money or lose money and wind up stuck with inventory they can t sell to recoup their losses Selling the Dream is an urgent and riveting expos Publishers Weekly starred review that reveals how these companies often owned by political and corporate elites such as the DeVos and the Van Andel families have made a windfall in profit off of the desperation of the American working class      Reflective Learning in Management, Development and Education David Higgins, 2017-07-05 In recent years there has been a growing interest in the ideas surrounding reflective practice specifically in the areas of learning in management development and education This interest has developed in a growing number of professional fields thus making for very diverse understandings of what can be regarded as complex approaches to learning In order to understand how reflective practice can support and aid learning it is helpful to acknowledge how we learn First all learners start from their own position of knowledge and have their own set of experiences to draw upon Second learning is contextual something which managers need to acknowledge To make sense and achieve a deep understanding of material and experiences one needs to relate new information to existing knowledge and experiences This is best achieved through a process of reflection Indeed the underlying rationale for the chapters in this publication is to explore how the role of practice reflection and critical reflection are understood and developed within a learning process which is supported through the application of reflective tools This book recognises and makes explicit the diverse yet inclusive nature of the field By including a range of contributions from both subject specific disciplines and professional contexts it seeks to enable the reader in documenting some of the current uses of reflection and critical reflection while also illustrating some of the newer methods in use as well as the current contributions to thinking in the subject domain Through this publication the editor and authors hope to provide a basis from which continuing professional development and education can be enhanced This book was originally published as a special issue of Reflective Practice International and Multidisciplinary Perspectives      The Spectator ,1929      Empire religiosity Tim Allender, 2024-07-23 This book explores Roman Catholic female missionaries and their placement in colonial and postcolonial India It offers fascinating insights into their idiomatic activism juxtaposed with a contrarian Protestant raj and with their own church patriarchies During the Great Revolt of 1857 these women religious hid in church steeples They were forced into the medical care of sexually diseased women in Lock Hospitals They followed the Jesuits to experimental tribal village domains and catered for elites in the airy hilltop stations of the raj Yet they could not escape the eugenic and child rescue practices that were the flavour of the imperial day New geographies of race and gender were also created by their social and educational outreach This allowed them to remain on the subcontinent after the tide went out on empire in 1947 Their religious bodies remained untouched by India yet their experience in the field built awareness of the complex semiotics and visual traces engaged by the East West interchange After 1947 their tropes of social outreach were shaped by their direct interaction with Indians Many new women religious were now of the same race or carried a strongly anti British Irish ancestry In the postcolonial world their historicity continues to underpin their negotiable Western constructed activism now reaching trafficked girls and those in modern day slavery The uncovered and multi dimensional contours of their work are strong contributors to the current Black Lives Matter debates and how the etymology and constructs of empire find their way into current NGO philanthropy     Edinburgh Companion to Animal Studies Lynn Turner,2018-03-07 This volume critically investigates current topics and disciplines that are affected enriched or put into dispute by the burgeoning scholarship on Animal Studies     The Insurance Index ,1894     Finance Chronicle and Insurance Circular ,1899     The Insurance Economist ,1900     Sermons Hugh Blair,1826     Insurance News ,1910     Capital of Mind Adam R. Nelson,2024-01-02

The second volume of an ambitious new economic history of American higher education Capital of Mind is the second volume in a breathtakingly ambitious new economic history of American higher education Picking up from the first volume Exchange of Ideas Adam R Nelson looks at the early decades of the nineteenth century explaining how the idea of the modern university arose from a set of institutional and ideological reforms designed to foster the mass production and mass consumption of knowledge This industrialization of ideas mirrored the industrialization of the American economy and catered to the demands of a new industrial middle class for practical and professional education From Harvard in the north to the University of Virginia in the south new experiments with the idea of a university elicited intense debate about the role of scholarship in national development and international competition and whether higher education should be supported by public funds especially in periods of fiscal austerity The history of capitalism and the history of the university Nelson reveals are intimately intertwined which raises a host of important questions that remain salient today How do we understand knowledge and education as commercial goods Should they be public or private Who should pay for them And fundamentally what is the optimal system of higher education for a capitalist democracy     The Insurance Times ,1869     Bankers' Magazine, Journal of the Money Market and Commercial Digest ,1891     Annual Volume of the Waterloo Historical Society ,1921     Routledge Library Editions: Joseph Conrad Various,2021-09-30 Joseph Conrad 1857 1924 is widely considered one the great modern writers in English literature This 21 volume set contains titles originally published between 1976 and 1990 as well as a biography from 1957 written by one of his closest friends The first 18 books are a set of concordances and indexes to Conrad s printed works which were part of a project directed by Todd K Bender at the University of Wisconsin Madison USA and are among the first attempts to use the power of computers to enhance our reading environment and assist in lexicography scholarly editing and literary analysis The set also contains a meticulously compiled bibliography of writings on Joseph Conrad as well as an original and powerful analysis of his major work     A Gift to Self Dr. Radhika Kapoor,2019-09-19 This book is about knowing and understanding the fifty basic rules of human nature as these rules are about our inner wisdom We always knew these rules but by reading them again and again we can enhance our life and conduct ourselves better than before Spend time with yourself to figure out what you want and at the same time make meaningful relationships We are defined by the decisions we make so make a promise to do it for yourself and then we can have anything we want if we really want it badly Self love makes us satisfied in our lives and helps us work towards our goals Let s validate our opinions and exist in the moment Building the skills of compassion and self awareness rewires our brain to focus on better and you feel good about yourself A gift to self is about the most wonderful gift we give ourselves by discovering self and becoming more of who we already are By taking care of ourselves and supporting our dreams we live this wonderful life on our terms and be proud of who we are The purpose of life is to be happy give love and get loved
