Coastal Environments in the West of Ireland John B. Roney, Mark Beekey, 2022-11-16 This multi authored study explores how the natural sciences and the humanities together can understand the connections between the natural environment the built environment and the cultural heritage of communities along the west coast of Ireland Knowledge of the sea and marine life and what they mean to humanity is dependent on both scientific study and local knowledge which in turn can lead to a greater commitment to sustainability Until the 1950s there was little government support for scientific research nor an interest in helping fisheries beyond near shore catch Irish fisheries remained small underfunded and had difficulty accessing international markets However as this book shows Ireland s cultural heritage demonstrates a deep appreciation for the coastal environment and a sense of place This is preserved in the Irish language in poetry story and music and in the ways the Irish lived with an often wild coastal topography
