Idea Of Idolatry And The Emergence Of Islam From Polemic To History:

The Idea of Idolatry and the Emergence of Islam G. R. Hawting, 1999-12-09 Why and under what circumstances did the religion of Islam emerge in a remote part of Arabia at the beginning of the seventh century Traditional scholarship maintains that Islam developed in opposition to the idolatrous and polytheistic religion of the Arabs of Mecca and the surrounding regions In this study of pre Islamic Arabian religion G R Hawting adopts a comparative religious perspective to suggest an alternative view By examining the various bodies of evidence which survive from this period the Koran and the vast resources of the Islamic tradition the author argues that in fact Islam arose out of conflict with other monotheists whose beliefs and practices were judged to fall short of true monotheism and were in consequence attacked polemically as idolatry The author is adept at unravelling the complexities of the source material and students and scholars will find his argument both engaging and persuasive

The Idea of Idolatry and the Emergence of Islam Gerald R. Hawting, 2002

Muhammad's Heirs Jonathan E. Brockopp, 2017-08-10 Muslim scholars are a vital part of Islam and are sometimes considered heirs to the prophets continuing Muhammad s work of establishing Islam in the centuries after his death But this was not always the case indeed Muslims survived the turmoil of their first century largely without the help of scholars In this book Jonathan Brockopp seeks to determine the nature of Muslim scholarly communities and to account for their emergence from the very beginning of the Muslim story until the mid tenth century By analysing coins papyri and Arabic literary manuscripts from the ancient mosque library of Kairouan Tunisia Brockopp offers a new interpretation of Muslim scholars rise to positions of power and influence serving as moral guides and the chief arbiters of Muslim tradition This book will be of great benefit to scholars of comparative religion and advanced students in Middle Eastern history Islamic Studies Islamic Law and early Islamic literature

From Indus to Independence - A Trek Through Indian History Dr Sanu

Kainikara, 2018-06-11 This is the fifth volume in the series on Indian history with the generic title From Indus to Independence A Trek through Indian History It covers the period from the establishment of the Delhi Sultanate accepted as 1206 by most historians and its defeat and obliteration by Babur the Mughal in 1526 The initial phase of the Delhi Sultanate was more a military occupation than the establishment of an empire and accordingly was chaotic violent and turbulent Throughout its existence the Sultanate continued a program of the aggressive imposition of Islam on the northern part of the Indian sub continent This book chronicles the events of more than three centuries especially in North India that had and continues to have a momentous influence on further developments in India The Delhi Sultanate was the first major Islamic kingdom to be established in India and brought about a direct confrontation between Hinduism and Islam The encounter transformed not only India s social fabric but had a lasting impact on the subcontinent s architecture literature music and even cuisine More importantly it divided the socio political and economic structure of India in an irrevocable manner This book recounts the historic events and analyses the social cultural and religious developments that transformed India permanently It combines detailed research and great erudition weaving together the events of three centuries and the aftermath and influence of each on the development of India as an entity A History of the Muslim World to 1750

Vernon O. Egger,2017-11-08 A History of the Muslim World to 1750 traces the development of Islamic civilization from the career of the Prophet Muhammad to the mid eighteenth century Encompassing a wide range of significant events within the period its coverage includes the creation of the Dar al Islam the territory ruled by Muslims the fragmentation of society into various religious and political groups including the Shi ites and Sunnis the series of catastrophes in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries that threatened to destroy the civilization and the rise of the Ottoman Safavid and Mughal empires Including the latest research from the last ten years this second edition has been updated and expanded to cover the fifteenth to eighteenth centuries Fully refreshed and containing over sixty images to highlight the key visual aspects this book offers students a balanced coverage of the Muslim world from the Iberian Peninsula to South Asia and detailed accounts of all cultures The use of maps primary sources timelines and a glossary further illuminates the fascinating yet complex world of the pre modern Middle East Covering art architecture religious institutions theological beliefs popular religious practice political institutions cuisine and much more A History of the Muslim World to 1750 is the perfect introduction for all students of the history of Islamic civilization and the Middle East The Second Formation of Islamic Law Guy Burak,2015-01-12

The Second Formation of Islamic Law is the first book to deal with the rise of an official school of law in the post Mongol period The author explores how the Ottoman dynasty shaped the structure and doctrine of a particular branch within the Hanafi school of law In addition the book examines the opposition of various jurists mostly from the empire s Arab provinces to this development By looking at the emergence of the concept of an official school of law the book seeks to call into question the grand narratives of Islamic legal history that tend to see the nineteenth century as the major rupture Instead an argument is formed that some of the supposedly nineteenth century developments such as the codification of Islamic law are rooted in much earlier centuries In so doing the book offers a new periodization of Islamic legal history in the eastern Islamic lands Arabs in the Early Islamic Empire Ulrich Brian Ulrich,2019-05-09

Examining a single broad tribal identity al Azd from the immediate pre Islamic period into the early Abbasid era this book notes the ways it was continually refashioned over that time It explores the ways in which the rise of the early Islamic empire influenced the peoples of the Arabian Peninsula who became a core part of it and examines the connections between the kinship societies and the developing state of the early caliphate This helps us to understand how what are often called tribal forms of social organisation identity conditioned its growth and helped shape what became its common elite culture Studying the relationship between tribe and state during the first two centuries of the caliphate author Brian Ulrich s focus is on understanding the survival and transformation of tribal identity until it became part of the literate high culture of the Abbasid caliphate and a component of a larger Arab ethnic identity He argues that from pre Islamic Arabia to the caliphate greater continuity existed between tribal identity and social practice than is generally portrayed Poverty and Charity in Medieval Islam Adam Abdelhamid Sabra,2000-12-21 The study of poverty and charity in Islamic history has made significant advances and Adam Sabra's book represents a full length treatment of the subject By focusing on Mamluk Cairo the author explores the attitude of medieval Muslims to poverty why and how did they give alms and the experience of being poor in an Islamic society He also considers the role of pious endowments waqfs in providing food education and medical care to the poor of medieval Egypt This is a fascinating account of a world far removed from the affairs of emirs and ulama usually the traditional province of Mamluk studies This trend in conjunction with the comparisons the author affords of poverty and destitution in Europe and China during the same period will entice a broad range of scholars from within the field and beyond The Prophet and the Age of the Caliphates Hugh Kennedy,2022-07-07 The Prophet and the Age of the Caliphates is an accessible history of the Near East from c 600 to 1050 AD the period in which Islamic society was formed Beginning with the life of Muhammad and the birth of Islam Hugh Kennedy goes on to explore the great Arab conquests of the seventh century and the golden age of the Umayyad and Abbasid caliphates when the world of Islam was politically and culturally far more developed than the West The crisis of the tenth century put an end to the political unity of the Muslim world and saw the emergence of the Fatimid caliphate in Egypt and independent dynasties in the Eastern Islamic world The book concludes with the advent of Seljuk Turkish rule in the mid eleventh century This new edition is fully updated to take into account recent research and there are two entirely new chapters covering the economic background during the period and the north east of Iran in the post Abbasid period Based on extensive reading of the original Arabic sources Kennedy breaks away from the Orientalist tradition of seeing early Islamic history as a series of ephemeral rulers and pointless battles by drawing attention to underlying long term social and economic processes The Prophet and the Age of the Caliphates deals with issues of continuing and increasing relevance in the twenty first century when it is perhaps more important than ever to understand the early development of the Islamic world Students and scholars of early Islamic history will find this book a clear informative and readable introduction to the subject Historiography and Writing Postcolonial India Naheem Jabbar,2009-06-25 A critical examination of post colonial Indian history writing the book analyzes the uses made of India's often millennial past by nationalist ideologues who sought a specific solution to India's predicament on its way to becoming a post colonial state From independence to the present it considers the competing visions of India's liberation from her apocalyptic present to be found in the thinking of Gandhi V D Savarkar Nehru and B R Ambedkar as well as V S Naipaul and Salman Rushdie Envisioning Islam Michael Philip Penn,2015-06-05 The first Christians to encounter Islam were not Latin speakers from the western Mediterranean or Greek speakers from Constantinople but Mesopotamian Christians who spoke the Aramaic dialect of Syriac Under Muslim rule from the seventh century onward Syriac Christians wrote the most extensive descriptions extant of early Islam Seldom translated and often omitted from modern historical reconstructions this vast body of texts reveals a complicated and evolving range of religious and cultural exchanges that took place from the seventh to the ninth century The first book length analysis of these earliest encounters Envisioning Islam highlights the ways these neglected texts challenge the modern scholarly narrative of early Muslim conquests rulers and religious practice Examining Syriac sources including letters theological tracts scientific treatises and histories Michael Philip Penn reveals a culture of substantial interreligious interaction in which the categorical boundaries between Christianity and Islam were more ambiguous than distinct The diversity of ancient Syriac images of Islam he demonstrates revolutionizes our understanding of the early Islamic world and challenges widespread cultural assumptions about the history of exclusively hostile Christian Muslim relations Skepticism in Classical Islam Paul L. Heck,2013-11-20 The first major treatment of skepticism in Islam this book explores the critical role of skeptical thinking in the development of theology in Islam It examines the way key thinkers in classical Islam faced perplexing questions about the nature of God and his relation to the world all the while walking a fine line between belief in God s message as revealed in the Qur an and the power of the mind to discover truths on its own Skepticism in Classical Islam reveals how doubt was actually an integral part of scholarly life at this time Skepticism is by no means synonymous with atheism It is rather the admission that one cannot convincingly demonstrate a truth claim with certainty and Islam s scholars like their counterparts elsewhere acknowledged such impasses only to be inspired to find new ways to resolve the conundrums they faced Whilst their conundrums were unique their admission of the limits of knowledge shares much with other scholarly traditions Seeking to put Islam on the map of the broader study of the history of scepticism this book will be of interest to scholars and students of Religion History and Philosophy Architecture of Anxiety, Body Politics and the Formation of Islamic Architecture Heba Mostafa,2024-03-04 Structured as five microhistories c 632 705 this book offers a counternarrative for the formation of Islamic architecture and the Islamic state It adopts a novel periodization informed by moments of historical violence and anxiety around caliphal identities in flux animating histories of the minbar throne and maqsura as a principal nexus for navigating this anxiety It expands outward to re assess the mosque and palace with a focus on the Qubbat al Khadra and the Dar al Imara in Kufa It culminates in a reading of the Dome of the Rock in Jerusalem as a site where eschatological anxieties and political survival converge Law and Piety in Medieval Islam Megan H. Reid,2013-07-22 This intimate portrayal of the devotional life in early medieval Islamic society demonstrates how Islamic law defined holy behavior The Mystics of al-Andalus Yousef Casewit,2017-04-27 A study of the writings of Ibn Barraj n an influential pioneer of intellectual mysticism in the Muslim West Doubt in Islamic Law Intisar A. Rabb,2015 This book considers the rarely studied but pervasive concepts of doubt that medieval Muslim jurists used to resolve problematic criminal cases The Oxford Handbook of Late Antiquity Scott Fitzgerald Johnson,2012-11 Late antiquity extends from the accession of the Christian emperor Constantine to the rise of Muhammad and early Islam ca 300 700 AD This volume takea account of the scholarship published in the last 30 years and provide a foundational synthesis for students of late antiquity The Arabs and Islam in Late Antiquity Aziz Al-Azmeh, 2014-12-31 This study is a critique of Arabic textual sources for the history of the Arabs in late antique times during the centuries immediately preceding Muhammad and up to and including the Umayyad period Its purpose is to consider the value and relevance of these sources for the reconstruction of the social political cultural and religious history of the Arabs as they were still pagans and to reconstruct the emergence of Muhammadan and immediately post Muhammadan religion and polity For this religion including the composition and canonisation of the Qur'an the label Paleo Islam has been coined in order to lend historical specificity to this particular period distinguishing it from what came before and what was to come later all the while indicating continuities that do not in themselves belie the specificity attributed to this period of very rapid change This is argued further in Aziz Al Azmeh's The Emergence of Islam in Late Antiquity Allah and His People Cambridge University Press 2014 to which this book is both a companion and a technical preface Al Azmeh illustrates his arguments through examination of orality and literacy transmission ancient Arabic poetry the corpus of Arab heroic lore ayyām the early narrative the Qur'an and other literary sources The work includes a very extensive bibliography of the works cited This is the first book in the Gerlach Press series Theories and Paradigms of Islamic Studies Authority and Identity in Medieval Islamic Historiography Mimi Hanaoka, 2016-09-09 Intriguing dreams improbable myths fanciful genealogies and suspect etymologies These were all key elements of the historical texts composed by scholars and bureaucrats on the peripheries of Islamic empires between the tenth and fifteenth centuries But how are historians to interpret such narratives And what can these more literary histories tell us about the people who wrote them and the times in which they lived In this book Mimi Hanaoka offers an innovative interdisciplinary method of approaching these sorts of local histories from the Persianate world By paying attention to the purpose and intention behind a text's creation her book highlights the preoccupation with authority to rule and legitimacy within disparate regional provincial ethnic sectarian ideological and professional communities By reading these texts in such a way Hanaoka transforms the literary patterns of these fantastic histories into rich sources of information about identity rhetoric authority legitimacy and centre periphery relations The Quest of the Historical Muhammad and Other Studies on Formative Islam Stephen J.

Shoemaker, 2024-07-09 The lead essay in this book is the first effort to approach the historical figure of Muhammad in a manner comparable to the investigations that biblical scholars have made in the effort to recover the historical figure of Jesus Using comparable methods and approaches this study demonstrates that despite a widely held belief that Islam was born in the full light of history we in fact know considerably less about both Muhammad and the beginnings of Islam than we do about the historical Jesus and the beginnings of Christianity Also included are republications of four previously published essays dealing with such topics as the Qur'an's status as a late ancient biblical apocryphon the relation between the Jerusalem Temple and the Holy House revered by the Qur'an and the imminent eschatology of the Qur'an and the early Islamic tradition
