Bierbrier,2008-08-14 The great pyramids of Giza Tutankhamun the Great Sphinx Cleopatra and Ramesses II the names and achievements of Ancient Egypt are legendary Situated along the Nile River the Ancient Egyptian civilization began around 3150 BC and lasted over three millennia until it was conquered by Rome in 31 BC The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Ancient Egypt expands upon the information presented in the first with a chronology an introductory essay appendixes a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on Egyptian rulers bureaucrats and commoners whose records have survived as well as ancient society religion and gods Theban Desert Road Survey II John Coleman Darnell,2013-12-31 The second monograph devoted to the work of the Theban Desert Road Survey presents the major rock inscriptions of the northwestern Theban Desert and the western hinterlands of Qamula The material includes six larger sites and several smaller collections and individual inscriptions and images sites discovered by the Theban Desert Road Survey over the course of approximately twelve field seasons The major groupings of inscriptions from south to north are the rock shrine of Pahu and the inscriptions of Gebel Akhenaton sites in the vicinity of the Wadi Himdaniya a small but interesting collection of inscriptions near the Wadi Arqub Baghla with two smaller outlying sites inscriptions of the Wadi Magar to the north including the site of the great Predynastic tableau with its plethora of crocodiles the associated vignette of Elephant on the Gebel along with the nearby Gebel Sutekh site and smaller concentrations beyond and finally the inscriptions of the area of the Matna el Barqa Highlights of the epigraphic material include new prayers to Amun and Hathor one a genuine New Kingdom de profundis recording an appeal to Amun during a storm on the Nile several important Predynastic and Protodynastic tableaux and the only rock art

depictions of Akhenaton in a true Amarna style Nefertiti, Queen and Pharaoh of Egypt Aidan Dodson, 2020-10-06 Egypt's sun queen magnificently revealed in a new book by renowned Egyptologist Aidan Dodson During the last half of the fourteenth century BC Egypt was perhaps at the height of its prosperity It was against this background that the Amarna Revolution occurred Throughout its instigator King Akhenaten had at his side his Great Wife Nefertiti When a painted bust of the queen found at Amarna in 1912 was first revealed to the public in the 1920s it soon became one of the great artistic icons of the world Nefertiti's name and face are perhaps the best known of any royal woman of ancient Egypt and one of the best recognized figures of antiquity but her image has come in many ways to overshadow the woman herself Nefertiti's current world dominion as a cultural and artistic icon presents an interesting contrast with the way in which she was actively written out of history soon after her own death This book explores what we can reconstruct of the life of the queen tracing the way in which she and her image emerged in the wake of the first tentative decipherment of Egyptian hieroglyphs during the 1820s 1840s and then took on the world over the next century and beyond All indications are that her final fate was a tragic one but although every effort was made to wipe out Nefertiti's memory after her death modern archaeology has rescued the queen pharaoh from obscurity and set her on the road to today's international status Afterglow of Empire Aidan

Dodson, 2019-11-05 During the half millennium from the eleventh through the sixth centuries BC the power and the glory of the imperial pharaohs of the New Kingdom crumbled in the face of internal crises and external pressures ultimately reversed by invaders from Nubia and consolidated by natives of the Nile Delta following a series of Assyrian invasions Much of this era remains obscure with little consensus among Egyptologists Against this background Aidan Dodson reconsiders the evidence and proposes a number of new solutions to the problems of the period He also considers the era's art architecture and archaeology including the royal tombs of Tanis one of which yielded the intact burials of no fewer than five pharaohs Afterglow of Empire is extensively illustrated with images of this material much of which is little known to non specialists By the author of the bestselling Amarna Sunset and Poisoned Legacy Female Figurines from the Mut Precinct Elizabeth

A. Waraksa, 2009 Elizabeth A Waraksa examines the ceramic female figurines excavated by John Hopkins at the Precinct of Mut in Luxor Egypt between 2001 and 2004 The figurines date from the New Kingdom to the Late Period ca 1550-332 BCE Ceramic figurines are frequently overlooked by archaeologists art historians and social historians because they lack the aesthetic qualities usually associated with Egyptian art However the Hopkins excavated figurines display features that mark them as standardized ritual objects Waraksa argues that ceramic female figurines were produced in Workshops utilized by magician physicians in healing rituals and regularly snapped and discarded at the end of their effective lives This is a new broader interpretation for objects that have previously been considered as toys dolly concubine figures and most recently votive fertility figurines Publisher's website Perspectives on the Song of Songs / Perspektiven der Hoheliedauslegung

Anselm C. Hagedorn, 2012-02-13 The collection of essays contains nineteen contributions that aim at locating the Song of

Songs in its ancient context as well as addressing problems of interpretation and the reception of this biblical book in later literature In contrast to previous studies this work devotes considerable attention to parallels from the Greek world without neglecting the Ancient Near East or Egypt Several contributions deal with the use of the Song in Byzantine Medieval German Romantic and modern Greek Literature Due to the interdisciplinary nature of the collection new perspectives and avenues of approach are opened

Five Egyptian Goddesses Susan Tower Hollis,2019-10-03 This volume explores the earliest appearances and functions of the five major Egyptian goddesses Neith Hathor Nut Isis and Nephthys Although their importance endured throughout more than three millennia of ancient Egyptian history their origins earliest roles and relationships in religion myth and cult have never before been studied together in detail Showcasing the latest research with carefully chosen illustrations and a full bibliography Susan Tower Hollis suggests that the origins of the goddesses derived primarily from their functions as shown by their first appearances in the text and art of the Protodynastic Early Dynastic and Old Kingdom periods of the late fourth and third millennia BCE The roles of the goddess Bat are also explored where she is viewed both as an independent figure and in her specific connections to Hathor including the background to their shared bovine iconography Hollis provides evidence of the goddesses close ties with royalty and in the case of Neith her special connections to early queens Vital reading for all scholars of Egyptian religion and other ancient religions and mythology this volume brings to light the earliest origins of these goddesses who would go on to play major parts in later narratives myths and mortuary cult

The Scepter of Egypt William Christopher Hayes,1953 Seen Not Heard Ilona Zsolnay,2023-04-10 Traditionally writing a graphic multidimensional form of communication has been approached as a vehicle for representing and therefore conveying the spoken word Moving beyond this manner of analysis this volume interrogates writing as a medium that is not simply a handmaiden to oral and aural exchange but a communication system that is richly layered and experienced To exploit this aspect of visual code scholars from the fields of Egyptology Sinology Hittitology and Assyriology together with Mesoamericanists art historians and a sign language specialist are brought together in this volume In its pages these contributors incorporate into their analyses methods more commonly used in linguistics and semiotics communication studies art historical analysis and traditional philology to new ends in order to form original trajectories of inquiry Each contribution either lays bare explicit exploitation of visuality in scribal production as a means to cement power reveal the mystical induce humor or expose clandestine views or it locates implicit knowledge schemes and cultural maps underlying and informing these same productions The pioneering investigations presented in Seen Not Heard reveal that although writing may be heard the fact that it can also be seen affects its reception and therefore the meaning of any transported phonological units

Women in Ancient Egypt Gay Robins,1993 Gay Robins discusses the role of royal women queenship and its divine connotations and describes the exceptional women who broke the bounds of tradition by assuming real power

Back cover Grave Disturbances Edeltraud Aspöck,Alison Klevnäs,Nils

Müller-Scheeßel,2020-07-31 Archaeologists excavating burials often find that they are not the first to disturb the remains of the dead Graves from many periods frequently show signs that others have been digging and have moved or taken away parts of the original funerary assemblage Displaced bones and artefacts traces of pits and damage to tombs or coffins can all provide clues about post burial activities The last two decades have seen a rapid rise in interest in the study of post depositional practices in graves which has now developed into a new subfield within mortuary archaeology This follows a long tradition of neglect with disturbed graves previously regarded as interesting only to the degree they revealed evidence of the original funerary deposit This book explores past human interactions with mortuary deposits delving into the different ways graves and human remains were approached by people in the past and the reasons that led to such encounters The primary focus of the volume is on cases of unexpected interference with individual graves soon after burial re encounters with human remains not anticipated by those who performed the funerary rites and constructed the tombs However a first step is always to distinguish these from natural and accidental processes and methodological approaches are a major theme of discussion Interactions with the remains of the dead are explored in eleven chapters ranging from the New Kingdom of Egypt to Viking Age Norway and from Bronze Age Slovakia to the ancient Maya Each discusses cases of re entries into graves including desecration tomb re use destruction of grave contents as well as the removal of artefacts and human remains for reasons from material gain to commemoration symbolic appropriation ancestral rites political chicanery and retrieval of relics The introduction presents many of the methodological issues which recur throughout the contributions as this is a developing area with new approaches being applied to analyze post depositional processes in graves Illuminating Osiris

Ayad,2022-11-15 Cutting edge research by twenty four international scholars on female power agency health and literacy in ancient Egypt There has been considerable scholarship in the last fifty years on the role of ancient Egyptian women in society With their ability to work outside the home inherit and dispense of property initiate divorce testify in court and serve in local government Egyptian women exercised more legal rights and economic independence than their counterparts throughout antiquity Yet their agency and autonomy are often downplayed undermined or outright ignored In Women in Ancient Egypt twenty four international scholars offer a corrective to this view by presenting the latest cutting edge research on women and gender in ancient Egypt Covering the entirety of Egyptian history from earliest times to Late Antiquity this volume commences with a thorough study of the earliest written evidence of Egyptian women both royal and non royal before moving on to chapters that deal with various aspects of Egyptian queens followed by studies on the legal status and economic roles of non royal women and finally on women s health and body adornment Within this sweeping chronological range each study is intensely focused on the evidence recovered from a particular site or a specific time period Rather than following a strictly chronological arrangement the thematic organization of chapters enables readers to discern diachronic patterns of continuity and change within each group of women

Women, Gender and Identity in Third Intermediate Period Egypt Jean Li, 2017-01-06 Women Gender and Identity in Third Intermediate Period Egypt clarifies the role of women in Egyptian society during the first millennium BCE allowing for more nuanced discussions of women in the Third Intermediate Period It is an intensive study of a corpus that is both geographically and temporally localized around the city of Thebes which was the cultural and religious centre of Egypt during this period and home to a major national necropolis Unlike past studies which have relied heavily on literary evidence Li presents a refreshing material culture based analysis of identity construction in elite female burial practices This close examination of the archaeology of women s burial presents an opportunity to investigate the social professional and individual identities of women beyond the normative portrayals of the subordinate wife mother and daughter Taking a methodological and material culture based approach which adds new dimensions to scholarly and popular understandings of ancient Egyptian women this fascinating and important study will aid scholars of Egyptian history and archaeology and anyone with an interest in women and gender in the ancient world
