High Dam Over Nubia:

High Dam Over Nubia Leslie Greener, 1962 High Dam Over Nubia Leslie Greener, 1962 A Report on the Antiquities of Lower Nubia Arthur Edward Pearse Brome Weigall, 1907 Historical Dictionary of Ancient and Medieval Nubia Richard A. Lobban, 2003-12-09 The Historical Dictionary of Ancient and Medieval Nubia covers the period from the Paleolithic all the periods of ancient Nubia Predynastic Kerma Dynasty XXV Napatan Meroitic Post Meroitic and to the end of medieval Christianity in Nubia Sudan This resource focuses on Nubian history through a Nubian perspective rather than on the more common Egypto centrism perspective and the coverage is based on the latest and best archaeological and epigraphic evidence Newly created maps of the general area and its specific regions and place names and a photospread showing important related features of the region are included A detailed chronology provides a timeline of historical events and an introductory narrative shapes the overall history and leads to the main body of the work in the form of a cross referenced dictionary The descriptive entries cover the main features of the region in the various periods that are key not only to Nubian events but also to the important interactions they had with Egypt to the north Nine appendices and an extensive bibliography conclude this work Lobban has been teaching Nubian studies in undergraduate classrooms for thirty years and this book is a product of his hands on experiences as well as extensive anthropological fieldwork and travel in Sudanese and Egyptian Nubia Historical Dictionary of Medieval Christian Nubia Richard A. Lobban Jr., 2020-10-20 Medieval Christian Nubia is often a neglected period of medieval African history Because meaning is determined largely by context this work traces the Greco Roman Meroitic and Jewish precursors The regional historical and theological schisms within Christianity are also a highlight The dynamics of the three Nubian kingdoms of Nobatia Mukurra and Alwa are the centerpiece of this book that covers mural arts architecture and the names of the leading kings and bishops Another strength of the book is the analysis of the 700 year baqt peace treaty between Christian Nubia and Islamic Egypt this is considered to be the longest lasting treaty in diplomatic history The complex transition from Christianity to Islam in the 14th century is analyzed in great personal political and military detail Historical Dictionary of Medieval Christian Nubia contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross referenced entries on politics economy foreign relations religion and culture of the medieval Nubians This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Medieval Christian Nubia Studies on the History of Late Antique and Christian Nubia Laurence Kirwan, T. Hägg, D.A. Welsby, 2024-10-28 Gathered together here are the fruits of 60 years of research by the late Sir Laurence Kirwan into the history and archaeology of the mid 1st millennium AD in the Middle Nile Valley papers previously scattered through a wide range of publications Kirwan s fieldwork in the region undertaken between 1929 and 1936 kindled a life long interest in the transition from the pagan Kushite kingdom to the medieval Nubian states of Nobadia Makuria and Alodia Alwa and of their conversion to Christianity in the 6th century AD The

25 studies one published here for the first time were often of seminal importance when they first appeared the author being exemplary in his use of the written sources to elucidate the archaeological data As the preface by the editors shows the views expressed remain fundamental to modern scholarship offering valuable insights into this still relatively obscure period of transition from the ancient to the medieval world

White Supremacy, Settler Colonialism, Modernist Architecture, and Contemporary Preservation Robert Flahive, 2025-06-27 This book examines the afterlives of the built environment produced through early 20th century settler colonialism The author analyzes contemporary architectural preservationists narrative strategies to remake what were designed as racialized European zones in opposition to Indigenous zones as white cities through the documentation preservation and addition to the UNESCO World Heritage List This book interrogates the fashioning of white cities through ethnographic methods with local architectural preservationists and primary sources such as World Heritage Committee meeting notes and World Heritage List nomination files and inscription materials in the preservation of built form in Asmara Bras lia Casablanca Rabat and Tel Aviv The book is aimed at scholars and students interested in the politics of the built environment spatial politics urban studies architectural history international relations urban geopolitics settler colonialism international organizations and the politics of commemoration

Nubian Ceremonial Life John G. Kennedy, 2005 Reveals and discusses some of the important and distinctive aspects of Nubian culture This study contains discussions on the psychology of death ceremonies the nature of taboo and the importance of trance curing ceremonies

Ancient Nubia Marjorie M. Fisher, Peter Lacovara, Salima Ikram, Sue D'Auria, 2012-09-06 A lushly illustrated gazetteer of the archaeological sites of southern Egypt and northern Sudan and named a 2012 American Publishers PROSE Awards winner for Best Archaeology Anthropology Book For most of the modern world ancient Nubia seems an unknown and enigmatic land Only a handful of archaeologists have studied its history or unearthed the Nubian cities temples and cemeteries that once dotted the landscape of southern Egypt and northern Sudan Nubia s remote setting in the midst of an inhospitable desert with access by river blocked by impassable rapids has lent it not only an air of mystery but also isolated it from exploration Over the past century particularly during this last generation scholars have begun to focus more attention on the fascinating cultures of ancient Nubia ironically prompted by the construction of large dams that have flooded vast tracts of the ancient land This book attempts to document some of what has recently been discovered about ancient Nubia with its remarkable history architecture and culture and thereby to give us a picture of this rich but unfamiliar African legacy

Handbook of Ancient Nubia Dietrich Raue, 2019-06-04 Numerous research projects have studied the Nubian cultures of Sudan and Egypt over the last thirty years leading to significant new insights The contributions to this handbook illuminate our current understanding of the cultural history of this fascinating region including its interconnections to the natural world

Nubians and the Nubian Language in Contemporary Egypt Aleya Rouchdy, 2017-07-31 The displacement of the Egyptian Nubians from their ancient lands and their resettlement deeper in the land of Egypt in 1964 had an impact on

Nubian culture and the Nubian language Contemporary Egyptian Nubian consists of two dialects Fadicca and Matoki After the resettlement of Nubians the interactions between speakers of the two Nubian dialects and speakers of Arabic increased Nubian an East Sudanic language came into contact with a dominant Semitic language Arabic How has this increased contact affected the Nubian language in Egypt The aim of this work is to examine from the perspective of a language contact situation the impact of the resettlement on the future of the Nubian language The comparative data on the Nubian situation will add an important contribution to our fund of knowledge on processes of language contact This is the first sociolinguistic study of the Nubian language from such a perspective Life and Death on the Nile George J. Armelagos, Dennis P. Van Gerven, 2017-09-20 George J Armelagos spent thirty years at various sites in Sudan searching for ancient Nubian civilizations that gave rise to what we now know as the upper Nile civilizations Most of these sites are now underwater due to being inundated when the Aswan Dam was built on the Upper Nile and flooded the ancient cities of Wadi Halfa and Kulubnarti While hundreds of articles have been written about the research at these sites this monograph where Armelagos invited his former student Dennis Van Gerven to collaborate with him represents the first attempt to explore all of the biocultural relationships between the villages the people and the region Labib Habachi Jill Kamil, 2007 Labib Habachi Egypt's most perceptive and productive Egyptologist was marginalized for most of his career This title presents not only a biography of this important scholar but also a survey of Egyptian archaeology in the twentieth century in which Habachi's work is measured against that of his best known contemporaries Nubian Encounters Nicholas S. Hopkins, Sohair R. Mehanna, 2010-11-01 In the 1960s the construction of the Aswan High Dam occasioned the forced displacement of a large part of the Nubian population Beginning in 1960 anthropologists at the American University in Cairo's Social Research Center undertook a survey of the Nubians to be moved and those already outside their historic homeland The goal was to record and analyze Nubian culture and social organization to create a record for the future and to preserve a body of information on which scholars and officials could draw This book chronicles the research carried out by an international team with the cooperation of many Nubians Gathered into one volume for the first time are reprinted articles that provide a valuable resource of research data on the Nubian project as well as photographs taken during the field study that document ways of life that have long since disappeared The State of Cultural Citizenship for Egyptian Minorities, 2023-03-02 This report argues for the need to reframe the concept of citizenship as expressed by the Egyptian Constitution and state institutions The existing official narrative champions a single cultural identity In contrast the report issues an urgent call for the recognition and equal protection of the cultural rights of all the different religious ethnic and linguistic communities making up Egyptian society The report considers the situations of religious minorities in Egypt such as Christians across different denominations Muslims Shi'a Ahmadis and Qur'anis Jews Bah's and atheists Furthermore it includes an assessment of the cultural rights of ethnic minorities such as Nubians Amazigh and Sinai Bedouins Chapter One deals with the question of cultural citizenship as it is enshrined in the Egyptian Constitution and reflects on a number of shortcomings in terms of a lack of inclusivity in the definitions of citizenship to include cultural citizenship particularly in terms of the cultural rights of religious and ethnic minorities In Chapter Two the authors argue that ethnic minorities are often misrepresented as a threat to nationalist notions of Egypt as a single and homogenous society This reinforces their marginalisation from participation in political and public life leading to serious threats to the security of minority activists The securitisation of minority cultures can be seen in the treatment of linguistic rights for Egyptian Nubians and Copts as well as the gaps in the Egyptian school curriculum regarding their culture and history The chapter then goes on to discuss the cultural rights for Amazighs in Siwa with a focus on the status of Amazigh women Chapter Three deals with the subject of minority rights in relation to cultural heritage and business Business and tourism development along the Nile is discussed in terms of the negative impact of hydroelectric dams reservoirs and tourism on Nubian villages and the cultural rights of Nubians The chapter then discusses the case study of the destruction of the remains of the historic Coptic Abu Daraj Monastery near the Red Sea Chapter Four covers the issue of the prosecution of religious beliefs and violations of freedom of expression among Christians Atheists Shi'a Muslims Ahmadis and Qur'anists particularly with regards to current legislation Chapter Five touches on the issue of hate speech against minorities with regards to domestic legal framework including the Penal Code and hate speech in Egyptian public life more broadly An extensive list of recommendations to the Egyptian government is included in this report which includes Amendment of the 2014 Constitution to recognize the rights of persons belonging to minorities expanding the recognition of cultural rights and protecting their identity and heritage Urging the Egyptian authorities to adopt a constitutional article that recognizes the right of linguistic minorities to learn their own languages and to have them included in educational curricula at different educational levels and taught in their own schools Recognize the right of members of linguistic minorities to carry out their own educational activities to teach their own languages This resource is an excellent point of reference for lawyers activists campaigners and community leaders seeking to advance cultural citizenship and cultural rights in Egypt

Wonderful Things: A History of Egyptology, Volume 3 Jason Thompson, 2018-10-16 The discovery of ancient Egypt and the development of Egyptology are momentous events in intellectual and cultural history The history of Egyptology is the story of the people famous and obscure who constructed the picture of ancient Egypt that we have today recovered the Egyptian past while inventing it anew and made a lost civilization comprehensible to generations of enchanted readers and viewers thousands of years later This the third of a three volume history of Egyptology follows the progress of the discipline from the trauma of the First World War through the vicissitudes of the twentieth century and into Egyptology's new horizons at the beginning of the twenty first century Wonderful Things affirms that the history of ancient Egypt has proved continually fascinating but it also demonstrates that the history of Egyptology is no less so Only by understanding how Egyptology has developed can we truly understand the Egyptian past British Egyptian Relations Noel

Brehony, Ayman Ahmed El-Desouky, 2012-08-01 This account of the first major forum to review relations between Britain and Egypt held in London in 2006 demonstrates how political economic and cultural interaction between the countries has developed since the Suez invasion of 1956 In addition to providing a historical assessment it suggests ways forward in both bilateral and international contexts Egyptian and British contributors include government ministers and specialists in history economics Egyptology business education culture and international affairs Contributors include Roger Owen Hugh Roberts Mustapha Kamel al Sayyid Heba Handoussa Fekri Hassan Yousry Nasrallah and Penelope Lively Papa Sartre Diane Singerman, Paul Amar, 2009 After a failed study mission in France Abd al Rahman returns home to Iraq to launch an existentialist movement akin to that of his hero Convinced that it falls upon him to introduce his country's intellectuals to Sartre's thought he feels especially qualified by his physical resemblance to the philosopher except for the crossed eyes and by his marriage to Germaine who he claims is the great man's cousin Meanwhile his wealth and family prestige guarantee him an idle life spent in drinking debauchery and frequenting a well known nightclub But is his suicide an act of philosophical despair or a reaction to his friend's affair with Germaine A biographer chosen by his presumed friends narrates the story of a somewhat bewildered young man who like other members of his generation was searching for a meaning to his life This parody of the abuses and extravagances of pseudo philosophers in the Baghdad of the sixties throws into relief the Iraqi intellectual and cultural life of the time and the reversal of fortune of some of Iraq's wealthy and powerful families

Publisher description Postcolonial Literatures of Climate Change, 2022-07-04 Postcolonial Literatures of Climate Change investigates the evolving nature of postcolonial literary criticism in response to global regional and local environmental transformations brought about by climate change It builds upon and extends previous studies in postcolonial ecocriticism to demonstrate how the growing awareness of human caused global warming has begun to permeate literary consciousness praxis and analysis The breadth of the volume's coverage the diversity of its focal locations cultures genres and texts serves as a salient reminder that while climate change is global its impacts vary affecting peoples from place to place unequally and often in accordance with their particular historical experience of colonialism and neo colonialism as well as their ongoing marginalisations Demonstrating the urgency of invoking novel epistemological approaches combining the scientific and the imaginative this book is a must read for those concerned about the present and potential impacts of climate change on formerly colonised areas of the world The comprehensive and illuminating Introduction offers a crucial history and current state of postcolonial ecocriticism as it has been and is addressing climate crises Helen Tiffin University of Wollongong The broad focus on the polar regions the Pacific and the Caribbean with added essays on environmental justice activism in India and Egypt opens up rich terrain for examination under the rubric of postcolonial and ecocritical analysis not only expanding recent studies in this field but also enabling new comparisons and conceptual linkages Helen Gilbert Royal Holloway University of London The subject is topical and vital and will become even more so as the problem of how to reconcile the demands of climate change with the effects on regions and individual nations already damaged by the economic effects of colonisation and the subsequent inequalities resulting from neo colonialism continues to grow Gareth Griffiths Em Prof University of Western Australia Voices from Nubia Amal Mazhar,Faten I. Morsy,Mona M. Radwan,2024-08-01 The Nubians the largest ethnic community in Egypt saw their ancestral homelands disappear beneath the waters of the Nile from the dawn of the 20th century through to 1964 The massive displacement of this population has been the subject of numerous literary works by Nubian writers who seek to save their heritage from oblivion and to preserve their Nubian collective memory Despite the renewal of socio political interest in Nubia in post 2011 Egypt the authors of Voices from Nubia all non Nubian Egyptians claim that art in general and literature in particular remain the domain in which the problematics of what has been called the Nubian Question can be primarily vocalized Only through a thorough reading and analysis of the literary output of Egyptian Nubians can the complexities of Nubia its people and culture can find full expression The rich literary heritage of contemporary Nubian literature allows for a multiplicity of critiques that makes possible a reading of this literature that crosses the borderlines between literature history geography politics gender and ethnicity The diversity of themes and tropes in Voices from Nubia reflects a hallmark of Nubian literary output which is generally marked by a common feeling of solidarity around the Nubian cause The array of critical studies included in the volume s eight chapters covers a multiplicity of approaches cultural postcolonial ecofeminist and critical race theory Voices from Nubia constitutes an attempt to go beyond the dichotomy between the activist Nubian writer who views the Nubian Question as a human rights issue and Arab Egyptian nationalists who consider the discussion of Nubians as a distinct ethnic group or minority a threat to societal cohesion and national security The editors conclude the book with interviews with three Egyptian Nubian writers belonging to different generations and expressing different positions with regards to the Nubian Question It is thus hoped that this book will introduce the English speaking reader to the rich tradition of contemporary Nubian literature from Egypt written in Arabic On the other hand the book also forces the Egyptian Arab reader to question some of the most cherished assumptions and ingrained ideas about the nature of culture history and identity As such Voices from Nubia has far reaching implications for how we think about the diverse nature of our societies and nations
