Highcastle Stanislaw Lem, 2020-02-18 A playful witty reflective memoir of childhood by the science fiction master Stanislaw Lem With Highcastle Stanislaw Lem offers a memoir of his childhood and youth in prewar Lvov Reflective artful witty playful I was a monster he observes ruefully this lively and charming book describes a youth spent reading voraciously he was especially interested in medical texts and French novels smashing toys eating pastries and being terrorized by insects Often lonely the young Lem believed that he could communicate with household objects perhaps anticipating the sentient machines in the adult Lem's novels Lem reveals his younger self to be a dreamer driven by an unbridled imagination and boundless curiosity In the course of his reminiscing Lem also ponders the nature of memory innocence and the imagination Highcastle the title refers to a nearby ruin offers the portrait of a writer in his formative years

The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel, 2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by a leading scholar the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context a listing of some 700 authors by country and an A to Z section of articles on the most influential writers

Hospital of the Transfiguration Stanislaw Lem, 2020-02-18 An early realist novel by Stanislaw Lem taking place in a Polish psychiatric hospital during World War II Taking place within the confines of a psychiatric hospital Stanislaw Lem's The Hospital of the Transfiguration tells the story of a young doctor working in a Polish asylum during World War II At first the asylum seems like a bucolic refuge but a series of sinister encounters and incidents reveal an underlying brutality The doctor begins to seek relief in the strange conversation of the poet Sekulowski who is posing as a patient in a bid for safety from the occupying German forces Meanwhile Resistance fighters stockpile weapons in the surrounding woods A very early work by Lem The Hospital of the Transfiguration is partly autobiographical drawing on the author's experiences as a medical student Written in 1948 it was suppressed by Polish censors and not published until 1955 The censorship of this realist novel is partly what led Lem to focus on science fiction and nonfiction for the rest of his career

Suicide and Contemporary Science Fiction Carlos Guti rrez-Jones, 2015-03-16 Suicide and Contemporary Science Fiction examines the fascination with suicidal crises evident in a range of science fiction Carlos Guti rrez Jones argues that the theme of creative self destruction is invoked by H G Wells as a means of negotiating Victorian anxieties regarding evolutionary theory by Stanislaw Lem as he wrestles with the prospect of nuclear self destruction at the dawn of the space age by William Gibson as he considers the development of artificial intelligence by Christopher Nolan as he explores the cybernetic colonization of the unconscious by Rian Johnson as he links aspects of video gaming to the neoliberal militarization of institutions and by Margaret Atwood as she considers impending ecological disaster and the rise of bioterrorism These authors often depict such scientific and technological changes in a fashion that requires the central characters to transform themselves in hopes of remaining relevant in a radically altered environment

Fictioning Namibia as a Space of Desire Renzo Baas, 2019-03-28 Modern day Namibian history has largely been shaped by three major eras German colonial rule South African apartheid occupation and the Liberation Struggle It was however not only military conquest that laid the cornerstone for the colony but also how the colony was imagined the dream of this colony As a tool of discursive worldmaking literature has played a major role in providing a framework in which to dream Namibia first from outside its borders and then from within In Fictioning Namibia as a Space of Desire Renzo Baas employs Henri Lefebvre's city countryside dialectic and reworks it in order to uncover how fictional texts played an integral part in the violent acquisition of a foreign territory Through the production of myths around whiteness German and South African authors designed a literary space in which control destruction and the dehumanisation of African peoples are understood as a natural order one that is dictated by history and its linear continuation These European texts are offset by Namibia's first novel by an African offering a counter narrative to the colonial invention that was German South West Africa

Europeanisation as violence Kolar Aparna, Daria Krivonos, Elisa Pascucci, 2025-01-21 The book offers a novel lens to situate Europeanisation as violence through institutions and technologies of development cultural heritage and borders among others by bringing South and East within a relational frame Through four inter related sections it foregrounds Europeanisation as infrastructural violence and colonial asymmetries slow violence and the construction of stratified subalternities epistemic dispossession and border epistemologies

Memoirs of a Space Traveler Stanislaw Lem, 2020-02-18 Meet Ijon Tichy a space age adventurer who encounters faulty time machines intelligent washing machines and other puzzling phenomena in this collection from a science fiction legend Memoirs of a Space Traveler follows the adventures of Ijon Tichy a Gulliver of the space age who leads readers through strange experiments involving among other puzzling phenomena faulty time machines intelligent washing machines and suicidal potatoes The scientists Tichy encounters make plans that are grandiose and strike bargains that are Faustian They pursue humanity's greatest and most ancient obsessions immortality artificial intelligence and top of the line consumer items By turns satirical philosophical and absurd these stories express the most starkly original and prescient notions of a master of speculative fiction

Crossing Central Europe Helga Mitterbauer, Carrie Smith, 2017-10-31 Crossing Central Europe is a pioneering volume that focuses on the complex networks of transcultural interrelations in Central Europe from 1900 to 2000 Scholars from Canada the United States and Europe identify the motifs topics and ways of artistic creation that define this cross cultural region This interdisciplinary volume is divided into two historical periods and includes analyses of literature film music architecture and media By focusing first on the interrelations in the nineteenth and early twentieth century the contributors reveal a complex trans ethnic network at play that disseminated aesthetic ideals This network continued to be a force of aesthetic influence leading into the twenty first century despite globalization and the influence of mass media Helga Mitterbauer and Carrie Smith Prei have embarked on a study of the overlapping artistic influences that have outlasted both the National Socialist regime and the Cold War      Stanislaw Lem Peter Swirski,2015 Stanislaw Lem Philosopher of the Future brings a welter of unknown elements of Lem s life career and literary legacy to light in order to mete out cognitive justice to the writer who preferred to be known as the philosopher of the future      The New York Public Library Literature Companion Staff of The New York Public Library,2001-11-06 Pick up The New York Public Library Literature Companion to check the dates of Marcel Proust s Remembrance of Things Past or to find out how James Joyce s Ulysses changed U S obscenity laws and you may find yourself hours later absorbed in the imaginary worlds of Camelot and The Matrix or sidetracked by the fascinating history of The New Yorker Designed to satisfy the curious browser as well as the serious researcher this exciting new resource offers the most up to date information on literature available in English from around the world from the invention of writing to the age of the computer Interwoven throughout the more than 2 500 succinct and insightful entries on Creators Works of Literature and Literary Facts and Resources are the fascinating facts and quirky biographical details that make literature come alive Readers will discover for instance that Walt Whitman was fired from his government job after his personal copy of Leaves of Grass was discovered in his desk by the Secretary of the Interior who was scandalized by it that James Baldwin remembered listening to blues singer Bessie Smith playing her till I fell asleep when he was writing his first book and that a publisher turned down the serialization rights to Gone with the Wind saying Who needs the Civil War now who cares Looking for information about book burning or how many Nobel laureates have come from Japan You ll find it here Trying to remember the name of that movie based on a favorite book Read the Variations section you ll be amazed at the pervasive presence of great literature in today s entertainment From Aristophanes to Allende from Bergson to Bloom the biographical entries will inform readers about the men and women who have shaped and are shaping the literary world Look into Works of Literature to discover the significance of Beowulf The Fountainhead Doctor Zhivago and nearly 1 000 other titles Check the Dictionary of Literature to find out what the critics and theorists are talking about And if you wish to delve even deeper Websites for Literature and Literary Factbooks and Handbooks are just two of the bibliographies that will point readers in the right direction Unique in scope and design and easy to use The New York Public Library Literature Companion will be at home on every reader s shelf Whether you are immersed in Stephen King or King Lear this book has the insights facts and fascinating stories that will enrich your reading forever With four major research centers and 85 branch libraries The New York Public Library is internationally recognized as one of the greatest institutions of its kind Founded in 1895 the library now holds more than 50 million items including several world renowned collections of literary manuscripts and rare books Among the books published from the library in recent years are The New York Public Library Desk Reference 1998 The Hand of the Poet 1997 Letters of Transit Reflections on Exile Identity Language and Loss 1999 A Secret Location on the Lower

The Palgrave Handbook of Holocaust Literature and Culture Victoria Aarons, Phyllis Lassner, 2020-01-24 The Palgrave Handbook of Holocaust Literature and Culture reflects current approaches to Holocaust literature that open up future thinking on Holocaust representation The chapters consider diverse generational perspectives survivor writing second and third generation and genres memoirs poetry novels graphic narratives films video testimonies and other forms of literary and cultural expression In turn these perspectives create interactions among generations genres temporalities and cultural contexts The volume also participates in the ongoing project of responding to and talking through moments of rupture and incompleteness that represent an opportunity to contribute to the making of meaning through the continuation of narratives of the past As such the chapters in this volume pose options for reading Holocaust texts offering openings for further discussion and exploration The inquiring body of interpretive scholarship responding to the Shoah becomes itself a story a narrative that materially extends our inquiry into that history

The Invincible Stanislaw Lem, 2020-02-18 A space cruiser encounters beings descended from self replicating machines in this sci fi classic with echoes of H G Wells and Jules Verne A giant of mid 20th century science fiction in a league with Arthur C Clarke Isaac Asimov and

Philip K Dick The New York Times Stanis aw Lem s The Invincible tells the story of a space cruiser sent to an obscure planet to determine the fate of a sister spaceship whose communication with Earth has abruptly ceased Landing on the planet Regis III navigator Rohan and his crew discover a form of life that has apparently evolved from autonomous self replicating machines perhaps the survivors of a robot war Rohan and his men are forced to confront the classic quandary what course of action can humanity take once it has reached the limits of its knowledge Lem has his characters confront the inexplicable and the bizarre the problem that lies just beyond analytical reach

Return from the Stars Stanislaw Lem,2020-02-18 An astronaut returns to Earth after a 10 year mission and finds a society that he barely recognizes in science fiction novel by the Solaris author whose works make our weary universe seem pale and undistinguished by comparison The Washington Post Stanis aw Lem s Return from the Stars recounts the experiences of Hal Bregg an astronaut who returns from an exploratory mission that lasted ten years although because of time dilation 127 years have passed on Earth Bregg finds a society that he hardly recognizes in which danger has been eradicated Children are betrizated to remove all aggression and violence a process that also removes all impulse to take risks and explore The people of Earth view Bregg and his crew as resuscitated Neanderthals and pressure them to undergo betrization Bregg has serious difficulty in navigating the new social mores While Lem s depiction of a risk free society is bleak he does not portray Bregg and his fellow astronauts as heroes Indeed faced with no opposition to his aggression Bregg behaves abominably He is faced with a choice leave Earth again and hope to return to a different society in several hundred years or stay on Earth and learn to be content With Return from the Stars Lem shows the shifting boundaries between utopia and dystopia

The Cyberiad Stanislaw Lem,2002 Trurl and Klaupacius are constructor robots who try to out invent each other They travel to the far corners of the cosmos to take on freelance problem solving jobs with dire consequences for their employers The most completely successful of his books here Lem comes closest to inventing a real universe Boston Globe Translated by Michael Kandel

Critical Survey of Long Fiction: Oscar Hijuelos-Patrick McGinley ,2000 Holocaust and the Stars Agnieszka Gajewska,2021-11-29 This book is a groundbreaking study of one of the greatest science fiction writers the Polish master Stanis aw Lem It offers a new direction in research on his oeuvre and corrects several errors commonly appearing in his biographies The author painstakingly recreates the context of Lem s early life and his traumatic experiences during the Second World War due to his Jewish background and then traces these through original and brilliant readings of his fiction and non fiction She considers language worldbuilding themes motifs and characterization as well as many buried allusions to the Holocaust in Lem s published and archival work and uses these fragments to capture a different side of Lem than previously known The book discusses various issues concerning the writer s life such as his upbringing in a Jewish Zionist minded family the extensive relations between the Lem family and the elite of Lviv at that time details of the Lem family killed during the German occupation and attempts to reconstruct what happened to Lem s parents and to the writer himself after escaping the ghetto

Part of the Studies in Global Genre Fiction series this English translation of the Polish original which has already been considered a milestone in Lem studies offers a fresh perspective on the writer and his work It will be an important intervention for scholars and researchers of Jewish studies Holocaust literature science fiction studies English literature world war studies minority studies popular culture history and cultural studies
