Hierbas Buenas Anthony DeStefano, 2001. En un tiempo en que la medicina alternativa resulta ser una opción viable para combatir distintas enfermedades del mundo moderno y considerando que la medicina tradicional en ciertos casos no entrega la cura sino más bien intoxica nuestro organismo con productos químicos, este libro presenta un panorama general de la medicina propia del folclor de América Latina en la que los remedios naturales están muy presentes. En esta obra se describen los productos que se pueden obtener a partir de las plantas medicinales y los remedios que tienen como base las diversas hierbas naturales que abundan en los campos latinoamericanos. Además en el libro se incluyen los nombres de las plantas y sus características, los usos tradicionales, las dosis que deben utilizarse y también advierte sobre los posibles efectos secundarios.

Libre Acceso Susan Antebi, Beth E. Jørgensen, 2015-12-02. Libre Acceso stages an innovative encounter between disciplines that have remained quite separate: Latin American literary film and cultural studies and disability studies. It offers a much needed framework to engage the representation, construction, embodiment and contestation of human differences and provides tools for the urgent resignification of a robust and diverse Latin American literary and filmic tradition. The contributors discuss such topics as impairment, trauma, illness and the body, performance, queer theory, subaltern studies and human rights while analyzing literature and film from Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Cuba, Mexico and Peru. They explore these issues through the work of canonical figures: Jorge Luis Borges, Gabriel García Márquez, João Guimarães Rosa and others, as well as less well known figures including Mario Bellatin and Miriam Alves.
