Two towns have streets called Chicken Alley for the Portuguese families who raised chickens there, while native beach plums are used to create a delicious jelly that can be found across the island. Restaurants like Giordano's and the ArtCliff Diner have been in business for more than fifty years and are still putting out great dishes. Learn the back story of the island's first and only commercial vineyard. From codfish soufflé to espírito santo soup, local authors Tom and Joyce Dresser share the ingredients, recipes, and images of this flavorful island.
