the writer and the man he was to his father Sydney a conservative anarchist and admirer of Hitler who died relatively early in Larkin's life to his timid depressive mother Eva who by contrast lived long and whose final years were shadowed by dementia and to his sister Kitty the sparse surviving fragment of whose correspondence with her brother gives an enigmatic glimpse of a complex and intimate relationship But it was the years during which he and his sister looked after their mother in particular that shaped the writer we know so well a number of poems written over this time are for her and the mood of pain shadow and despondency that characterises his later verse draws its strength from his experience of the long lonely years of her senility One surprising element in the volume however is the joie de vivre shown in the large number of witty and engaging drawings of himself and Eva as Young Creature and Old Creature with which he enlivens his letters throughout the three decades of her widowhood This important edition meticulously edited by Larkin's biographer James Booth is a key piece of scholarship that completes the portrait of this most cherished of English poets Seven Eggs Today Jackson
