Finite Perfection Reflections On Virtue:

Finite Perfection Michael A. Weinstein,1985 Michael A. Weinstein Robert L. Oprisko,Diane Rubenstein,2014-12-05

This book is a major reassessment of Michael Weinstein's political philosophy. It situates his singular contribution designated as critical vitalism in the context of both canonical American and contemporary continental theory. Weinstein is presented as a philosopher of life and as an American Nietzsche. Yet the contributors also persuasively argue for this form of thinking as a prescient prophecy addressing contemporary society's concern over the management of life as well as the technological changes that both threaten and sustain intimacy. This is the first full scale study of Weinstein's work which reveals surprising aspects of a philosophic journey that has encompassed most of the major American pragmatic or vitalist or Continental phenomenological or existential traditions. Weinstein is read as a comparative political theorist, a precursor to post structuralism and as a post colonial border theorist. A different aspect of his oeuvre is highlighted in each of the book's three sections. The opening essays comprising the Action diptych contrasts meditative versus extrapolative approaches. Contemplation stages a series of encounters between Weinstein and his philosophic interlocutors. Vitalism presents Weinstein as a teacher, media analyst, musician and performance artist. The book contains an epilogue written by Weinstein in response to the contributors.

Honor: A Phenomenology Robert L. Oprisko,2012-07-26 Honor is misunderstood in the social sciences. The literature lacks both accuracy and precision in its conceptual development such that we no longer say what we mean because we have no idea what we're saying. We use many terms to mean honor and mean many different ideas when we refer to honor. Honor: A Phenomenology is designed to fix all of these problems. A ground breaking examination of honor as a metaphenomenon, this book incorporates various structures of social control including prestige, face, shame and affiliated honor and the rejection of said structures by dignified individuals and groups. It shows honor to be a concept that encompasses a number of processes that operate together in order to structure society. Honor is how we are inscribed with social value by others and the means by which we inscribe others with social honor. Because it is the means by which individuals fit in and function with society, the main divisions internal within the psyche of the individual and external within the norms and institutions of society, Honor is the glue that holds groups together and the wedge that forces them apart. It defines who is us and who them. It accounts for the continuity and change in socio-political systems.

Putting On Virtue Jennifer A. Herdt,2012-05-09 This work reveals how a distrust of learned and habituated virtue shaped both early modern Christian moral reflection and secular forms of ethical thought. The author's broad historical sweep takes in the Aristotelian tradition as taken up by Thomas Aquinas and has chapters on Luther, Bunyan, the Jansenists, Hume and others.

Corporal Compassion Ralph R. Acampora,2019-11-21 Most approaches to animal ethics ground the moral standing of nonhumans in some appeal to their capacities for intelligent autonomy or mental sentience. Corporal Compassion emphasizes the phenomenal and somatic commonality of living beings, a philosophy of body that seeks to displace any notion of anthropomorphic empathy in viewing the moral experiences of nonhuman living beings Ralph R Acampora employs phenomenology hermeneutics existentialism and deconstruction to connect and contest analytic treatments of animal rights and liberation theory In doing so he focuses on issues of being and value and posits a felt nexus of bodily being termed symphysis to devise an interspecies ethos Acampora uses this broad based bioethic to engage in dialogue with other strains of environmental ethics and ecophilosophy Corporal Compassion examines the practical applications of the somatic ethos in contexts such as laboratory experimentation and zoological exhibition and challenges practitioners to move past recent reforms and look to a future beyond exploitation or total noninterference a posthumanist culture that advocates caring in a participatory approach
