It's All in the Head Majella O'Donnell, 2014-10-09 In September 2013 on the Late Late Show in front of an audience of more than half a million Majella O'Donnell had her hair shaved off and raised a phenomenal 600 000 euros for the Irish Cancer Society It was a public declaration from a private woman a statement of enormous courage in her fight against breast cancer In this searingly moving and empowering memoir Majella takes the reader on a journey through her life to that point It begins with her childhood in the 1960s growing up in a small town in Ireland her early love of music and dreams of a future full of hope and excitement only to be dashed by a broken marriage and an uphill battle with depression Her confidence and self esteem at a low ebb Majella decided to take charge of her own life and make a fresh start Then destiny lent a hand when she met Daniel O'Donnell and their marriage in 2002 brought her immense happiness and fulfilment It was a decade or so later that tragedy struck with the diagnosis of breast cancer This is the compelling story of a woman made extraordinary by the courage with which she faced her greatest challenge A woman who has learned about life the hard way but who with the love and support of her family and her husband Daniel and the public by her side has come through with a force of character and a deep seated determination that will inspire us all

Metaphors of ANGER across Languages: Universality and Variation Zoltan Kövecses, Réka Benczes, Veronika Széldi, 2024-11-04 Anger is one of the basic emotions of human emotional experience informing and guiding many of our choices and actions Although it has received considerable scholarly attention in a number of disciplines including linguistics a basic question has still remained unresolved why do variations in the folk model of anger exist across languages if it is indeed a basic emotion rooted in largely universal bodily experience By drawing on a wide selection of comparable linguistic data from dozens of languages including a number of less researched languages this volume provides the most comprehensive account of what is universal and what is variable in the folk model of anger and why It also investigates the role that metonymies might play in the emergence of anger related metaphors and in what ways context influences or shapes anger metaphors and thereby the resulting folk model of anger No such volume exists in the cognitive linguistic literature on anger or on emotions for that matter The book is thus an essential contribution to the study of anger and will serve as basic reading for any researcher interested in how the conceptualization of anger is constructed via the interplay of bodily experience language and the larger cultural context

Jung, 2022-05-29 For Jung the beautiful and brilliantly creative 28 year old Christiana Morgan was an inspired force whose path in self analysis paralleled his own quest for personal knowledge By teaching Morgan the trance like technique of active imagination Jung helped her embark on a series of archetypal adventures which she depicted in paintings of great virtuosity and he candidly recounted at a seminar given to some of his closest followers Through his eloquent description of the fiery mythic visions of a woman discovering her repressed sexuality and feminine power Jung reveals how deeply this encounter challenged his understanding of feminine psychology These two volumes bring together for the first time colour reproductions of Morgan s paintings with a complete transcript of the seminar
