Angelo Mirabella,1998 This research was conducted as a pilot effort in preparation for anticipated future research applications of the self assessment based mini AAR SAMAAR approach The approach combines the Army s Socratic based after action review with the Delphi technique Delphi elicits independent judgments from experts before bringing them together to solve problems as a group In the SAMAAR approach trainees at the end of an exercise day or shift fill out rating forms to assess the units training progress and then convine with their completed forms to participate in a mini AAR The mini AAR is preliminary training review carried out by small groups prior to an end of exercise after action review SAMAAR was developmentally applied to Division Artillery Staff training at Fort Hood The approach was judged by training participants to be a feasible and timely way to support training feedback DTIC Hill 119 Michael O. Fallon,2025-08-15 You cannot read Fallon s book without gaining tremendous respect for those Marines who fought with courage and skill and served honorably where their country asked them to I strongly recommend Hill 119 for those who wish to gain additional insight into the Vietnam war and how it was fought W E Boomer General U S Marine Corps Ret The Marines and Corpsmen of Delta Company 1st Reconnaissance Battalion 1st Marine Division were surrounded by the North Vietnamese Army NVA for six hundred days in 1969 and 1970 during the Vietnam War Hill 119 is a rise on a finger of land Located twenty eight kilometers south of Da Nang that overlooks the Thu Bon River Basin and Go Noi Island The hill provided Marines with an excellent 360 degree view of the region that was known as Indian Country and so it was occupied as an Observation Post Its original mission was to support Operation Taylor Common Task Force Yankee s push west into Gen Binh s Base Area 112 The Observation Post produced immediate results with supporting arms inflicting casualties on the NVA Based on its immediate and enduring success as a tactical obstacle for the NVA the OP became a key piece in the defense of the Da Nang Vital Area The Marines called supporting arms every day and every night They rained fire down on the North Vietnamese Army NVA and killed over a thousand enemy fighters They posed such a threat that Gen Binh assigned his elite T89 Sapper Battalion to eliminate the Recon Marines on Hill 119 Throughout this period as part of a six man team each Recon Marine would run multiple adrenaline filled patrols deep into enemy territory in small teams for six weeks and then serve for two weeks on the OP Despite its danger the Marines considered OP duty as a relaxing break This first full account of Hill 119 written by historian Michael Fallon who served as reconnaissance patrol leader on Hill 119 is based upon firsthand accounts from the Recon Marines carefully cross referenced with patrol reports and command chronologies It covers the Marines experiences in the bush on the hill and in the rear The role of new battalion commanders with their changing tactics is discussed the six officers impacted the battalion with their personalities as well as their planning and execution of the changing missions with the always changing enemy situation from classic Keyhole snoop and poop patrols to aggressive Stingray patrols designed to inflict casualties Audiovisual Catalog United States.
