Kindness Cup A:

A Kindness Cup Thea Astley, 2018-04-30 I told them to go into the scrub and disperse the tribe Disperse That is a strange word What do you mean by dispersing Firing at them Two decades after a massacre of local Aboriginal people the former residents of a Queensland town have reunited to celebrate the progress and prosperity of their community Tom Dorahy returning to his hometown is having none of it he wants those responsible to own up to their actions A reckoning with oppression guilt and the weight of the past A Kindness Cup is one of Thea Astley's greatest achievements Thea Astley was born in Brisbane in 1925 Her first novel Girl with a Monkey was published in 1958 and her third The Well Dressed Explorer 1962 won the Miles Franklin Literary Award Many notable books followed among them the groundbreaking A Kindness Cup 1974 which addressed frontier massacres of Indigenous Australians and It's Raining in Mango 1987 Her last novel was Drylands 1999 her fourth Miles Franklin winner Her fiction is distinguished by vivid imagery and metaphor a complex ironic style and a desire to highlight oppression and social injustice One of the most distinctive and influential Australian novelists of the twentieth century Astley died in 2004 Smart compassionate New York Times One of the earliest and most empathetic postwar engagements by a white Australian writer with the horrors of nineteenth century racial violence Australian Book Review This timely and attractively priced reissue is a welcome chance to reconsider Astley's rich oeuvre Astley's work is characterised by her irony and unflinching scrutiny of social injustice In A Kindness Cup she was at the top of her impressive form This short novel is one of Australia's finest Stuff NZ

A Kindness Cup Thea Astley, 1977 Rewriting God Elaine Lindsay, 2021-11-22 Women are rarely if ever mentioned in commentaries upon Australian Christianity and spirituality Only exceptional women are recognized as authorities on religious matters Why is this so Does it matter Don't people from the same religious tradition share similar experiences of the divine regardless of their gender Rewriting God asks whether women have been writing about the divine and whether their insights are different from those contained in mainstream accounts of Australian Christianity and spirituality An analysis of the writings of popular theologians and religious commentators over the last twenty years suggests that the most popular form of spirituality among Australian theologians is Desert Spirituality An analysis of women's autobiographical writings however suggests that the desert is irrelevant to many women's spiritual experiences This book through a close investigation of the fictions of Thea Astley Elizabeth Jolley and Barbara Hanrahan attempts to posit alternative forms of women's spirituality and to signal ways in which this spirituality is already being expressed From the evidence gathered here it becomes obvious that traditional expressions of Australian Christianity and spirituality are gender specific and that they have functioned to deny women's religious experiences and to silence their claims to equality in the sight and service of the divine It becomes obvious too that women have been developing their own forms of religious expression and that these may be expected to supplant gradually withering images of Desert Spirituality Whether this new imagery will strengthen Australian Christianity or whether it merely marks a decline in the authority of Christianity remains a moot point Australian Voices Ray Willbanks, 2014-05-02 Contemporary Australian fiction is attracting a world audience particularly in the United States where a growing readership eagerly awaits new works In Australian Voices Ray Willbanks goes beyond the books to their authors using sixteen interviews to reveal the state of fiction writing in Australia what nags from the past what engages the imagination for the future Willbanks engages the writers in lively discussions of their own work as well as topics of collective interest such as the past including convict times the nature of the land the treatment of Aborigines national identity and national flaws Australian British antipathy sexuality and feminism drama and film writing publishing and criticism in Australia and the continuous and pervasive influence of the United States on Australia The interviews in Australian Voices are gossipy often funny and always informative as Willbanks builds a structured conversation that reveals biography personality and significant insight into the works of each writer They will be important for both scholars and the reading public The Shoe Box Patsy Clairmont, 2003-05-06 Wearing the wrong shoes can really ruin a perfectly nice day In this visually inviting book best selling author and Women of Faith speaker Patsy Clairmont demonstrates how God guides our feet daily helping women to wear the nine fruits of the Spirit With words both whimsical and profound Patsy teaches readers how to strap on the sandals of kindness lace up the ballet slippers of joy glide into the penny loafers of patience tie up the tennis shoes of self control pull on the boots of peace slip into the house slippers of gentleness The imaginative two color design and interactive features such as a shoe box to open at the end of each chapter make this book an ideal gift The Shoe Box is small in stature but it carries an enormous message with the right shoes your feet are ready to walk in service for Christ The Routledge Companion to Cultural Text and the Nation Sheera Talpaz, Anuradha Dingwaney Needham, 2025-03-31 The Routledge Companion to Cultural Text and the Nation brings together over 30 articles by leading and emerging scholars from around the world who engage fresh critical lenses from affect studies to the medical humanities and re energize established frameworks to examine the interplay between cultural production and conceptualizations of the nation and nationalism The scholarship in this volume takes as its objects of analysis various forms of aesthetic and cultural production from film and literature to museums and costume books enriching the conversation that has often siloed these forms Geared toward scholars graduate students and upper level undergraduates across the humanities and social sciences this timely interdisciplinary collection is issued at a critical juncture in the transformation of the nation and the global resurgence of regressive and populist nationalist movements Both offering new insights reorienting our understanding of canonical materials and bringing noncanonical works to light this volume challenges long held assumptions about the nation while establishing its continued significance and future possibilities
