Four Views on Divine Providence William Lane Craig,Ron Highfield,Gregory A. Boyd,Paul Kjoss Helseth,2011-04-19 Questions about divine providence have preoccupied Christians for generations to what degree does God concern himself with and intervene in the affairs of everyday life This book introduces readers to four prevailing views on divine providence with particular attention to the questions of human free will the problem of evil and God s perception of time Volume contributors and their basic viewpoints are Paul Helseth God causes every creaturely event that occurs William Lane Craig through his middle knowledge God controls the course of worldly affairs without predetermining any creatures free decisions

Ron Highfield God controls creatures by liberating their decision making Gregory Boyd human decisions can be free only if God neither determines nor knows what they will be Introductory and closing essays by Dennis Jowers give relevant background and guide readers toward their own informed beliefs about divine providence Four Views on Divine Providence helps readers think theologically and biblically about all the issues involved in exploring this doctrine The point counterpoint format reveals the assumptions and considerations that drive equally learned and sincere theologians to disagreement with each other It unearths the genuinely decisive issues beneath a philosophically dense debate The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion The Black Renaissance in Francophone African and Caribbean Literatures K. Martial Frindéthié, 2014-12-03 This work explores the limits and prospects of Afro Caribbean Francophone writers in reshaping or producing action oriented literature It shows how Francophone literatures have followed a hegemonic discourse that leaves little room for thinking outside of traditional cultural and ideological conventions Part One explores the origins of Afro Caribbean Francophone literature and what the author terms griotism a shared heritage of awareness of biological differences a sense of the black hero as black messiah and black people as chosen and the promise of a common racial history Part Two discusses the formidable grip of griotism on Fanon Mudimbe the champions of Creolity Bernabe Chamoiseau and Confiant and well read African women writers Aminata Sow Fall and Mariama Ba Part Three seeks to subvert the discourse of griotism in order to propose a new autonomy for Francophone African writers Learning Directory, 1970
