The Complete Kubrick David Hughes, 2013-05-31 With just thirteen feature films in half a century Stanley Kubrick established himself as one of the most accomplished directors in motion picture history Kubrick created a landmark and a benchmark with every film working in almost every genre imaginable including film noir war movie SF horror period drama historical epic love story and satire yet transcended traditional genre boundaries with every shot Examining every feature film from the early shorts through to classics such as Paths of Glory Dr Strangelove 2001 A Space Odyssey A Clockwork Orange The Shining Full Metal Jacket and finally Eyes Wide Shut The Complete Kubrick provides a unique insight into understanding the work of cinema's most enigmatic iconoclastic and gifted auteur

The Kubrick Facade Jason Sperb, 2006 Many of Stanley Kubrick's films are often interpreted as cold and ambiguous Whether viewing Barry Lyndon 2001 The Shining or Eyes Wide Shut there is a sense in which these films resist their own audiences creating a distance from them Though many note the coldness of Kubrick's films a smaller number attempt to explore exactly how his body of work elicits this particular reaction Fewer still attempt to articulate what it might mean to feel Stanley Kubrick's films In The Kubrick Facade Jason Sperb examines the narrative ambiguity of the director's films from the voice over narration in early works including the once forgotten Fear and Desire to the blank faces of characters in his later ones In doing so Sperb shows how both devices struggle in vain to make sense of the chaos and sterility of the cinematic surface All thirteen of Stanley Kubrick's feature length films are discussed in chronological order from the little seen and long neglected Fear and Desire to the posthumous release of Eyes Wide Shut Sperb also discusses Kubrick's importance to Steven Spielberg's AI While exploring all of Kubrick's films the author concentrates in particular on The Killing Dr Strangelove 2001 The Shining Full Metal Jacket and Eyes Wide Shut This is also the first book length study that focuses considerable attention on Fear and Desire and its relevance to Kubrick's larger body of work In this respect The Kubrick Facade is one of the first truly comprehensive books on narrative in the maverick director's films It is also the first book to integrate a discussion of AI and the first to fully explore the importance of the consistent visual emphasis on blank silent faces in his post Lolita films

Triumph over Containment Robert P. Kolker, 2021-10-15 The long 1950s which extend back to the early postwar period and forward into the early 1960s were a period of containment culture in America as the media worked to reinforce traditional family values and suspected communist sympathizers were blacklisted from the entertainment industry Yet some brave filmmakers and actors still challenged the status quo to produce indelible and imaginative work that delivered uncomfortable truths to Cold War audiences Triumph Over Containment offers an uncompromising look at some of the era's greatest films and directors from household names like Alfred Hitchcock and Stanley Kubrick to lesser known iconoclasts like

Samuel Fuller and Ida Lupino Taking in everything from The Thing from Another World 1951 to Dr Strangelove or How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Love the Bomb 1964 acclaimed film scholar Robert P Kolker scours a variety of different genres to find pockets of resistance to the repressive and oppressive norms of Cold War culture He devotes special attention to two quintessential 1950s genres the melodrama and the science fiction film that might seem like polar opposites but each offered pointed responses to containment culture This book takes a fresh look at such directors as Nicholas Ray John Ford and Orson Welles while giving readers a new appreciation for the depth and artistry of 1950s Hollywood films On Kubrick James Naremore,2023-05-18 In a comprehensively revised and updated new edition James Naremore provides an illuminating critical account of the films of Stanley Kubrick from his earliest feature Fear and Desire 1953 to the posthumously produced A I Artificial Intelligence Steven Spielberg 2001 Naremore offers provocative analyses of each of Kubrick s films considering his emphasis on the absurdity of combat as in Paths of Glory 1957 and Full Metal Jacket 1987 the failure of scientific reasoning as in 2001 1968 and the fascistic impulses in masculine sexuality as in Dr Strangelove 1964 and Eyes Wide Shut 1999 He argues that while Kubrick was a voracious intellectual and a life long autodidact the fascination of his work has less to do with the ideas it espouses than with the emotions it evokes Combining close readings with new insights into the production histories and cultural contexts of key films Naremore provides a concise yet thorough discussion that will be useful to students of Kubrick s filmmaking and cinephiles who seek a deeper insight into the work of this perfectionist genius Revised throughout this new edition also includes a fully updated bibliography of critical writings on Kubrick s cinema Kiss for a Killer Bruce Sanders,1956* The Motion Picture Guide Jay Robert Nash,1988
