Some call Christina Thornton spoilt, others simply call her beautiful. But one thing's for certain: she's a young woman firmly in charge of her own destiny or so she thinks. When the dark-hearted Count Marchesi rides into town, it is to claim Miss Thornton as his bride. Christina's stubborn protests are of no use; her future is in the hands of this brooding Italian. It is the Land of Plenty where the events of the novel take place, but they are presented in such a way that they indicate worldly happenings. These events have the global phenomena of the so-called Modernity and Progress which left humanity far behind while itself proceeding miles and miles ahead. The story of the novel contains the bunch of events that depict Man, Money, and Market. Here money symbolizes the Power and Market; the progress Man is the Common Man who is openly harassed and exploited. The events are mostly set on Satire which is the backbone of the book. Satire makes the theme extraordinarily effective and appealing. By nature Fantasy makes satire more pleasing and convincing. The novel for that matter pasteurizes the fantasy of various forms depicting different anomalies of the progressive world. Besides Satire and Fantasy, one more thing to mention: This novel has a touch of Philosophy. The Philosophy that would not bore but add a dimension to the readers' thinking. The Best American Short Plays 2009-2010 Barbara Parisi, 2011-07-01. Applause Books Applause is proud to continue the series that for over 70 years has been the standard of excellence for one-act plays in America. As previous series editor Ramon Delgado wrote in his introduction to The Best American Short Plays of 1989, the choice of entries for each edition has been based on the same goal: to include a balance among three categories of playwrights: 1. established playwrights who continue to practice the art and craft of the short play; 2. emerging playwrights whose record of productions indicates both initial achievement and continuing artistic productivity; and 3. talented new playwrights whose work may not have had much exposure but whose evidences promise for the future. From its inception, The Best American Short Plays has identified new cutting-edge playwrights who have gone on to establish award-winning careers, including Tennessee Williams, A Streetcar Named Desire, Edward Albee, Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf, Wendy Wasserstein, The Heidi Chronicles, David Mamet, Glengarry Glen Ross, and Horton Foote, The Trip to Bountiful. This volume is Barbara Parisi's fifth edition as series editor. The volumes of the new millennium include the work of playwrights Murray Schisgal, Adam Kraar, Theodore Mann, David Ives, and Mark Medoff among others, and tackle complex
