Non-Artistic Kitsch Michał Szostak, 2024-12-29 The book aims to provide a contemporary individual with an extensive but focused set of examples of kitsch in non artistic spheres to create theoretical and practical backgrounds for conscious recognition of kitsch in fields like psychology education politics law religion terrorism television or journalism Two perspectives are underlined 1 the consciousness of the presence and role of kitsch experience within the philosophy of living and 2 the management of kitsch experience within the philosophy of living kitsch

as a means for achieving goals Due to the diverse topics covered by particular chapters no unified methodology is applied in the whole volume However due to the kitsch s complex and metaphysical character the only fundament is using the kitsch experience theory Szostak and Su kowski 2020 to narrate the volume coherently The authors apply a qualitative methodological approach extensively using case studies comparative analyses and ethnographic focus

Unarchived Histories Gyanendra Pandey,2013-12-17 For some time now scholars have recognized the archive less as a neutral repository of documents of the past and rather more as a politically interested representation of it and recognized that the very act of archiving is accompanied by a process of unarchiving Michel Foucault pointed to madness as describing one limit of reason history and the archive This book draws attention to another boundary marked not by exile but by the ordinary and everyday yet trivialized or trifling It is the status of being exiled within by prejudices procedures activities and interactions so fundamental as to not even be noticed that marks the unarchived histories investigated in this volume Bringing together contributions covering South Asia North and South America and North Africa this innovative analysis presents novel interpretations of unfamiliar sources and insightful reconsiderations of well known materials that lie at the centre of many current debates on history and the archive

Concept Formation in the Humanities and the Social Sciences T. Pawlowski, 2012-12-06 Uniqueness of style versus plurality of styles in terms of these aesthetic categories one of the most important differences between the recent past and the present can be described This difference manifests itself in all spheres of life in fashion in everyday life in the arts in science What is of interest for my purposes in this book are its manifestations in the processes of concept formation as they occur in the humanities broadly conceived Here the following methodological approaches seem to dominate the scene 1 A tendency to apply semiotic concepts in various fields of research 2 Attempts to introduce metrical concepts and measurement even into disciplines traditionally considered as unamenable to mathematical treatment like aesthetics and theory of art 3 Efforts to find ways of formulating empirically testable operational criteria for the application of concepts especially concepts which refer to objects directly not observable like dispositions attitudes character or personality traits Care is also taken to take advantage of the conceptual apparatus of methodology to express problems in the humanities with the highest possible degree of clarity and precision 4 Analysis of the persuasive function of language and its possible uses in science and in everyday life The above tendencies are present in this book It is divided into two parts I Methods of Concept Formation and II Applications In the first part some general methods of concept formation are presented and their merits discussed Anthropology, Art and Cultural Production Maruska Svasek, 2007-02-20 This book provides an introduction to anthropological perspectives on art Svasek defines art as a social process We study not only the artefacts themselves and the values attributed to them but also the process of production and its wider context Providing a critical overview of various anthropological theories of art Svasek offers a new perspective which centres on the analysis of commoditisation aestheticisation and object agency She explores the process of collecting and exhibiting art works and how this relates to art's production distribution and consumption in an increasingly global market The book outlines the significance of art and aesthetics in everyday life and examines the shifting boundaries between art and other categories such as kitsch souvenirs propaganda and pornography Finally Svasek argues for an anthropological perspective that links the production and consumption of artefacts to political religious and other cultural processes Ideal as a teaching text this book gives a detailed overview of themes that are central to the fields of art history art sociology and cultural studies Professionals Making Judgments A. Styhre, 2013-10-24 Professionals Making Judgments examines the role of judgment in professional work The book makes the argument that too many studies of professionalism put emphasis on rational decision making The more theoretical parts of the book are complemented by empirical studies of three distinct domains of professional practice
