Congressional Record United States. Congress,1999 The North American Journals of Prince Maximilian of Wied

Prince Alexander Philipp Maximilian of Wied, 2014-04-09 Few historical chronicles are as informative and eloquent as the journals written by Prince Maximilian of Wied as a record of his journey into the North American interior in 1833-34 following the route Lewis and Clark had taken almost thirty years earlier. In this third and final volume Maximilian vividly narrates his extended stay at Fort Clark near today's Bismarck, North Dakota, and his return journey eastward across America and on to his home in Germany. This handsome oversize volume not only reproduces the prince's historic document but also features every one of his illustrations, nearly 100 in all, including several in color from the original journal along with other watercolors now housed at Joslyn Art Museum in Omaha, Nebraska. This book is published with the assistance of the National Historical Publications and Records Commission.

As toilsome I wander'd Virginia's woods. O captain! My captain! When lilacs last in the dooryard bloom'd. On the beach at night. Song of the redwood tree. Spirit that form'd this scene.
