Modernism in European Drama Frederick J. Marker, Christopher Innes, 1998-01-01 This collection of essays originally published over the last forty years in the journal Modern Drama explores the drama of four of the most influential European proponents of modernism in the European Drama Ibsen Strandberg Pirandello and Beckett The Cambridge Companion to Modern Italian Culture Zygmunt G. Barânski (ed), Rebecca J. West, 2001-08-16 This collection of essays provides a comprehensive account of the culture of modern Italy Contributions focus on a wide range of political historical and cultural questions The volume provides information and analysis on such topics as regionalism the growth of a national language social and political cultures the role of intellectuals the Church the left feminism the separatist movements organised crime literature art design fashion the mass media and music While offering a thorough history of Italian cultural movements political trends and literary texts over the last century and a half the volume also examines the cultural and political situation in Italy today and suggests possible future directions in which the country might move Each essay contains suggestions for further reading on the topics covered The Cambridge Companion to Modern Italian Culture is an invaluable source of materials for courses on all aspects of modern Italy One, None, and a Hundred Thousand Luigi Pirandello, 2024-09-17 One None and One Hundred Thousand by Luigi Pirandello is a profound exploration of identity perception and the fluidity of the self In this novel Pirandello presents a protagonist Vitangelo Moscarda who begins to question his sense of self after a casual remark about his appearance This seemingly trivial event leads Moscarda to realize that he is perceived differently by every person he encounters resulting in a crisis of identity The novel delves into themes of existentialism highlighting the disparity between how we see ourselves and how others perceive us Moscarda's journey illustrates the fragmentation of identity as he grapples with the notion that he is not a single fixed individual but rather a multiplicity of selves shaped by the perspectives of others The title itself One None and One Hundred Thousand reflects this idea signifying the many versions of a person that exist in the minds of others as well as the elusive nature of true self knowledge The Mirror of Our Anguish Douglas Radcliff-Umstead, 1978 Introduces to the English reading public the seven novels and the most typical tales of that writer whose literary fame still rests upon his achievements as a dramatist Lethe Harald Weinrich, 2004 Harald Weinrich s epilogue considers forgetting in the present age of information overflow particularly in the area of the natural sciences The Autism of Gxd Ruth M. Dunster, 2022-12-02 The Autism of Gxd An Atheological Love Story is truly a love story Jacket the story of Ruth Dunster's autistic search for an authentic personal and theological Gxd In this it resembles Augustine's Confessions as a theological autobiography It becomes atheological however as Dunster reckons with what Denys Turner terms The Darkness of God This awareness leads her through the poetry of Medieval mystics to the mythic death of God theology of Thomas J.J. Altizer The search for faith is nonetheless very real in this strange territory. Dunster hears her autistic Gxd speaking in art poetry novels and music and this further leads her into the territory of Literature Theology and the Arts where in Blanchot's words the answer is the poem's absence Indeed Dunster calls the book a strange poem or even a hymn Weaving an autistic mythology out of a rigorous survey of clinical autism this book abounds in challenge and paradox It offers a fascinating view into how an autistic poet becomes a theologian and what more mainstream theologies might learn from this disabled Gxd
