R. Humphreys, 2020-01-08 The outlook of writers in the eighteenth century was profoundly influenced by the social and intellectual interests of Augustan life Originally published in 1954 this book aims to describe that influence and to set the literature of the period in its social environment with a critical attention The treatment is compact but readable and effective use is made of quotations from contemporary literature The late Augustans: longer poems of the later eighteenth century; ed Donald Davie, Senecan Tragedy and the Reception of Augustan Poetry Christopher V. Trinacty, 2014 Christopher Trinacty's Senecan Tragedy and the Reception of Augustan Poetry uniquely places Senecan tragedy in its Roman literary context offering a further dimension to the motivations and meaning behind Seneca's writings By reading Senecan tragedy through an intertextual lens Senecan Tragedy and the Reception of Augustan Poetry reveals Seneca's awareness of his historical moment in which the Augustan period was eroding steadily around him The Late Augustans Donald Davie, 1958 Imperial Affliction Thomas Simmons, 2010 In many ways Robert J C Young writes colonization from the very first carried with it the seeds of its own destruction Imperial Affliction examines some ways in which Young's observation could be applied to problems of subjectivity and influence within the colonizing nations themselves particularly eighteenth century Britain How might these seeds of destruction manifest themselves as problems of identity How might the very selves with greatest access to self affirmation the idea of the empire the idea of British citizenry the idea of the British self actually find themselves vulnerable confused or damaged Using multiple forms of postcolonial critique this book turns back to salient eighteenth century British lives and work for a different kind of enlightenment Among its central subjects are the elusive subjectivity of William Collins the exilic religious experience of William Cowper and its multiple readings in the twentieth century by a self fashioned exilic Donald Davie the missed encounter between Christopher Smart and Samuel Johnson and the ways in which that problem was re inscribed in the work of W Jackson Bate and Lionel Trilling the problem of imperial fixity in James Cook's journals with a view to Gray's Elegy and Goldsmith's Deserted Village and the problem of purity as a paradoxically privileged and exilic force in the work of John Newton and Christopher Smart In these explorations this book illustrates both an expanded view of eighteenth century colonial liabilities and a new emphasis on postcolonial critique as a means of exploring the fissures always present in imperial ambition The Augustan Vision Pat Rogers, 2021-12-24 First published in 1974 The Augustan Vision looks at the entire spectacle of Augustan Society in an attempt to see English culture as a whole and thus gain greater insight into this critical period in English Literature Later parts of the book explore poetry

Coleridge the Poet George Watson,2016-06-17 First published in 1966 Despite the intense interest in Coleridge in the twentieth century this book represents the first study of Coleridge s poetry to be published in Britain It is also the first to be based upon the conclusion that Coleridge's greatness as a poet is a matter of achievement rather than aspiration and to argue that his literary career was nearly half a century long consisting of more than just well known texts like The Ancient Mariner and Kubla Khan.
