

Castle Of Dread

In a land of shadows and despair,
Where evil lurks and the brave beware,
Where terror reigns without a care,
A story of dread we cannot repair.

A castle perched on a cliff so high,
Where spirits roam and the wind does sigh,
Where fear consumes without a lie,
And the demon of anxiety does spy.

The demon creeps, its hold so strong,
The mind it twists, and hope is gone,
The heart it beats, but all is wrong,
As the demon's grasp continues to prolong.

A poison that spreads with every breath,
A burden that crushes with its death,
A demon that brings eternal theft,
As it feeds on the soul without rest.

The air grows thick with the demon's call,
As the castle walls begin to fall,
To the darkness that has come to enthrall,
And the nightmare that consumes us all.

The mind becomes a twisted maze,
As the demon's whispers start to craze,
The heart, it beats in constant blaze,
As the demon's grasp begins to raise.

But in the hour of the deepest night,
A glimmer of hope shines bright,
A voice that cuts through the demon's might,
And banishes the demon from sight.

The people rise with swords in hand,
Against the demon's final stand,
They fight with all the strength they can,
And break the curse that plagued their land.

The castle falls, its walls now weak,
As light breaks through the shadows bleak,
The people smile, their fears to sneak,
And find the peace they longed to seek.

And as the sun begins to rise,
And the demon's power fades and dies,
The people look up to the skies,
As they bid the demon of anxiety goodbye.
