Legends of Early Rome Brian Beyer, 2015-01-01 In this text for the upper beginner and intermediate students Brian Beyer collects authentic Latin prose from Book I of Eusebius s Breviarium ab urbe condita which covers Roman history from Rome s foundation to the sack of Rome by the Gauls Bottom of the page glosses passages in English from the Roman historian Livy a running commentary on grammar and syntax historical notes and compiled vocabulary allow students foresight into the historical myths of ancient Rome and the historical context of Eusebius s narrative P 4 of cover Latin American Education Carlos Alberto Torres, 2019-03-06 This book offers a relevant sample of the current research on Latin American education in comparative perspective In their introduction Torres and Puiggrós two of the most recognized researchers of Latin American education draw from political sociology of education theories of the state history of education and deconstructionist theories to focus on changes in state formation in the region and its implications for the constitution of the pedagogical subject in public schools Throughout the different chapters the contributors present and analyze the most relevant topics research agendas and some of the key theoretical and political problems of Latin American education Latin American Society Tessa Cubitt, 2014-09-25 First published in 1995 This book serves as an introduction to Latin American society As it covers a very broad topic the aim is to acquaint the reader with some of the major issues and debates concerning Latin American society offering references which can be used to follow up points in more detail if desired The IV Latin American Metabolic Profiling Society (LAMPS) symposium 2022 Guillermo Moyna, Pablo Hoijemberg, Martin Aran, 2024-07-01 This Research Topic aims to gather the proceedings of the IV Latin American Metabolic Profiling Society LAMPS Symposium Since the first Symposium in 2014 in Lima Per the Latin American Metabolic Profiling Society LAMPS has periodically gathered researchers from the region to share their work Though the discipline is still underdeveloped in Latin America past meetings held in Rosario Argentina in 2016 and in Rio de Janeiro Brazil in 2018 have showcased presentations in all areas of metabolomics After a hiatus of two years imposed by the COVID 19 pandemic the fourth edition of the LAMPS Symposium will be held in Cartagena de Indias Colombia this coming November 2nd 4th As in past editions the high profile program of the Symposium will provide NMR spectroscopists and mass spectrometrists with a unique opportunity to present their latest results and give younger researchers a space to connect with other colleagues By sharing new findings and discussing progress in metabolic profiling this meeting will contribute to a deeper understanding of metabolomics research To accompany the IV LAMPS Symposium this Research Topic will not only be an opportunity for those presenting their research at the event to divulge full versions of their work but will also receive contributions from other researchers in the field as well While research in Latin America will be the primary focus submissions that display the impact of metabolomics in all areas of health nutrition and agriculture will also be open to Latin American researchers elsewhere around the globe

Latin American Social Work in the Justice System Claudia Reyes-Quilodrán, Rajendra Baikady, 2023-06-28 Social work has long been working directly with the criminal and civil courts of the justice system The work of Latin American practitioners in the legal system however is little known at global and local levels This book is the first to go beyond Western centric appraisals and presents a truly Latin American portrait of social work in the justice system The long term interaction of social work practitioners with the judicial system enabled them to develop an expertise to dialogue with other disciplines such as law and psychology This knowledge is very important to identify and share with other professionals to develop specialized programs for education and training In this sense positive and negative experiences of social work in the justice system allow one to improve its practice It is crucial to identify local experiences and the great dilemmas that the profession faces on this subject The volume's chapters deal with these dynamics in Latin American countries including Forensic Social Work The construction of possible ways of the criminal intervention Socio Legal Social Work in the Field of Criminal Defense Family and Community Life Contributions of Social Work to the Debate in Family Courts Support to Victims in High conflict Scenarios An approach from the socio legal the pedagogical and the care perspectives The Assessment of Child and Adolescent Sexual Abuse Allegations from a Social Work Perspective Latin American Social Work in the Justice System is essential reading for students researchers academicians policymakers and practitioners who are interested in international social work with a special focus on Latin American countries and legal culture Students and scholars in law development studies and public policy as well as psychologists working with and interested in the judicial system would also find this book a useful resource
