LAW AND THE WORD T. TROWARD,2019 International Law and the Controversy Concerning the Word Law , The Word is Near You Per Jarle Bekken,2012-02-13 The study deals with a difficult and much debated text in Paul s Letter to the Romans 9 30 10 21 The study in particular analyses Paul s use and interpretation of Deuteronomy 30 12 14 in Romans 10 4 17 Scholars have characterized Paul s exegesis here as idiosyncratic fanciful baffling and arbitrary By a comparison with Jewish writings near Paul in time such as the writings of Philo of Alexandria and Baruch the thesis is argued that Paul s treatment of Deuteronomy 30 12 14 can be located within Jewish exegetical method expository structure terminology as well as content and context In comparison with Baruch and Philo it has been shown that Paul s handling of Deuteronomy 30 12 14 can be placed within a Jewish context as to the way the biblical quotations are rendered The thesis is substantiated that Paul s expository rendering of Deuteronomy 30 12 14 follows the method of exegetical paraphrase of a biblical quotation So in comparison with Baruch and Philo Paul s interpretative rendering of Deuteronomy 30 12 14 falls within a form of exposition in which words phrases and sentences from the Old Testament quotation are either repeated or replaced by interpretative terms and supplemented with other qualifying terms Thus Paul s christological exposition of Deut 30 12 14 can be located within the method of exegetical paraphrase with a parallel in Baruch s application of this OT Scripture to the personified Wisdom

The Clear Word Jack Blanco,1996-06 This devotional paraphrase brings the thoughts expressed in the Bible into clear focus The result is that you find not only more understanding in reading the Bible but more joy Perfect for devotional reading this edition features an easier to use format

Rushdoony, 2009-11-16 To attempt to study Scripture without studying its law is to deny it To attempt to understand Western civilization apart from the impact of Biblical law within it and upon it is to seek a fictitious history and to reject twenty centuries and their progress The Institutes of Biblical Law has as its purpose a reversal of the present trend it is called Institutes in the older meaning of the that word i e fundamental principles here of law because it is intended as a beginning as an instituting consideration of that law which must govern society and which shall govern society under God To understand Biblical law it is necessary to understand also certain basic characteristics of that law In it certain broad premises or principles are declared These are declarations of basic law The Ten Commandments give us such declarations A second characteristics of Biblical law is that the major portion of the law is case law i e the illustration of the basic principle in terms of specific cases These specific cases are often illustrations of the extent of the application of the law that is by citing a minimal type of case the necessary jurisdictions of the law are revealed The law then asserts principles and cites cases to develop the implications of those principles with its purpose and direction the restitution of God's order The Living Word Gustaf Wingren, 2002-04-24 The Contemporary Review , 1882 Albany Law Journal , 1890 The Central Law Journal , 1898 Vols 65-96 include Central law journal's international law list The Gospel of John R. Rushdoony, Jesus is the true bread of life come down from heaven His flesh His true humanity is our bread of life this He gives for the life of the world We are in Him no longer the sinful and death bound sons of fallen Adam but the just and life bound people of the last Adam Christ gives us His flesh His glorious humanity so that we are remade into people of righteousness and eternal life In this commentary the author maps out the glorious gospel of John starting from the obvious parallel to Genesis 1 In the beginning was the Word and through to the glorious conclusion of Christ s death and resurrection Nothing more clearly reveals the gospel than Christ s atoning death and His resurrection They tell us that Jesus Christ has destroyed the power of sin and death John therefore deliberately limits the number of miracles he reports in order to point to and concentrate on our Lord s death and resurrection The Jesus of history is He who made atonement for us died and was resurrected His life cannot be understood apart from this nor can we know His history in any other light This is why John s testimony is true and while books filling the earth could not contain all that could be said the testimony given by John is faithful
