Finding Our Unity In The Scriptures:

Finding Our Unity in the Scriptures Joel W. Huffstetler, 2005-09-15 This book grew out of a Bible Conference at Kanuga Conference Center in October 2004 led by Dr George L Carey the 103rd Archbishop of Canterbury Archbishop Carey's theme was the life and ministry of St Paul with a focus on the Letter to the Ephesians I was privileged to serve as a workshop leader and preacher during the conference and I chose as the theme of my workshop to study St Paul and reconciliation using Ephesians as our primary text The main thrust of the workshop was to study selected passages from Ephesians in detail and to look to St Paul's writings for guidance regarding reconciliation in the Body of Christ We live in a time when there is such a pressing need in the Church for reconciliation a rekindling of a spirit of love and mutual respect rather than the judgment and suspicion which all too often characterize relations among Christians who find themselves in disagreement with one another regarding the divisive issues of our time This book advocates a renewed realization that in Jesus Christ what unites us as Christians is far greater than what divides us These essays on selected passages from Ephesians and the concluding essay The Way Forward are offered in the cause of reconciliation They are suitable for study by individuals as well as parish and diocesan study groups seeking reconciliation in the Church Study questions are presented at the end of each chapter to foster reflection and discussion I welcome this book as an offering to us all It presents one means for discovering a receptive stance to God's will for us even in the midst of the harsh rhetoric and self-justifying proclamations of our day I am grateful to Joel Huffstetler for his contribution to the forming of an attitude of the heart committed to reconciliation From the Afterword by The Rt Rev Charles G vonRosenberg Bishop of East Tennessee

The Scripture and Hermeneutics Seminar, 25th Anniversary Zondervan, 2022-10-11 A celebration of 25 years of the Scripture and Hermeneutics Seminar that features contributions from a diverse lineup of today's most respected scholars For twenty five years the Scripture and Hermeneutics Seminar has produced a steady stream of influential global diverse ecumenical and world class research and publications that have impacted a generation of scholars now in mid career teaching or ministering at various universities seminaries divinity schools or churches around the globe The volumes of the seminar have resourced countless classrooms and have been cited thousands of times in scholarly research and in the pulpits and Bible studies worldwide In celebration of the 25th year of the seminar 1997-2022 this compendium reflects on its work and impact It offers new essays that chart the value of the seminar for biblical interpretation and the needs of biblical interpretation in the future and includes stories from the formative SAHS community This volume distills the work of the seminar for a new generation of students opening to them a gateway to the community and to the resources developed over the past two decades Tightly organized carefully arranged and cross referenced this volume Highlights the work of a significant movement in biblical interpretation in the academy Charts a path of biblical interpretation from the past to the future Helps readers understand the philosophical and theological commitments that undergird biblical interpretation Helps readers construct a theological hermeneutics that yields a deeper richer reading of Scripture Introduces readers to stories of the seminar from scholars and ministers impacted by it This celebratory volume not only gives a unique perspective on the architecture of biblical interpretation in the first quarter of the twenty first century but it is offered in hope of preparing fertile soil for the next generation of women and men to cultivate biblical interpretation for years to come The volume features essays by Craig Bartholomew David Beldman Amber L Bowen Susan Bubbers Jean Louis Chr tien Havilah Dharamraj Bo Lim Murray Rae J Aaron Simmons Anthony Thiselton and John Wyatt The Enduring Authority of the Christian Scriptures D. Biblical Theology in the Life of the Early Church Stephen O. Presley, 2025-04-29 Biblical Theology in the Life of the Early Church recasts biblical theology as a practice cultivated in Christian community rather than a solely academic pursuit Stephen Presley argues that the early church fathers crafted an ecclesial biblical theology that was lived out communally and oriented believers toward beholding God's glory This volume brings patristic biblical interpretation into conversation with contemporary biblical theology exploring how assumptions and methods of figures such as Irenaeus and Augustine can guide modern hermeneutics Presley shows how early Christian theologians emphasized virtue and discipleship alongside exegesis patiently shaping readers to inhabit Scripture's narrative He illuminates the catechetical and liturgical scaffolding that informed patristic biblical theology centered on Christ as the cornerstone Students and scholars of theology church history hermeneutics and patristics will find valuable new insights

Finding Our Voice Neil Glover, 2024-04-30 Beneath all the anxieties about church decline and strategies to reverse that this book speaks to a problem that has not been addressed why is it that mainstream churches Anglican Methodist Baptist and Presbyterian have been particularly affected by the secular age And how might they be renewed It argues that these churches need to focus less on restructuring and closures and instead recover a sense of authenticity in the gospel they believe in their vision of human flourishing their diversity their passion for justice and their unique ability to connect with local communities Too often mainline churches are perceived as worthy but also profoundly unexciting This book explores the centuries old roots of this perceived boredom and how the church can more often become a place of inspiration and of encounter with God Finding Our Voice calls on all kinds of resources that can help refresh the church's self expression in engagement with the scriptures with art music and poetry in searching for a better language that remains true to the church's core identity and resonates with contemporary culture

Gather God's People Brian Croft, Jason Adkins, 2015-01-06 God is spirit and his worshippers must worship in spirit and in truth John 4:24 The Bible tells us that we are to worship the Lord that we were created for this purpose But what is true worship What does the Bible teach about the right and the wrong ways to worship God In this book pastors Brian Croft and Jason Adkins unpack a biblical theology of worship discuss the practical matters of planning a worship service and offer suggestions and insights on the best way to lead a worship service that honors the Lord The Practical Shepherding series of guides provides pastors and ministry leaders with practical help to do the work of pastoral ministry in a local church In Gather God's People you will learn how to apply biblical doctrine and spirituality to the practice of Christian worship

Introduction to the Study of the Bible ... Second Edition Joseph Baylee, 1870

The Church I Couldn't Find Charles Alexander, 2013-04-04 After a year of searching Charles and Verna could not find a church primarily operating on basic first century principles Most churches are not traditional enough After thirty five years as a pastor my denomination had steered me in an ineffective and unbiblical direction We had become chaplains to the culture rather prophets within it Few churches seem to have a process and possibly the knowledge in how to make effective disciples Development of five apostolic principles is encouraged They really work The first century church was not perfect but remarkably diverse in maintaining apostolic accountability and encouragement How may churches develop autonomy unity and cooperation in close geographical areas First century worship is difficult to find A service is produced here that hopefully includes all essential principles Dependent on the process of the group event the group based church proves to be the best way to achieve apostolic goals and to provide an easy way to minister in unity with other churches Many personal experiences illustrate the point Practical and effective development in the authors experience has resulted in the building of three new churches and a wide ministry of teaching

The "plainly Revealed" Word of God? Helen Dare, Simon Patrick Woodman, 2011 In January 2009 an international group of Baptist theologians met in Cardiff UK for a colloquium to explore the theory and practice of Baptist hermeneutics Drawing primarily from the British Baptist community the group s work was enhanced by insights from participants from the USA and Eastern Europe Participants brought a diversity of scholarly and pastoral interests to the colloquium and through presentation and discussion explored together the nature of Baptist hermeneutics The resulting volume addresses five core thematic areas The first section surveys the way in which Baptists have engaged with the Bible both in their early history and more recent past Section two analyses some specific examples of Baptist hermeneutics in practice while the third section turns attention to an exploration of theoretical approaches to the hermeneutical task in Baptist contexts The problem of how to negotiate interpretative difference within Baptist reading communities is addressed in the fourth section Finally concluding responses to the project from two non Baptist theologians challenge both contributors and readers to consider the wider implications of the volume for contemporary Baptist life
