Finding God In The Singing River Christianity Spirit Nature:

Finding God in the Singing River Mark I. Wallace, 2005-03-04 We live in an age of vast and rapid destruction of habitats and species Yet Christianity holds great potential for healing this situation Indeed the Bible and Christian tradition are a treasure trove of rich images and stories about God as an earthen being who sustains the natural world with compassion and thereby models for humankind environmentally healthy ways of being Mark Wallace's stimulating book retrieves a central but often neglected biblical theme the idea of God as carnal Spirit who indwells all things as the basis for constructing a green spirituality responsive to the environmental needs of our time In the biblical tradition he writes God as Spirit is an ecological presence that shows itself to us daily by living in and through the earth One message of Christianity therefore is celebration of the bodily material world ancient redwoods vernal springs broad winged hawks everyday pigweed as the place that God indwells and cares for in order to maintain the well being of our common planetary home Alongside his green reading of the Bible and tradition Wallace employs the resources of deep ecology Neopagan spirituality and the environmental justice movement to rethink Christianity as an earth based body loving religion He also analyzes color images reproduced in the book Wallace's bold yet careful work reawakens our sense of the sacrality of the earth and the life that the trinitarian God creates there It also grounds the impulses of New Age spirituality in a profoundly biblical notion of God's being and activity

Tongues and Trees Aaron Jason Swoboda, 2019-05-21 This book develops a Pentecostal ecological theology ecotheology by utilizing key pneumatological themes that emerge from the Pentecostal tradition It examines the salient Pentecostal and Charismatic voices that have stimulated ecotheology in the Pentecostal tradition and situates them within the broader context of Christian ecumenical ecotheologies Roman Catholic Orthodox Protestant and Ecofeminist The author advances a novel approach to Pentecostal ecotheology through a pneumatology of the Spirit baptized creation the charismatic creational community the holistic ecological Spirit and the eschatological Spirit of ecological mission Significantly this book is the first substantive contribution to a Pentecostal pneumatological theology of creation with a particular focus on the Pentecostal community and its significance for the broader ecumenical community Furthermore it offers a fresh theological approach to imagining and sustaining earth friendly practice in the twenty first century Pentecostal church

Common Goods Catherine Keller, Elias Ortega-Aponte, 2015-12-01 In the face of globalized ecological and economic crises how do religion the postsecular and political theology reconfigure political theory and practice As the planet warms and the chasm widens between the 1 percent and the global 99 what thinking may yet energize new alliances between religious and irreligious constituencies This book brings together political theorists philosophers theologians and scholars of religion to open discursive and material spaces in which to shape a vibrant planetary commons Attentive to the universalizing tendencies of the common the contributors seek to reappropriate the term in response to the corporate logic that asserts itself as a universal solvent In the resulting conversation the common returns as an interlinked manifold under the ethos of its multitudes and the ecology of its multiplicity Beginning from what William Connolly calls the palpable fragility of things Common Goods assembles a transdisciplinary political theology of the Earth With a nuance missing from both atheist and orthodox religious approaches the contributors engage in a multivocal conversation about sovereignty capital ecology and civil society The result is an unprecedented thematic assemblage of cosmopolitics and religious diversity of utopian space and the time of insurrection of Christian socialism radical democracy and disability theory of quantum entanglement and planetarity of theology fleshly and political

I Believe. Help My Unbelief! Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2024-07-01 This innovative book introduces main Christian doctrines and beliefs for thoughtful Christians and seekers in a manner understandable and meaningful for people living in a religiously pluralistic complex and secular world Different from any other titles available it engages not only Christian tradition and Bible but also the insights from natural sciences and four living faiths and their teachings Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism It also includes global and contextual voices such as those of women minorities and testimonies of the global church Based on wide and comprehensive academic research including the author's groundbreaking five volume A Constructive Christian Theology for the Pluralistic World 2013 17 this book is meant for a general audience interested laypeople lay leaders ministers without formal academic training and beginning theology and religion students It is also highly useful for pastors and theologians who often find overly technical presentations less useful The style of writing is conversational and inviting for dialogue and discussion

Grounding Religion Whitney A. Bauman, Richard Bohannon, Kevin J. O'Brien, 2010-10-04 How do religion and the natural world interact with one another Grounding Religion introduces students to the growing field of religion and ecology exploring a series of questions about how the religious world influences and is influenced by ecological systems Grounding Religion examines the central concepts of religion and ecology using analysis dialogical exchanges by established scholars in the field and case studies The first textbook to encourage critical thinking about the relationships between the environment and religious beliefs and practices it also provides an expansive overview of the academic field of religion and ecology as it has emerged in the past forty years The contributors introduce students to new ways of thinking about environmental degradation and the responses of religious people Each chapter brings a new perspective on key concepts such as sustainability animals gender economics environmental justice globalization and place Discussion questions and contemporary case studies focusing on topics such as Muslim farmers in the US and Appalachian environmental struggles help students apply the perspective to current events other media and their own interests

The Meaning and Practice of Faith Diarmuid O'Murchu, 2014-02-01 A practical guide for adults who are more interested in being and doing the truth than in doctrinal statements about the truth

Reading with Earth Anne Elvey, 2022-08-25 Winner of the 2023 ANZATS Award for the Best Monograph by an Established Scholar Applying a re envisioned ecological feminist hermeneutics this book builds on two important responses to twentieth and twenty first century situations of ecological trauma especially the complex contexts of climate change and cross species relations first ecological feminism second ecological hermeneutics in the Earth Bible tradition By way of readings of selected biblical texts this book suggests that an ecological feminist aesthetic bringing present situation and biblical text into conversation through engagement with activism and literature principally poetry is helpful in decolonizing ethics Such an approach is both informed by and speaks back to the new materialism in ecological criticism

Green Christianity Mark I Wallace,2010-09-10 The central message of this book is that religion has a special role to play in saving the planet Religion has the unique power to fire the imagination and empower the will to break the cycle of addiction to nonrenewable energy The environmental crisis is a crisis not of the head but of the heart The problem is not that we do not know how to stop climate change but rather that we lack the inner strength to redirect our culture and economy toward a sustainable future Only a bold and courageous faith can undergird a long term commitment to change This book is a call to hope not despair a survey of promising directions and a call for readers to discover meaning and purpose in their lives through a spiritually charged commitment to saving the Earth

Ark of the Possible David B. Dillard-Wright,2009-01-01 Ark of the Possibility The Animal World in Merleau Ponty explores the theme of animality in the philosophy of French phenomenologist Maurice Merleau Ponty

African Indigenous Ecological Knowledge Systems Ikechukwu Anthony Kanu,2022-07-14 The perspectives in this book reveal how in African anthroposophy earth based spiritual traditions and innovative spiritual practices are already emerging in response to the painful realities of climate change mass extinction biodiversity loss and the disruption of local and global ecosystems which have for long not received the attention that it duly deserves This piece therefore will become one of the greatest ornaments and lights in the world of African eco spirituality as it responds to questions that are long overdue

Learning the Language of the Fields Daniel G. Deffenbaugh,2006-12-25 Deffenbaugh calls us to live in a reciprocal relationship with our biotic communities the plants animals and other non human cultures that share our particular places in the world By rerooting our global lifestyles in the ecological knowledge of our homes we may truly begin to mend the health of our planet Deffenbaugh marries Christian theology and spiritual disciplines with Native American mythology and the practice of organic gardening to deepen our engagement with the places in which we live

Theology, Science and Life Carmody Grey,2023-01-26 Offering a bold intervention in the ongoing debate about the relationship between theology and science Theology Science and Life proposes that the strong demarcation between the two spheres is unsustainable theology occurs within and not outside what we call science and science occurs within and not outside theology The book applies this in a penetrating way to the most topical contentious and philosophically charged science of late modernity biology Rejecting the easy dualism of expressions such as theology and science theology or science modern biology is examined so as to illuminate the nature of both In making this argument the book achieves two further things It is the first major English language reception and application of the thought of philosopher Hans Jonas in theology and it makes a decisive contribution to the unfolding reception of Radical Orthodoxy one of the most influential schools in contemporary Anglophone theology

Encountering Earth Trevor George Hunsberger Bechtel, Matt Eaton, Tim Harvie, 2018-05-14 One day Matthew Eaton was walking through an impromptu animal shelter display at his local pet store when suddenly an eight month old kitten dug his claws into Eaton's flesh Eaton recognized that the eyes of this cat and the curve of his claw compelled a response analogous to those found in the writings of Buber Levinas and Derrida And not just Eaton but a whole community of theologians have found themselves in an encounter with particular places and animals that demands rich theological reflection Eaton enlisted fellow editors Harvie and Bechtel to collect the essays in this volume in which theologians listen to horses rats snakes cats dogs and the earth itself who become new theological voices demanding a response In this volume the voice of the more than human world is heard as making theology possible These essays suggest that what we say theologically represents not simply ideas of our own making subsequently superimposed onto the natural world through our own discovery but rather flow from an expressive Earth

Watershed Discipleship Ched Myers, 2016-10-21 This collection introduces and explores watershed discipleship as a critical contextual and constructive approach to ecological theology and practice and features emerging voices from a generation that has grown up under the shadow of climate catastrophe Watershed Discipleship is a triple entendre that recognizes we are in a watershed historical moment of crisis focuses on our intrinsically bioregional locus as followers of Jesus and urges us to become disciples of our watersheds Bibliographic framing essays by Myers trace his journey into a bioregionalist Christian faith and practice and offer reflections on incarnational theology hermeneutics and ecclesiology The essays feature more than a dozen activists educators and practitioners under the age of forty whose work and witness attest to a growing movement of resistance and reimagination across North America This anthology overviews the bioregional paradigm and its theological and political significance for local sustainability restorative justice and spiritual renewal Contributors reread both biblical texts and churchly practices such as mission baptism and liturgy through the lens of replacement Herein is a comprehensive and engaged call for a Transition church that can help turn our history around toward environmental resiliency and social justice by passionate advocates on the front lines of watershed discipleship

Finding God Among our Neighbors, Volume 2 Kristin Johnston Lergen, 2017-02-01 For too many students Christian theology is learned in isolation from other religions traditions With this the second volume of her important work Kristin Johnston Lergen returns to expand the systematic theology she began in the original volume Largen places the work of Christian theology soundly within the interreligious dialogue that is the defining feature of our time In doing so she prepares students of theology for the task of understanding and articulating their Christian beliefs in the context of a religiously and culturally diverse world In the original volume Largen focused her work on three loci God Creation and Humanity In this second volume she expands the project to include salvation the Church and the Holy Spirit As before each locus is set within the broader context of interreligious dialogue by considering how the varied beliefs of the world s religious traditions inform our understanding of our own tradition This volume explores indigenous religions Sikhism Confucianism and Daoism in particular

The Task of Theology Anselm Min ,2014-09-11 A rare opportunity to read and reflect upon the thought of some of the most prominent voices in contemporary theology in one volume this collection offers informative indicators of the state of theology today Together these provocative essays offer a resource for teachers and a chance to facilitate conversation among those working in different areas of an increasingly fragmented discipline Publisher
