Finnish Bakers Daughters:

Creating Societies Dirk Hoerder, 2000-01-01 Dirk Hoerder shows us that it is not shining railroad tracks or statesmen in Ottawa that make up the story of Canada but rather individual stories of life and labour Caribbean women who care for children born in Canada lonely prairie homesteaders miners in Alberta and British Columbia women labouring in factories Chinese and Japanese immigrants carving out new lives in the face of hostility Hoerder examines these individual experiences in Creating Societies the first systematic overview of the total Canadian immigrant experience Using letters travel accounts diaries memoirs and reminiscences he brings the immigrant s experiences to life Their writings often recorded for grandchildren neighbours and sometimes a larger public show how immigrant lives were entwined with the emerging Canadian society Hoerder presents an important new picture of the emerging Canadian identity dispelling the Canadian myth of a dichotomy between national unity and ethnic diversity and emphasizing the long standing interaction between the members of a different ethnic groups Under the northern lights Nelma Sillanpaa, 1994-01-01 What was it like for young immigrant girls growing up in the lumber camps and mining towns of northern Ontario in the 1920s How did teenagers in Canada cope with the Great Depression of the Dirty Thirties What did young women on the home front do during World War II while their menfolk were overseas with the Canadian Forces This autobiography shows us what ordinary life has been like for many women in Canada over the last 75 years and it illuminates a largely unknown chapter of Canada s diverse multicultural heritage Published in English Gendered Pasts Kathryn McPherson, Cecilia Morgan, Nancy Forestell, 2003-12-15 It is commonplace today to suggest that gender is socially constructed that the roles women and men fulfill in their daily lives have been created and defined for them by society and social institutions But how have men and women negotiated and navigated the gender roles that have been thrust upon them With Gendered Pasts Kathryn McPherson Cecilia Morgan and Nancy M Forestell have collected eleven engaging essays that seek to answer this question in a wide ranging exploration of specific gendered dimensions of nineteenth and twentieth century Canadian history The contributors cover all manner of topics related to gender and history across Canada including female vagrancy gambling drinking and sex the role of the miner s wife the portrayal of gay men and the sharply defined role of nurses Unusual in its breadth Gendered Pasts is essential to the understanding of the various threads and themes in Canadian gender history Previously published by Oxford University Press The Finnish Baker's Daughters Aili Grönlund Schneider, 1986-01-01 Petticoats and Prejudice - Women's Press Classics Constance Backhouse, 2015-02-01 Drawing on historical records of women s varying experiences as litigants accused criminals or witnesses this book offers critical insight into women s legal status in nineteenth century Canada In an effort to recover the social and political conditions under which women lobbied rebelled and in some cases influenced change Petticoats and Prejudice weaves together forgotten stories of achievement and defeat in the Canadian legal system Expanding the concept of heroism beyond its traditional limitations this text gives life to some of

Canada's lost heroines Euphemia Rabbitt who resisted an attempted rape and Clara Brett Martin who valiantly secured entry into the all male legal profession were admired by their contemporaries for their successful pursuits of justice But Ellen Rogers a prostitute who believed all women should be legally protected against sexual assault and Nellie Armstrong a battered wife and mother who sought child custody were ostracized for their ideas and demands Well aware of the limitations placed upon women advocating for reform in a patriarchal legal system Constance Backhouse recreates vivid and textured snapshots of these and other women's courageous struggles against gender discrimination and oppression Employing social history to illuminate the reproductive sexual racial and occupational inequalities that continue to shape women's encounters with the law Petticoats and Prejudice is an essential entry point into the gendered treatment of feminized bodies in Canadian legal institutions This book was co published with The Osgoode Society for Canadian Legal History

Transnational Identities and Practices in Canada Vic Satzewich, Lloyd Wong, 2011-11-01 With contributions from some of Canada's leading historians political scientists geographers anthropologists and sociologists this collection examines the transnational practices and identities of immigrant and ethnic communities in Canada It looks at why members of these groups maintain ties with their homelands whether real or imagined and how those connections shape individual identities and community organizations How does transnationalism establish or transform geographical social and ideological borders Do homeland ties affect what it means to be Canadian Do they reflect Canada's commitment to multiculturalism Through analysis of the complex forces driving transnationalism this comprehensive study focuses attention on an important and arguably growing dimension of Canadian social life This is the first collection in Canada to provide a comprehensive and interdisciplinary examination of transnationalism It will appeal to scholars and students interested in issues of immigration prejudiced by the victim's background and that most assaults occur within the victim's homes and communities. But she refuses to view women solely as victims and sex as a tool of oppression, demonstrating that these women actively distinguished between wanted and unwanted sexual encounters and that they attempted to punish coercive sex despite obstacles in the court system and the community.

Finding Our Place Nikki McCaslin, 2010-01-18 This unique one volume reference guide provides positive and empowering biographical sketches of 100 famous and well known adoptees throughout time serving to counter the many negative stereotypes that exist about people who were adopted, fostered or lived in orphanages. This work looks at the lives of people who despite circumstances in their childhood were able to succeed in making important contributions to art, music, science, literature, politics and entrepreneurship. This work answers the call to obtaining difficult to find information about well known adoptees. High school students and general readers who are interested in learning more about positive role models in adoption and children's issues will find this book invaluable. McCaslin outlines the parameters she used for inclusion in the book and then discusses the history of adoption from ancient civilization to today's society. Each entry focuses on the early life of the subject as well as his or her career and achievements. Entries include Aristotle, Edward Albee, Ingrid Bergman, Oksana Baiul, Ella Fitzgerald, Faith Hill, Marilyn Monroe, Dave Thomas, Orson Welles and many more. Canadiana, 1987
