The articles collected in this volume address linguistic diversity in Russia and Finland from different perspectives and aim to provide both theoretical and empirical knowledge concerning recently emerged multilingual and multicultural developments. The topics include representations and conceptualisations of multilingualism, the language education of immigrants, the linguistic rights of ethnic minorities, language policy and ideologies underlying multilingual activities. Linguistic and cultural diversity is approached from different theoretical and methodological perspectives, e.g. discourse analysis, ethnography. The focus is on both micro and macro level phenomena. The articles show how the ideologies that underlie language policies and also various grass root multilingual practices are conditioned by broader political, historical and socio-cultural contexts. Complete Finnish Beginner to Intermediate Course Terttu Leney, 2014-08-15.
