Firenze E Toscana:

Cosimo I De' Medici and His Self-Representation in Florentine Art and Culture Hendrik Thijs van Veen, Henk Th. van Veen, 2006-08-21 In this study Henk Th van Veen reassesses how Cosimo de Medici represented himself in images during the course of his rule The text examines not only art and architecture but also literature historiography religion and festive culture

Firenze e la Toscana. Scritti vari Giovanni Cherubini, 2013 Florence: Capital of the Kingdom of Italy, 1865-71 Monika Poettinger, Piero Roggi, 2017-12-28 This edited collection provides the first comprehensive history of Florence as the mid 19th century capital of the fledgling Italian nation Covering various aspects of politics economics culture and society this book examines the impact that the short lived experience of becoming the political and administrative centre of the Kingdom of Italy had on the Tuscan city both immediately and in the years that followed It reflects upon the urbanising changes that affected the appearance of the city and the introduction of various economic and cultural innovations The volume also analyses the crisis caused by the eventual relocation of the capital to Rome and the subsequent bankruptcy of the communality which hampered Florence on the long road to modernity Florence Capital of the Kingdom of Italy 1865 71 is a fascinating study for all students and scholars of modern Italian history

Historical Archaeologies of Transhumance across Europe Eugene Costello, Eva Svensson, 2018-03-05 Transhumance is a form of pastoralism that has been practised around the world since animals were first domesticated Such seasonal movements have formed an important aspect of many European farming systems for several thousand years although they have declined markedly since the nineteenth century Ethnographers and geographers have long been involved in recording transhumant practices and in the last two decades archaeologists have started to add a new material dimension to the subject This volume brings together recent advances in the study of European transhumance during historical times from Sweden to Spain Romania to Ireland and beyond that even Newfoundland While the focus is on the archaeology of seasonal sites used by shepherds and cowherds the contributions exhibit a high degree of interdisciplinarity Documentary cartographic ethnographic and palaeoecological evidence all play a part in the examination of seasonal movement and settlement in medieval and post medieval landscapes Notwithstanding the obvious diversity across Europe in terms of livestock distances travelled and socio economic context an extended introduction to the volume shows that cross cutting themes are now emerging including mobility gendered herding collective land use the agency of non elite people and competition for grazing and markets The book will appeal not only to archaeologists but to historians geographers ethnographers palaeoecologists and anyone interested in rural lifeways across Europe

Il marketing per città, aree urbane e metropolitane, organismi territoriali* Antonio Foglio, 2006 Italian Confraternities in the Sixteenth Century Christopher F. Black, 2003-08-28 Confraternities were and are religious brotherhoods for lay people to promote their religious life in common Though designed to prepare for the afterlife they were fully involved in the social political and cultural life of the community and could affect all men and women as members or as the recipients of charity Confraternities organised a great range of devotional cultural and indeed artistic activities in addition to other functions such as the provision of dowries and the escort of condemned men to the scaffold Other works have studied the local activities of specific confraternities but this is the first to attempt a broad survey of such organisations across the breadth of early modern Italy Christopher Black demonstrates clearly the extent diversity and influence of confraternal behaviour and shows how such brotherhoods adapted to the religious and social crises of the sixteenth century thus illuminating current debates about Catholic Reform the Counter Reformation poverty philanthropy and social control The Medici, Michelangelo, & the Art of Late Renaissance Florence Cristina Acidini, Cristina Acidini Luchinat, Palazzo Strozzi, Art Institute of Chicago, Palazzo Strozzi (Florence, Italie)., Detroit Institute of Arts, Art institute (Chicago, Ill.)., Marco Chiarini, 2002-01-01 Published in conjunction with the exhibition Magnificenza the Medici Michelangelo the Art of Late Renaissance Florence In Italy L Ombra del genio Michelangelo e l arte a Firenze 1538 1631 Title page verso Opere di Benedetto Varchi, 1859 Opere di Benedetto Varchi Benedetto Varchi, 1858 Volume 2 Part 1 Scrittori D'Italia Natale Busetto, 1929 Opere di Benedetto Varchi ora per la prima volta raccolte Benedetto Varchi, 1859 Florence After the Medici Corey Tazzara, Paula Findlen, Jacob Soll, 2019-10-08 Although there is a rich historiography on Enlightenment Tuscany in Italian as well as French and German the principle Anglophone works are Eric Cochrane's Tradition and Enlightenment in the Tuscan Academies 1961 and his Enlightenment Florence in the Forgotten Centuries 1973 It is high time to revisit the Tuscan Enlightenment This volume brings together an international group of scholars with the goal of putting to rest the idea that Florence ceased to be interesting after the Renaissance. Indeed it is partly the explicit dialogue between Renaissance and Enlightenment that makes eighteenth century Tuscany so interesting. This enlightened age looked to the past. It began the Herculean project of collecting, editing and publishing many of the manuscripts that today form the bedrock of any serious study of Dante, Petrarch, Boccaccio, Machiavelli, Vasari, Galileo and other Tuscan writers. This was an age of public libraries, projects of cultural restoration and the emergence of the Uffizi as a public art gallery complemented by a science museum in Peter Leopold's reign whose relics can still be visited in the Museo Galileo and La Specola.

Origins of a new economic union (7th-12th centuries). Preliminary results of the nEU-Med project: October 2015-March 2017 Giovanna Bianchi, Richard Hodges, 2018-10-11. The nEU Med project is part of the Horizon 2020 programme in the ERC Advanced project category. It began in October 2015 and will be concluded in October 2020. The University of Siena is the host institution of the project. The project is focussed upon two Tuscan riverine corridors leading from the Gulf of Follonica in the Tyrrhenian Sea to the Colline Metallifere. It aims to document and analyze the form and timeframe of economic growth in this part of the Mediterranean which took place between the 7th and the 12thc. Central to this is an understanding of the processes of change in human settlements in the natural and farming landscapes in relation to the exploitation of resources and in the implementation of differing political strategies. This volume brings together the research presented at the first nEUMed workshop held in Siena on 11-12 April 2017. The aim of the workshop was to draw up an initial survey of research and related work on the project one and a half years after its inception. The project is composed of several research units. Each unit covers an aspect of the interdisciplinary research underpinning the nEU Med project each with their own methodology. For this first volume of results it was decided not to give an account of all the work carried out within all the units but to select those lines of investigation which at the end of the first year and a half have made it possible to articulate and develop an interdisciplinary research strategy.
