Himself And Other Animals A Portrait Of Gerald Durrell:

Himself and Other Animals David Hughes,1998 Himself and Other Animals David Hughes,1998 Durrell is of universal interest not only as a writer about wildlife but as a man dedicated to the saving of species likely to die out As a result of his pioneering zoo in Jersey he is everyone's ideal of a crusading conservationist Himself & Other Animals David Hughes,1998 Gerald Durrell is of universal interest not only as a writer about wildlife but as a man dedicated to the saving of species likely to die out As a result of his pioneering zoo in Jersey he is everyone's ideal of a crusading conservationist MY FAMILY AND OTHER ANIMALS has joined the classics Each new generation of readers has grown up with Gerald and his adventures David Hughes was a friend of Gerald Durrell for forty years convivially when editing his books in the 1950s intimately when they were neighbours in southern France during the 1970s closely when Gerald Durrell was dying in London hospitals during his last months This is a tender and poetic memoir of a prophet we should still heed Nigel Spivey FINANCIAL TIMES Glints with riveting anecdotes of a life brimmingly lived over delicious long lunches in southern France A brilliant of a visionary bon viveur who committed himself to his ideals Maris Ross DAILY MAIL This is an honest fair minded intelligent book not a fawning fan's eulogy HIMSELF AND OTHER ANIMALS is a thoughtful vivid and moving portrait of a real individual Eileen Battersby IRISH TIMES The Durrells Richard Bradford,2025-06-05 A variously tragic tale of escapism and assimilation Richard Bradford's The Durrells explores the truth behind the image The Durrells are probably the most celebrated literary family of the 20th century Gerald turned them into celebrities with his tripartite memoir beginning with My Family and Other Animals 1956 which told of his experiences with his widowed mother Louisa and three siblings during their time in 1930s Corfu We know of the Durrells from their own writings and from the image of them created by TV film and biographical accounts of specific figures What we do not know is the truth Using previously unpublished material from the Jersey Archive Richard Bradford unravels the lives of the famous four children of the Corfu era Larry Gerry Margo and Lesli as they find themselves geographically and emotionally divided amongst a backdrop of imperial decline and unrest The children of moneyed colonialists they were already used to being treated with aghast fascination by the island's locals and by expatriate Britons as a disgrace to the homeland Yet their story goes beyond the Ionian Sea and The Durrells delves into the complex social and political circumstances in which the family lived with seemingly constant threats of war and endangerment to both themselves and their natural environment The Ionian Islands and Epirus Jim Potts,2010 Drawing a portrait of the islands off the coast of Greece Corfu resident Jim Potts narrates the cultural legacies of this unique place from Homer to modern times Convergences Dr. Nabil M. Abdel-Al,2017-05-25 This anthology is an amalgam of the authors output in the domains of interpretation translation and literary scholarship It is a serious attempt to highlight the cardinal traits common to said fields This research is a vested trek into the inner workings of the authors profession interpretation and translation as well as his standing engagement with literary genres throughout the ages The books uniqueness resides in treating a diversity of matters interrelated in various ways although on the surface it appears to make up a queer admixture of dissimilar elements hence the title Convergences Interpretation and translation are twin vocations and between them convergence is all encompassing Both transform a message from a source to a target language Complementary and mutually supportive as they are yet there is a train of difference in the execution of these two inseparable professions the method nature and techniques involved in each Interpretation is the instantaneous the simultaneous in a word the express mode of communication and translation is the meditative the slow or the local medium of correspondence Concomitantly literature is the crucible for teleologically permeable convergences and incredible divergences It has a noble ontological message and brings out humanity's hidden treasures experiences thoughts and choices Literature's lofty missive is grounded in understanding the scenes events and characters it depicts excerpts of which feed into discourses to be interpreted and translated Clients come up with multiple interpretations depending on circumstances and the context in which texts are couched

Myth and Reality in the Rain Forest John F. Oates, 1999 This book offers a timely clear headed and uniquely important contribution to conservation one that should be read by all bureaucrats scientists and others involved with development projects that supposedly benefit wildlife and wilderness George B Schaller author of Wildlife of the Tibetan Steppe

Myself and Other Animals Gerald Durrell, 2024-12-05 A posthumous work from the beloved conservationist and naturalist Gerald Durrell to celebrate the centenary of his birth with a new foreword by HRH Princess Anne Gerald Durrell was magic SIR DAVID ATTENBOROUGH A wise genial and world encompassing book SUNDAY TIMES Fills important gaps in the biographical narrative Truly there is magic here GUARDIAN Myself and Other Animals is a new book mosaicked from unpublished autobiographies uncollected pieces and previously published extracts from Durrell's work and archives The result is an extraordinary journey through Durrell's life in his own words edited and introduced by his widow Lee Durrell Drawing on a memoir that Durrell started writing before he became too ill to continue it and an unfinished book from a trip to Australia in 1969 to the Great Barrier Reef Northern Territory and Queensland here is the unvarnished story of Durrell's life from touching family tributes to golden bats and pink pigeons Moving from India to England and then to the always sun lit Corfu told with dry wit and insight into our fellow animals here is the vivid finale of one of Britain's most beloved conservationists and prose stylists Funny and readable and hugely charming i One of the finest and most lyrical nature writers in English OBSERVER A moving tribute to Gerald's endeavours and achievements as a conservationist SPECTATOR

Local Places, Global Processes Peter Coates, David Moon, Paul Warde, 2016-02-29 We live in an age of unprecedented environmental change global interconnected and universal Yet though our lives are inextricably connected to global processes and increasingly mobile we still live in particular places Our perceptions of change and what kind of change might be for good or ill are shaped by the interaction of localised experience and the wider forces of transformation Local Places Global Processes examines how these relationships have been shaped in Britain over time in three ways First through essays addressing influential ways of understanding and debating questions of the state of nature These are complemented by case studies on conservation landscape change and management and how perceptions of environmental change have emerged or been discarded over time Chapters also draw on a series of site based workshops that brought together historians landscape managers and artists to discuss and reflect on particular sites Wicken Fen in Cambridgeshire owned by the National Trust and the first British nature reserve the Quantock Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty in Somerset England s first AONB and a landscape enriched by Romantic association and the landscape of Kielder Water and Forest a land of superlatives in Northumberland in north eastern England the largest planted forest and artificial lake in northern Europe The multi disciplinary approach draws together the exchanges artworks and writing assembled at these workshops and afterwards This opens up how being in a place and engaging with ideas attached to it shape perceptions of the environment It provides resources with which landscape managers can think about their tasks and engage various publics in discussion about future environments in light of these histories of place Rather than a history of these three places this is history written from them
