Histoire Des Cantons De Lest:

Histoire des Cantons de l'Est Université de Sherbrooke. Département d'histoire, Québec, 1792-1992 Québec (Province). Bibliothèque de l'Assemblée nationale, 1993 Quebec's Eastern Townships and the World Cheryl Gosselin, Andrew C. Holman, Christopher Kirkey, 2025-03-04 The Eastern Townships of Quebec are celebrated in popular discourse as a charming and remote nature playground for busy Montrealers an appendage to stately Quebec City and a northern abutment to the Northeast Kingdom of the United States A closer look reveals a region with its own gravity sense of being and worldly connections Quebec s Eastern Townships and the World examines the region s direct links to larger prevailing international forces and identities Here the Eastern Townships take centre stage as the reader encounters the vibrancy of a place marked not by its insularity but by its long history a central meeting ground shaped by its many engagements with the world The book provides new perspectives on compelling and significant topics in Townships history and culture including Indigenous land use the mobility of peoples to and from the region linguistic diversity economic production education sport religion and culture in myriad forms These studies recast the Eastern Townships as a centre a borderland a lieu de passage between nations communities and peoples Featuring original and compelling insights Quebec s Eastern Townships and the World confirms that this beautiful region was and is a global place one intimately connected to the world

Histoire des cantons de l'est et de la ville de Sherbrooke , Religion, Family, and Community in Victorian Canada
Marguerite Van Die,2005 While we know a great deal about the role religion played in institutions in Victorian Canada its place in home and family life has remained relatively unexplored Drawing on a treasure trove of family papers and material culture Marguerite Van Die depicts religion as lived experience in a portrait of an emblematic Protestant middle class family in Quebec s Eastern Townships The Colbys were members of Canada s emerging economic elite active in the local community public life and politics Their lives offer rich insights into the construction and practice of domestic religion and the moral and social legislation of early post Confederation Canada Taking a multidisciplinary approach that locates the home rather than the church as the primary site of religious change Van Die concludes that the origins and continuity of Protestant religion in Victorian Canada depended on a unique set of socioeconomic and cultural forces Van Die is a sympathetic and perceptive observer and a gifted and deft interpreter In her examination of the Colbys of Carrollcroft she draws attention to the links connecting domestic religion and private life business concerns and social change in one family s life over three generations

Nationalism, Capitalism, and Colonization in Nineteenth-Century Quebec J. Little,1989-06-01 The settlements economically based on lumber alone were locked into poverty and dependency by Anglophone monopoly control of the spruce forests J I Little examines the ultimate failure of the British and Quebec settlement projects and argues that the stranglehold of the monopolies was broken only by the belated extension of the rail network into the Upper St Francis district Canadians have only recently begun to question their model of company leased Crown forest reserves and to become interested in the more efficient Scandinavian model of small scale privately owned woodlots This book is one of the first to explore the ideological contradictions and social costs which followed from the entrenchment of large scale lumber

Morley, Benôit Bernier, Agathe Garon, 1971-12-15 There is no doubt that local and regional history considered by many as a kind of minor historical study has a pressing need for a systematic inventory of its resources This collection shows the durability the vividness and the astonishing productivity of a sector of history which is the stronghold of the history lover rather than the professional historian The nature and content of each book determines its selection For each book included the compilers have weighed its contribution to local history and regional history rather than the style in which it is written narrative memoir descriptive study or novel It is this criterion of selection that has permitted the retention of several general histories of a varied nature Bouchette Charlevoix Nicholas Denys La Potherie Lescarbot Hanotaux Sulte etc where local and regional life takes on a major importance for reasons of order in history method or quite simply because local life is the principal object of the study itself The editors have also retained certain works those of George W Brown Arthur Buies George M Grant Blodwen Davies etc because they are primarily descriptive and contain numerous elements in which local history blends with the manners and customs of the inhabitants of certain regions This bibliography is designed primarily for historiographers who have until now paid little attention to local regional or parochial history It will also be invaluable for librarians who suffer from the numerous difficulties involved in the classification of such works Since 1950 all works published in Canada are by virtue of the book deposit law provided to the National Library of Canada and recorded in Canadiana Revue Canadienne ,1921
