Prisms of Work Michael Rösser, 2023-12-18 The phenomenon of labour takes the character of a prism Labour is thereby always context dependent and constituted through the actions of all protagonists involved in any labour relationship On the basis of three case studies in colonial German East Africa the construction of the Central Railway 1905 1916 the Otto Plantation in Kilossa 1907 1916 and the palaeontological Tendaguru Expedition 1909 1911 labour and labour relations are analysed The focus lies on hitherto neglected actors and groups of actors of labour in the colonial context of East Africa These were especially German companies and their staff white subaltern railway sub contractors and labour recruiters Indian skilled workers and qualified East African workers Furthermore all three sites of labour proved to have their individual logics and characteristics But all of them were in tension between the global and the local coercion and voluntariness machine and manual labour skilled and unskilled labour reproductive and wage labour as well as between black and white Michael Rösser's dissertation has been awarded with honorary distinction by the European Network in Universal and Global History ENIUGH

The Prophecy That Is Shaping History Jon Mark Ruthven, Jon Ruthven, 2003 Millions of Jews Christians and Muslims believe that a 2 500 year old prophecy is about to be fulfilled a global apocalyptic jihad of many nations against the tiny state of Israel whose recent re emergence in its traditional land has sparked unrelenting rage and attack Repeated resolutions passed in the United Nations reflect world wide and nearly unanimous hostility against the so called Zionist entity even to the point of denying its right to exist Most news media and political analysts seem unaware of the ancient prophecy that not only predicts this apocalyptic war but also amazingly how this prophecy by Ezekiel chapters 36-44 provides the scenario for numerous best selling books in both the English speaking and Muslim worlds These best sellers not only describe this great conflagration but actually also motivate their readers to prepare for it The Prophecy That Is Shaping History represents a major advance in research and scholarship in examining the historical and contemporary impact of Ezekiel's prophecy on world events This academic monograph also offers a wealth of new evidence in tracing the identities origins and ultimate destinies of the key nations of Ezekiel's prophecy who are seen to participate in what millions believe will be the most horrific battle the world will ever witness
