Kipps Filmed As Half A Sixpence:

The Oxford Handbook of Musical Theatre Screen Adaptations Dominic McHugh, 2019-06-14 Hollywood's conversion to sound in the 1920s created an early peak in the film musical following the immense success of The Jazz Singer. The opportunity to synchronize moving pictures with a soundtrack suited the musical in particular since the heightened experience of song and dance drew attention to the novelty of the technological development. Until the near collapse of the genre in the 1960s, the film musical enjoyed around thirty years of development as landmarks such as The Wizard of Oz, Meet Me in St. Louis, Singin' in the Rain, and Gigi showed the exciting possibilities of putting musicals on the silver screen. The Oxford Handbook of Musical Theatre Screen Adaptations traces how the genre of the stage-to-screen musical has evolved, starting with screen adaptations of operettas such as The Desert Song and Rio Rita, and looks at how the Hollywood studios in the 1930s exploited the publication of sheet music as part of their income. Numerous chapters examine specific screen adaptations in depth, including not only favorites such as Annie and Kiss Me Kate, but also some of the lesser-known titles like Li'l Abner and Roberta, and problematic adaptations such as Carousel and Paint Your Wagon. Together, the chapters incite lively debates about the process of adapting Broadway for the big screen and provide models for future studies. H.G.

Wells on Film Don G. Smith, 2015-06-08 One of the most influential thinkers of his era, H. G. Wells is primarily known for his science-fiction writings that looked ahead in time to teach and warn. These novels and stories inspired many filmmakers to bring his visions, if often greatly altered or misfocused, to life on screen. He himself wrote screenplays and closely supervised the production of some of his work. This book is a study of every theatrically released film from 1909 to 1997 that is based even loosely on the writings of H. G. Wells, including The Time Machine, The Island of Dr. Moreau, The Invisible Man, The War of the Worlds, The First Men in the Moon, The Food of the Gods, and The Empire of the Ants, to name a few. For each film, the author discusses the circumstances surrounding its creation, its plot, how it compares with the literary work, its production and marketing, and its strengths and weaknesses based on aesthetic qualities. British Film Catalogue Denis

Donnelly, 2007-08-16 In the first book length consideration of the topic for sixty years Kevin Donnelly examines the importance of music in British film concentrating both on musical scores such as William Walton's score for Henry V 1944 and Malcolm Arnold's music for The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 and on the phenomenon of the British film musical
